Reversing The Gaze:

Between Two Worlds: A Rajput Officer in the Indian Army, 1905-21 DeWitt C. Ellinwood, 2005-02-15 Diary of Amar Singh with annotations commentary and introduction by DeWitt C Ellinwood Jr Reversing the Gaze Geneviève Makaping, 2023-01-13 Tired of being scrutinized criticized and fetishized for her black skin Cameroon born scholar Geneviève Makaping turns the tables on Italy's white majority regarding them through the same unsparing gaze to which minorities have traditionally been subjected As she candidly recounts her experiences first across Africa and then as a migrant Black woman in Italy Makaping describes acts of racist aggression that are wearying and degrading to encounter on a daily basis She also offers her perspective on how various forms of inequality based on race color gender and class feed off each other Reversing the Gaze invites readers to confront the question of racism through the retelling of everyday occurrences that we might have experienced as victims perpetrators or witnesses Reversing the Gaze Geneviève Makaping, 2023-01-13 Tired of being scrutinized criticized and fetishized for her black skin Cameroon born scholar Geneviève Makaping turns the tables on Italy's white majority regarding them through the same unsparing gaze to which minorities are subjected Reversing the Gaze offers a unique perspective on otherness and the work we must do to create a truly inclusive society Witnessing Sadism in Texts of the American South Claire Raymond, 2019-10-28 Looking at works by Carrie Mae Weems Toni Morrison Emily Dickinson Flannery O'Connor Dorothy Allison Carson McCullers and Zora Neale Hurston Claire Raymond uncovers a pattern of femininity constructed around representations of sadistic violence in American women's literature and photography from the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries Dickinson's poetry is read through its relationship to the Southern Agrarian critics who championed her work While the representations of violence found in Carrie Mae Weems's installation From Here I Saw What Happened and I Cried Morrison's Beloved Dickinson's poetry O'Connor's A View of the Woods and A Good Man Is Hard to Find Allison's Bastard Out of Carolina McCullers' Ballad of the Sad Café and Hurston's Mules and Men are diverse in terms of artistic presentation all allude to or are set in the antebellum and Jim Crow South In addition all involve feminine characters whose subjectivity is shaped by the practice of seeing acts of violence inflicted where there can be no effective resistance While not proposing an equivalence between representing violence in visual images and written text Raymond does suggest that visual images of violence can be interpreted in context with written evocations of violent imagery Invoking sadism in its ethical sense of violence enacted on a victim for whom self defense and recourse of any kind are impossible Raymond's study is ultimately an exploration of the idea that a femininity constructed by the positioning of feminine characters as witnesses to sadistic acts is a phenomenon distinctly of the American South that is linked to the culture's history of racism Women Filmmakers Jacqueline Levitin, Judith Plessis, Valerie Raoul, 2016-02-29 This wide ranging volume of new work brings together women filmmakers and critics who speak about what has changed over the past twenty years Including such filmmakers as Margarethe von Trotta Deepa Mehta and Pratibha Parmar and such disciplinary trans regional and epistemic perspectives that came out of the Berlin based co2libri networking initiative with longstanding collaborative partners based in the global South Co2libri stands for conceptual collaboration living borderless research interaction As an interdisciplinary and transregional oriented initiative co2libri envisages a multicentric perspective that integrates neglected positions of Southern theory and praxis into the heart of academic conversations Co2libri s collaborative endeavor builds on long standing active connections with partners in Africa South and Southeast Asia and the Middle East Instead of setting an agenda from the North it proposes to figure out ways forward through collaborative engagement building on relationships of mutual trust Using formats that facilitate substantial and open ended discussion we are re thinking theory and method academic practices and research ethics while keeping material inequalities in view Contributors to this edited volume are working toward the implementation of various innovative activities research perspectives and collaboration formats which all subscribe to the principle of dialogue on equal footing with scholars and activists based in divergent positionalities along and beyond the Global North South divide In different ways the authors work toward the goal of producing more adequate and more sensitive critical knowledge and applying a fresh view to approach methods and ethical standards Overall the volume works sometimes in exploratory ways with alternative frames of reference while it presents diverse theorizations of lived experiences
