Revelations of Divine Love (Royal Collector's Edition) (Case Laminate Hardcover with Jacket) Julian Of Norwich, 2024-10-22 Revelations of Divine Love by Julian of Norwich is a medieval Christian mystical text notable for being the earliest surviving book written in English by a woman It details sixteen mystical visions or shewings that Julian experienced in 1373 while on her deathbed After recovering Julian documented these visions in a short manuscript known as the Short Text Over the following decades she expanded upon her reflections producing the more extensive Long Text both of which were written in Middle English The work gained renewed interest centuries after Julian s death Her writings were preserved through various manuscripts with the Long Text first published in 1670 by Benedictine monk Serenus de Cressy. The 19th century revival of her work led to multiple reprints and in 1901 Grace Warrack's translation introduced Julian's insights to a wider 20th century audience. Revelations of Divine Love continues to be studied for its profound spiritual reflections and historical significance in Christian mysticism. This case laminate collector's edition includes a Victorian inspired dust jacket.

Balaam's Ass: Vernacular Theology Before the English Reformation Nicholas Watson, 2022-06-21. For over seven hundred years bodies of writing in vernacular languages served an indispensable role in the religious and intellectual culture of medieval Christian England yet the character and extent of their importance have been insufficiently recognized. A longstanding identification of medieval western European Christianity with the Latin language and a lack of awareness about the sheer variety and quantity of vernacular religious writing from the English Middle Ages have hampered our understanding of the period exercising a tenacious hold on much scholarship. Bringing together work across a range of disciplines including literary study, Christian theology, social history and the history of institutions, Balaam's Ass attempts the first comprehensive overview of religious writing in early England's three most important vernacular languages: Old English, Insular French and Middle English between the ninth and sixteenth centuries. Nicholas Watson argues not only that these texts comprise the oldest continuous tradition of European vernacular writing but that they are essential to our understanding of how Christianity shaped and informed the lives of individuals, communities and polities in the Middle Ages. This first of three volumes lays out the long post-Reformation history of the false claim that the medieval Catholic Church was hostile to the vernacular. It analyzes the complicated idea of the vernacular as a medieval innovation instantiated in a huge body of surviving vernacular religious texts. Finally it focuses on the first long generation of these writings in Old English and early Middle English.

Bulletin, 1902

Julian of Norwich Janina Ramirez, 2016-10-01. Over six hundred years ago a woman known as Julian of Norwich wrote what is now regarded as one of the greatest works of literature in English. Based on a sequence of mystical visions she received in 1373, her book is called Revelations of Divine Love. Julian lived through an age of political and religious turmoil as well as through the misery of the Black Death and her writing engages with timeless questions about life, love and the meaning of suffering. But who was Julian of Norwich? And what can she teach us today? Medievalist and TV historian Janina Ramirez invites you to join her in exploring Julian's remarkable life and times, offering insights into how and why her writing has survived and what we can learn from this fourteenth century mystic whose work lay hidden in the shadows of her male contemporaries for far too long.

Gifted Origins to Graced Fulfillment Kerrie Hide, 2001. 2002 Catholic Press Association Award Winner. The classical expression of soteriology (salvation theology) has tended to spiritualize salvation and place it on a supernatural plane where it loses contact with the existential lives of people. In the face of this heritage, questions have risen from contemporary experience that challenge the Christian tradition Does life have meaning Is love at the core of all reality In Gifted Origins to Graced Fulfillment Kerrie Hide searches for responses to these questions Hide examines the soteriology presented in the Revelations of Divine Love composed by Julian of Norwich She analyzes the understanding of salvation expressed in the Visions or showings of Julian and expands previous theological inquiry into Julian's texts After demonstrating how Julian's theology is a trinitarian theology of love Hide addresses each aspect of Julian's soteriology within the framework of her trinitarian formula The theological precis reveals that for Julian salvation is a process of oneing in a mystical three part journey from our origins with God to our ultimate return to God Hide's analysis provides a hermeneutic for examining mystical literature theologically and demonstrates the important contribution mystical theology makes to the broader field of theology She contributes a systematic study of Julian's understanding of salvation not undertaken previously In Part One Hide examines Julian's Visionary experience and her expression of the experience that led others to reflect on record and write about her texts She also presents a hermeneutic for interpreting Julian's showings Part Two presents Julian's soteriology as a trinitarian soteriology of oneing and explores how our life is in three stages In Part Three Hide delves into our gifted origins She surveys Julian's creation theology and her anthropology Part Four focuses on Christology This section presents Christ's role in redemption through the cross through his work as servant and through his function as mother Part Five inquires into graced endings The chapters examine the present experience of graced fulfillment in the power of the Holy Spirit and the hope for fulfillment in the eschaton Finally in Part Six Hide draws together Julian's understanding of salvation She appraises the relevance of these teachings for today Chapters are Julian of Norwich A Hermeneutic for Interpreting the Showings Oneing Through the Trinity Oneing in Being Oneing Through the Crucifixion Oneing Through the Servant Oneing Through Christ Deep Wisdom and Mother Oneing Through the Holy Spirit Oneing in the Eschaton and Julian's Spiritual Understanding

Reclaiming Motherhood from a Culture Gone Mad Samantha N. Stephenson, 2022-10-13 In the midst of a culture that is increasingly confused about sexuality love life and our very identity as persons the Church offers us the truth of who we are For women this truth is rooted in motherhood not just biological but even more spiritual because women are the bearers and nurturers of life Yet it's difficult to understand and defend the true value of motherhood when the lies that permeate secular culture have seeped into our own way of thinking even in the Church Reclaiming Motherhood from a Culture Gone Mad helps Catholics to peel back societal assumptions to understand the fundamental misconceptions fueling our culture's attacks on marriage motherhood and the family Examining current practices in light of these faulty assumptions will empower women in their own motherhood and equip Catholics to combat the culture of confusion by boldly proclaiming God's vision for our lives This book offers a deep dive into what the Church teaches on motherhood and its dignity equipping us to understand the WHY behind those teachings It is only by living within a vision that honors the self gift of motherhood as the pinnacle of womanhood that love and not self interest can begin to reorder our lives in the Middle Ages Frances Beer, 1992 Original and thought provoking study of three medieval women mystics based on writings and biographical material A wholly feminine voice within Catholicism they express the inexpressible better than any amount of rational thinking about God THE TIMES The three women who are the subject of this fascinating study left a rich legacy of medieval spirituality Frances Beer explores their writings and draws on available historical evidence to bring the experience of all three women closer to a 20th century audience She sees Hildegard's perception of her Creator as informed by the heroic ideal while Mechthild's erotic experience seems to show the influence of the minnesingers Julian's experience of tender intimacy with her Lord demonstrates an egalitarian confidence in the ability of the individual soul to progress towards oneness with the divine Their individual natures are also further revealed through the author's examination of their resolution of a number of theological problems In contrast the works of two medieval men writing for women are also explored FRANCES BEER is Associate Professor of English at York University Toronto

Women and Mystical Experience
