Revenge Of The Crystal Selected Writing On The Modern Object And Its Destiny:

Revenge Of The Crystal - Classic Edition Jean Baudrillard,1999-01-20 Introduces a wide range of Baudrillard s thoughts including essays on subjectivity sex death and mass media culture Jean Baudrillard: The Disappearance of Culture Richard G. Smith,2017-04-28 Originally published between 1968 and 2009 this collection of 25 pieces includes six interviews translated into English for the first time and a new transcription of a Q A session with Baudrillard following a lecture he gave in London in 1994 The guiding theme of the collection is Baudrillard s engagement with culture The implications of the implosion of Western culture are dissected and documented in the rich range of material included here Henry James and the Culture of Publicity Richard Salmon,1997-10-02 This book examines the relationship between the writings of Henry James and the historical formation of mass culture Throughout his career James was concerned with such characteristically modern cultural forms as advertising biography and the New Journalism forms which together constituted the devouring publicity of modern life Richard Salmon s study situates James s fiction and criticism within the context of the contemporary debates surrounding these rival discursive practices He explores both the nature of James s contribution to the critique of mass culture and the extent of his immersion within it James s persistent and ambivalent negotiation of the boundaries between private and public experience ranged from a defence of the artist s right to privacy to his own counter practice of publicity Consumer Society and the Post-modern City David B Clarke,2004-03 Working through the often controversial ideas of the consumer society s most influential theorists Jean Baudrillard and Zygmunt Bauman this book assesses the ways in which consumerism is reshaping the nature and meaning of the city The Cinematic Novel and Postmodern Pop Fiction Décio Torres Cruz,2019-12-05 D cio Torres Cruz approaches connections between literature and cinema partly through issues of gender and identity and partly through issues of reality and representation In doing so he looks at the various ways in which people have thought of the so called cinematic novel tracing the development of that genre concept not only in the French cin roman and film scenarios but also in novels from the United States England France and Latin America The main tendency he identifies is the blending of the cinematic novel with pop literature through allusions to Pop Art and other postmodern cultural trends His prime exhibits are a number of novels by the Argentinian writer Manuel Puig Betrayed by Rita Hayworth Heartbreak Tango The Buenos Aires Affair Kiss of the Spider Woman and Pubis angelical Bringing in suggestive sociocultural and psychoanalytical considerations Cruz shows how in Puig s hands the cinematic novel resulted in a pop collage of different texts films discourses and narrative devices which fused reality and imagination into dream and desire Key Concepts in Cultural Theory Andrew Edgar,Lecturer in Philosophy in the School of English Studies Andrew Edgar,Peter Sedgwick,2005-10-09 This work presents a survey of over 350 of the key terms encountered in cultural theory today each entry providing explanations for students in a wide range of disciplines These include literature cultural studies sociology and philosophy The Emotional Life of Postmodern Film Pansy Duncan,2015-11-19 Emotion and Postmodernism is it possible to imagine an odder couple stranger bedfellows less bad company The Emotional Life of Postmodern Film brings this unlikely pair into sustained dialogue arguing that the interdisciplinary body of scholarship currently emerging under the rubric of affect theory may be unexpectedly enriched by an encounter with the field that has become its critical other Across a series of radical re appraisals of canonical postmodern texts from Fredric Jameson s Postmodernism to David Cronenberg s Crash Duncan shows that the same postmodern archive that has proven resistant to strongly subject based and object oriented emotions like anger and sadness proves all too congenial to a series of idiosyncratic borderline emotions from knowingness fascination and bewilderment to boredom and euphoria The analysis of these emotions in turn promises to shake up scholarly consensus on two key counts On the one hand it will restructure our sense of the place and role of emotion in a critical enterprise that has long cast it as the stodgy subjective sister of a supposedly more critically interesting and politically productive affect On the other it will transform our perception of postmodernism as a now historical aesthetic and theoretical moment teaching us to acknowledge more explicitly and to name more clearly the emotional life that energizes it

The Gothic Condition David Punter, 2016-04-20 breadth of range attention to the psychological meanings of various forms of the Gothic inclusion of material on some of the best known Gothic texts including Frankenstein and Dracula

Representing Organization Simon Lilley, Geoffrey Lightfoot, Paulo Amaral, 2004 This textbook provides an accessible theoretical analysis of the organizational impact of information technologies It seeks to examine and comment upon the myriad ways in which actors organizations and environments are represented through these technologies Contemporary threats to organizational form and stability are considered alongside the potential that information technologies offer to both exacerbate and overcome them It examines amongst others issues surrounding the material and symbolic aspects of information systems risk and prediction systems implementation and systems success knowledge management practices accountability and other management practices computerized modelling and the virtual organization To this end it deploys a number of different theoretical lenses including systems theory social constructivism labour process theory post structuralism actor network theory These offer complementary and contrasting insights into the computerization of managerial work In order to ensure that the book is both relevant and approachable to students from a range of backgrounds these theories are applied to real examples of the development and implementation of information systems This combination fosters practical knowledge that is theoretically informed The book thus aims to bridge the gap between the abstractions of current theories of organization and the grounded material that forms the bulk of Information Systems literature It thus offers a novel way into the ongoing debates surrounding technological change and the perennial problems of managerial control It has been designed to support theoretically informed Information and Technology courses at the advanced undergraduate and postgraduate levels and will also be of interest to academics in the fields of Management Information Technology Sociological and Cultural studies

Sculpture and the Vitrine John C.

Welchman, 2017-07-05 Vitrines and glass cabinets are familiar apparatuses that have in large part defined modern modes of display and visibility both within and beyond the museum. They separate objects from their contexts, group them with other objects both similar and dissimilar, and often serve to reinforce their intrinsic or aesthetic values. The vitrine has much in common with the picture frame, the plinth, and the gallery, but it has not yet received the kind of detailed art historical and theoretical discussion that has been brought to these other modes of formal display. The twelve contributions to this volume examine some of the points of origin of the vitrine and the various relations it brokers with sculpture, first in the Wunderkammer and cabinet of curiosities, and then in dialog with the development of glazed architecture beginning with Paxton's Crystal Palace 1851. The collection offers close discussions of the role of the vitrine and shop window in the rise of commodity culture and their apposition with Constructivist design in the work of Frederick Kiesler, as well as original readings of the use of vitrines in Surrealism and Fluxus and in work by Joseph Beuys, Paul Thek, Claes Oldenburg, and his collaborators Jeff Koons, Mike Kelley, Dan Graham, Vito Acconci, Damien Hirst, and Josephine Meckseper, among others. Sculpture and the Vitrine also raises key questions about the nature and implications of vitrinous space, including its fronts, onto desire and the spectacle, transparency and legibility, and onto ideas and practices associated with the archive, collecting, preserving, and ordering.
