Revising Fiction A Handbook For Writers:

Revising Fiction David Madden, 1988 Southern Writers Joseph M. Flora, Amber Vogel, 2006-06-21 This new edition of Southern Writers assumes its distinguished predecessor's place as the essential reference on literary artists of the American South. Broadly expanded and thoroughly revised, it boasts 604 entries, nearly double the earlier edition's, written by 264 scholars. For every figure, major and minor, from the venerable and canonical to the fresh and innovative, a biographical sketch and chronological list of published works provide comprehensive, concise, up-to-date information. Here, in one convenient source, are the South's novelists and short story writers, poets and dramatists, memoirists and essayists, journalists, scholars, and biographers from the colonial period to the twenty-first century. What constitutes a southern writer is always a matter for debate. Editors Joseph M. Flora and Amber Vogel have used a generous definition that turns on having a significant connection to the region in either a personal or literary sense. New to this volume are younger writers who have emerged in the quarter century since the dictionary's original publication, as well as older talents previously unknown or unacknowledged. For almost every writer found in the previous edition, a new biography has been commissioned. Drawn from the very best minds on southern literature and covering the full spectrum of its practitioners, Southern Writers is an indispensable reference book for anyone intrigued by the subject.

James Agee in Context Michael A. Lofaro, 2023-01-17 It's difficult to overestimate the impact of the many new works by James Agee uncovered and published in the last twenty years These previously unknown primary works have in turn encouraged a parallel explosion of critical evaluation and reevaluation by scholars to which James Agee in Context is the latest contribution This superb collection from well known James Agee scholars features myriad approaches and contexts for understanding the author's fiction poetry journalism and screenwriting The essays bring the reader from the streets of James Agee's New York to travel with the author from Alabama to Hollywood to Havana Contributors explore overlapping and sometimes unique subjects themes and accomplishments or lack thereof in Agee's uncovered works and highlight the diversity of interest that Agee's complete body of work inspires The insightful scholarship on influence examines connections between Agee and Wright Morris Helen Levitt John Dos Passos Ernest Hemingway and Stephen Crane Such juxtapositions serve to illustrate how Agee drew on literary influences as a young man how he used his work as a journalist to craft fiction as he was about to turn thirty and his influence upon others The volume concludes with three poems and a short story by Agee all previously unknown It seems astonishing that so much remains to be discovered about this protean author his materials and his circle Yet the recovery and analysis of neglected texts and information mined from newspapers and magazines proves the extent to which Agee kept his mind and his work as he himself put it patiently concentrated upon the essential quietudes of the human soul
