Review Volume 21:

Annual Review of Nursing Research, Volume 21, 2003 Joyce J. Fitzpatrick, PhD, MBA, RN, FAAN, 2003-05-28 This 21st volume of the Annual Review synthesizes nursing research to date on child health and illness including family issues Ages range from pre term babies to adolescents with a focus on chronic illness A special final chapter reviews the highlights of the past 10 volumes of the Annual Review of Nursing Research to mark the 20th anniversary of the Review Delinquency and Drift Revisited, Volume 21 Thomas G. Blomberg, Francis T. Cullen, Christoffer Carlsson, Cheryl Lero Jonson, 2017-07-31 Fifty years ago David Matza wrote Delinquency and Drift challenging the ways people thought about the development of criminals Today Delinquency and Drift Revisited reminds criminologists that they ignore Matza's writings at their own intellectual peril Matza's work shows his insights on a range of core criminological issues such as the complex nature of culture and its connection to criminality the extent to which rule breakers are truly different from the rest of us the importance of focusing on human agency in understanding the subjective side of offending the interaction of propensity and peer influences in criminal involvement the role of the state in signifying individuals as deviant and entrapping them in criminal roles and the processes that lead offenders to desist from crime This volume was not written to pay homage to Matza but to show how his ideas remain relevant to criminology today by continuing to question conventional wisdom by making us pay attention to realities we have overlooked and by inspiring us to theorize more innovatively MIMA Bulletin Volume 21 (1) 2014, 2014-06-01 In an increasingly complex and interlinked world Malaysia's dependence on the seas will continue to be shaped by a multitude of new constantly evolving and multifaceted issues and challenges Claims and counterclaims of maritime features and territories the jostling for influence and space among naval powers depletion of marine resources pollution of the oceans and marine environment climate change sea level rise impact of global economic vagaries on the maritime industry will continue to dominate Malaysia's maritime agenda These issues demand nuanced responses to ensure our manifold maritime interests are not compromised and the regional seas remain open for our use and for the benefit of the international community Confronting and addressing them require proactive creative and well thought out policies and positions to safeguard national economic sovereign and strategic interests and to ensure our seas remain clean safe secure and bountiful for current and future use 75 Years After Partition Amit Ranjan, Farooq Sulehria, 2025-07-24 This book explores how the 1947 Partition of British India not only divided people and territories but also deepened cultural rifts in postcolonial India Pakistan and Bangladesh especially between Hindus and Muslims The colonial divide and rule strategy which intensified religious divides laid the foundation for ongoing tensions Even as the 75th anniversary of Partition approached in 2022 this cultural segregation remains prevalent Over the years mass media such as films press and television have significantly evolved in India Bangladesh and Pakistan playing a pivotal role in manufacturing disseminating and perpetuating the narrative of cultural differences based on religion These cultural platforms have gained even more influence with the rise of majoritarian nationalism in both India and Pakistan The chapters in this volume analyse how language cinema and textbooks contributed to the divide instead of bridging gaps and why unresolved questions from the Partition continue to affect the region The chapters cover the communalization of Hindi and Urdu how textbooks in India Bangladesh and Pakistan narrate Partition the role of mass media in India and Pakistan in presenting Partition and the portrayal of Partition in films across India Bangladesh and Pakistan This book is aimed at students researchers and scholars interested in postcolonial studies South Asian history cultural studies and media analysis The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of India Review

Multinational Companies from Japan Robert Fitzgerald,Chris Rowley,2017-10-02 Since the bursting of Japan's bubble economy from 1990 onwards its multinational companies MNCs have faced new competitive challenges and questions about the management practices on which they had built their initial success in global markets Japanese engagement in the international economy has undergone a number of phases Historically Japanese MNCs learnt from foreign companies frequently through strategic alliances After the post war economic miracle Japanese manufacturers in particular converted themselves into MNCs transferred their home grown capabilities to overseas subsidiaries and made an impact on the world economy But the period after 1990 marked declining Japanese competitiveness and asked questions about the ability of Japanese MNCs to be more responsive and global in their strategies organization and capabilities It has been argued that the established management practices of Japanese MNCs inhibited adaptation to recent demands of global competition This volume presents new case evidence on how Japanese MNCs have responded to the new challenges of the global market place and it provides examples of how they have transformed strategies and competitive capabilities This book was originally published as a special issue of Asia Pacific Business Review
