Price, Price, Warron C Price, 1959 Freedom's Battle Gary J. Bass, 2008-08-19 This gripping and important book brings alive over two hundred years of humanitarian interventions Freedom's Battle illuminates the passionate debates between conscience and imperialism ignited by the first human rights activists in the 19th century and shows how a newly emergent free press galvanized British American and French citizens to action by exposing them to distant atrocities Wildly romantic and full of bizarre enthusiasms these activists were pioneers of a new political consciousness And their legacy has much to teach us about today's human rights crises Imperial Co-histories Julie F. Codell, 2003 This book explores the creation of imperial identities in Britain and several of its colonies South Africa India Australia Wales and the ways in which the Victorian press around the world shaped and reflected these identities The concept of co histories borrowed from Edward Said and Frantz Fanon helps explain how the press shaped the imperial and national identities of Britain and of the colonies into co histories that were thoroughly intertwined and symbiotic Exploring a variety of press media this book argues that the press was a site of resistance and revision by colonized authors and publishers as well as a force of colonial authority for the British government editors and publishers who projected a view of the empire to their British colonial and colonized readers Topics include The Journal of Indian Art and Industry produced by the British art schools in India women's periodicals Indian writers in the British press The Imperial Gazetteer published in Scotland the rise of telegraphic news agencies the British press's images of China seen through exhibitions of its art the Tory periodical Blackwood's Magazine and the Imperial Press Conference of 1909 University The ^AInvisible Weapon Daniel R.
