God's Missionary People Charles E. Van Engen, 1991-09 A world claiming theology of the church draws on ancient and modern thoughts The author focuses on how the church can grow to become in reality God's missionary people
To All Nations From All Nations Carlos F. Cardoza-Orlandi, Dr. Justo L. Gonzalez, 2013-04-01 Sharing the Good News might be understood as the prime directive of the Church from its earliest times but the Church soon discovered unforeseen obstacles and its own set of temptations including its lust for power and domination Although the gospel might be joyfully offered it was not always received in the same spirit And the Church was not always gracious with dissent and criticism Even so the Church continues to reach out to the least the last and the lost attempting to bring them into the family of God But for mission to be effective today it must take advantage of indigenous resources and recognize its limitations as well as its gifts This book broadly introduces prominent missionary practices and major historical figures using three perspectives First it takes into account the missionary activity proceeding from the margins rather than only discussing the center of theological and ecclesial activity Second it narrates the cross cultural cross confessional and cross religious dynamics that characterize Christian missionary activity And third it emphasizes that much missionary activity is generated by national rather than international missionaries The text concludes with a chapter on the postmodern and postcolonial world
The Forgotten Church Glenn Daman, 2018-05-01 Winner of Christianity Today's Award of Merit for The Church Pastoral Leadership 2018 Whether it's because of the 2016 Presidential election or books like Hillbilly Elegy Americans are beginning to understand the tremendous influence people in rural areas have in our nation But rural America not urban America is also the new center of poverty Thus the rural church stands at the crossroads of strength and struggle It carries the gospel the very hope and power needed Yet its ministry efforts are hamstrung because urban and suburban churches often don't realize their need for rural churches and the rural church itself rarely understands its unique assets and values The Forgotten Church addresses these problems and provides an overview of rural ministry explores opportunities recent trends provide showcases the remarkable benefits of suburban urban and rural churches working together This book is essential for any pastor whether from the city or the sticks because we are one body and we need each other

Religious Revitalization Among the Kiowas Benjamin R. Kracht, 2018-04-01 Framed by theories of syncretism and revitalization Religious Revitalization among the Kiowas examines changes in Kiowa belief and ritual in the final decades of the nineteenth century During the height of the horse and bison culture Kiowa beliefs were founded in the notion of daudau a force permeating the universe that was accessible through vision quests Following the end of the Southern Plains wars in 1875 the Kiowas were confined within the boundaries of the Kiowa Comanche Apache Plains Apache Reservation As wards of the government they witnessed the extinction of the bison herds which led to the collapse of the Sun Dance by 1890 Though prophet movements in the 1880s had failed to restore the bison other religions emerged to fill the void left by the loss of the Sun Dance Kiowas now sought daudau through the Ghost Dance Christianity and the Peyote religion Religious Revitalization among the Kiowas examines the historical and sociocultural conditions that spawned the new religions that arrived in Kiowa country at the end of the nineteenth century as well as Native and non Native reactions to them A thorough examination of these sources reveals how resilient and adaptable the Kiowas were in the face of cultural genocide between 1883 and 1933 Although the prophet movements and the Ghost Dance were short lived Christianity and the Native American Church have persevered into the twenty first century Benjamin R Kracht shows how Kiowa traditions and spirituality were amalgamated into the new religions creating a distinctive Kiowa identity

A Handbook for Catholic Preaching Edward Foley, 2016 While admitting particular parameters and priorities for Roman Catholic preachers this volume was intentionally envisioned as a handbook for catholic preaching in the broadest and most universal sense of that term Cosponsored by the Catholic Academy of Liturgy the Catholic Association of Teachers of Homiletics and the Federation of Diocesan Liturgical Commissions it covers the role of the Scriptures in preaching the challenges of preaching in a digital age sermonizing in an interfaith context and the need for a liberative and prophetic word that cuts across denominations and even faith traditions Intended to aid those who teach or direct the preaching arts the design and writing style of this book are particularly calibrated to graduate students in ministerial studies Every article is a self contained overview of a particular historical period genre of preaching homiletic theory or contemporary issue This more encyclopedic approach devoid of footnotes yet supported by pertinent bibliography and an extensive index provides a sufficiently rich yet thoroughly accessible gateway to major facets of the preaching arts at this stage of the twenty first century General Editor Edward Foley Associate Editors Catherine Vincie Richard N Fragomeni Contributors Herbert Anderson John F Baldwin Alden Lee Bass Dianne Bergant Stephen Bevans Robert Bireley John Carr Anthony Collamati Michael E Connors Gueric DeBona Frank DeSiano William T Ditewig Con Foley Edward Foley Richard N Fragomeni Ann M Garrido Gregory Heille Lucy Lind Hogan Patrick R Lagges David J Lose Barbara K Lundblad Ricky Manalo Robert F Morneau Carolyn Muessig vanThanh Nguyen Mary Margaret Pazdan Patricia Parachini Jorge Presmanes Craig Alan Satterlee Catherine Vincie Richard Vosko James A Wallace Margaret Moers Wenig Alex Zenthoefer

Asian Revitalization Katie Cummer, 2021-01-11 Adaptive reuse refers to reusing an old building for a purpose other than which it was originally built or designed This conservation approach has become increasingly popular around the world However there are few publications that focus on its application in Asia This book fills this gap by looking at both unique and shared aspects of adaptive reuse in three Asian urban centers Hong Kong Shanghai and Singapore Building on government policy documents and extensive field work this book contextualizes adaptive reuse in each city and reveals the impetus behind a wide range of projects from revitalization in Hong Kong commercial development in Shanghai to community building in Singapore The introductory chapter sets adaptive reuse within an international perspective noting salient differences and similarities between Asia and other parts of the world It also anchors the discussion within a regional perspective focusing on the similarities and differences between Hong Kong Shanghai and Singapore Each of the following four essays addresses a specific topic about adaptive reuse including its relationship to urban development and sustainability how it benefits heritage buildings and how it reveals best practices in heritage conservation in Asia The subsequent three essays one for each city supplemented with timelines set out a clear framework for understanding the city specific case studies that follow the essays Afterwards fifteen representative projects across the three cities are presented as in depth case studies The pairing of essays and case studies provides a detailed understanding of each city s approach to adaptive reuse in the twenty first century a time when the need for sustainable development solutions are at the forefront Intended for classroom use and professional readership this book will be of considerable value in Asia as well as elsewhere providing material for stimulating and worthwhile discussion Asian Revitalization is a highly practical and accessible volume on the long established conservation practice of adaptive reuse in East Asia Its focus on real life issues examples and challenges posed by revitalization programs in the region is extremely relevant to researchers and practitioners in architectural conservation urban design and urban studies Miles Glendinning University of Edinburgh Scotland This is a superb well documented and original book written by some of the best known and highly respected authors in the field of heritage conservation The carefully examined case studies illustrate a wide variety of solutions that highlight the work of some of the best minds of the next generations Alastair Kerr University of Victoria Canada This is a most interesting set of essays informative and thought provoking The best way to save any heritage building is by keeping it in beneficial use and how to achieve this in a sensitive manner is what these essays are about They should be vital reading for anyone considering an adaptive reuse project in Asia Michael Morrison Purcell UK With cultural heritage firmly ensconced in the global development agendas of the United Nations this well grounded volume draws upon the experience of Hong Kong SAR Shanghai and Singapore to demonstrate to scholars and practitioners alike how historic properties can be sustained through savvy adaptive reuse in the midst of tremendous urban redevelopment pressures Montira Horayangura Unakul UNESCO Bangkok Thailand
