Revitalising The Waterfront International Dimensions Of Dockland Redevelopment

Arndt Graf, Chua Beng Huat

Revitalising the Waterfront B. S. Hoyle, David Pinder, M. Sohail Husain, 1988 Revitalising the Waterfront B.S. Hoyle, D.A. Pinder, M.S. Husain, 1992 This is the first broad international analysis exploring dockland revitalization and its role in the changing urban environment Stressing processes analysis and planning issues it explains how urban planners and managers are reacting to the opportunities and challenges these changes represent A major contribution to contemporary urban studies America's Waterfront Revival Peter Hendee Brown, 2009-01-06 Examines the experiences of the port authorities of Tampa San Francisco San Diego and Philadelphia and Camden organizations that diversified beyond traditional maritime cargo operations into new lines of business related to waterfront development Ocean Management in Global Change P. Fabbri, 2003-09-02 The main aims of the conference were to examine present and expected trends in coastal and ocean resource use to evaluate the state of the art and the expected evolution in theory and practice of management and to discuss scientific and technological developments and their impacts on management Reshaping Toronto's Waterfront Gene Desfor, Jennefer Laidley, 2011-05-07 Large scale development is once again putting Toronto's waterfront at the leading edge of change As in other cities around the world policymakers planners and developers are envisioning the waterfront as a space of promise and a prime location for massive investments Currently the waterfront is being marketed as a crucial territorial wedge for economic ascendancy in globally competitive urban areas Reshaping Toronto's Waterfront analyses how and why problem spaces on the waterfront have become opportunity spaces during the past hundred and fifty years Contributors with diverse areas of expertise illuminate processes of development and provide fresh analyses of the intermingling of nature and society as they appear in both physical forms and institutional arrangements which define and produce change Reshaping Toronto's Waterfront is a fundamental resource for understanding the waterfront as a dynamic space that is neither fully tamed nor wholly uncontrolled Waterfront Design in Small Mediterranean Port Towns Giovanna Piga, 2022-03-02 This book addresses issues that waterfronts face in small Mediterranean port towns due to increases in the tourism industry Integrating theory and pragmatic approaches Waterfront Design in Small Port Towns proposes a design matrix which can go on to be implemented in waterfronts globally The demand for a sustainable regeneration of the urban waterfront is constantly growing and represents the ultimate challenge to preserve and value the uniqueness of the region and to activate an overall redevelopment of small port towns To understand these issues Waterfront Design in Small Port Towns contains an in depth investigation of the cultural and environmental assets and spatial socio economic factors of the urban waterfront This is conducted through the author's original methodological framework the Waterfront Design Matrix which responds to the specific scales and idiosyncrasies of the archetypical waterfront The methodological and theoretical approach developed in the book can be applied to different geographical locations and countries presenting comparable characteristics This book is an ideal read for professionals and students alike with an interest in urban design and planning Urban Design Jon Lang, 2006-08-11 Urban Design provides a comprehensive and accessible introduction to urban design presenting a 3 dimensional model with which to categorise the processes and products involved It not only defines the subject but also considers the future direction of the field and what can be learned from the past 50 international case studies demonstrate the variety of urban design efforts that have occurred in recent history Port Cities in Asia and Europe Arndt Graf, Chua Beng Huat, 2008-11-20 With the demise of European socialist economies and the marketization of Asian communist countries a new global capitalism has reshaped the configuration of the world economy with speed a determining factor to all transactions of information finance goods and services and people Sea ports that were significant for a slower but no less global economy have been undergoing transformation to stay economically and culturally relevant Some manage to reinvent themselves as tourist cities some face decline if they do not manage to transform This volume looks at a number of port cities in Asia and Europe that face this pressure With contributions considering history contemporary developments contacts between ports the representation of ports and the relations between port cities and their hinterlands This comparative study identifies many parallels between local histories and developments in the Asian and European port cities as well as new opportunities for sharing experiences and learning from the developments and decisions in similar situations in other port cities The Infrastructure of Play Dennis R. Judd, 2015-02-12 Using in depth case studies this volume shows how the infrastructure of tourism has transformed cities throughout North America It makes clear that the modern urban environment is being thoroughly altered to emphasize the growing tourism sector in such areas as renovated waterfronts Urban Regeneration in the UK Andrew Tallon, 2009-08-21 Exploring the streets of London Manchester Belfast Edinburgh or Cardiff one cannot help but notice the striking transformations taking place in the urban landscapes This prominent regeneration of urban areas in the UK and around the world has become an increasingly important issue amongst governments and populations The growing concern has been a result of the impacts of the decline of cities since the collapse of manufacturing industries and the heightening of global competition A range of innovative approaches to tackle urban problems have been taken over many decades to attempt to regenerate the fortunes of towns and cities across the UK This text provides an accessible yet critical synthesis of urban regeneration in the UK incorporating key policies approaches issues and debates The central objective of the book is to place the historical and contemporary regeneration agenda into context Section one sets up the conceptual and policy framework for urban regeneration in the UK Section Two traces policies that have been adopted by central government to influence the social economic and physical development of cities including early municipal interventions in the late nineteenth century community focused urban policies of the late 1960s entrepreneurial property led regeneration of the 1980s and competition for urban funds in the 1990s The penultimate section illustrates the key thematic policies and strategies that have been pursued by cities themselves focusing particularly on improving economic competitiveness and tackling social disadvantage

These approaches are contextualized by discussions covering for example urban competitiveness policies and the focus on sustainable urban regeneration The final section summarizes key issues and debates facing urban regeneration and speculates upon future directions Urban Regeneration in the UK blends the approaches taken by central government programmes and cities themselves in the regeneration process The latest ideas and examples from across disciplines and across the UK s urban areas are illustrated This book provides a comprehensive and up to date synthesis that will fill a significant gap in the current literature on regeneration and will be a tool for students as well as a seminal read for practitioners and researchers
