Revolution Of The Mind The Life Of Andre Breton:

Revolution of the Mind Mark Polizzotti, 2009 Aptly described by playwright Eugene Ionesco as one of the four or five great reformers of modern thought Andre Breton 1896 1966 was the founder and prime mover of Surrealism the most influential artistic and literary movement of the 20th century Poet and theorist artistic impresario and political agitator Breton was a man of paradoxical character inspiring one moment crushingly tyrannical the next embracing friends like Brunel Dali Duchamp Miro Man Ray Aragon and Eluard only to exile them as enemies later From its emergence from Dada after World War I through its culmination in the 1960s here is the Surrealist world in detail Black Widow Press

Revolution of the Mind Mark Polizzotti, 1995 A biography of Andre Breton From his involvement in the Paris Dada movement in the 1920s through to his experiments with automatic writing and induced slumbers the elements that culminated in Breton's contribution to Surrealism proper are charted in this book André Breton André Breton, 2003-10 This is a kind of essence of Breton variously translated by some of our finest writers each of whom highlights different facets of Breton's complex work Mark Polizzotti's useful introduction provides context and a brief analysis of the artist and his times Diane di Prima author of Recollections of My Life as a Woman Mark Polizzotti who is a poet a translator and the author of the definitive biography of Andr Breton has chosen stellar translations of Breton's dazzling poetry and placed it in its lively context This shapely introduction to the life and work of Andr Breton is smart concise and exciting I cannot imagine a better one Ron Padgett poet and translator of The Complete Poems of Blaise Cendrars The Poets for the Millennium Series generally and Andr Breton's Selected Works specifically offers a workable image of an author and the work and the conjuncture all at once What comes across is a vivid presentation of Andre Breton not just as an art czar a manifesto merchant but a serious haunted inventive and strangely profound poet of the imagination who invented or archeologized new ways of dreaming but insisted on bearing witness with them in the actual world Polizzotti does justice as I think no other writer has to the double burden of Breton's work Robert Kelly A superbly chosen selection of Breton's poetry and prose translated in every case with an elegant intelligence and preceded by an unusually thorough introduction showing quite exactly how the poet's life informed each epoch of his work It proves again the remarkable un-boringness of Breton and how important he is now to our own poetry and to us Mary Ann Caws author of The Surrealist Look An Erotics of Encounter and editor of The Surrealist Painters and Poets Surreal Lives Ruth Brandon, 2000-08 A sharp analysis of the Surrealist movement and the group of writers painters and filmmakers who set out to change the perception of the world Photographs

André Breton in Exile Victoria Clouston, 2017-09-22 Following the journey of Andr Breton the leader of the Surrealist movement into exile during the Second World War the author of this book traces the trajectory of his thought and poetic output from 1941 1948 Through a close examination of the major and as yet little studied works written during these years she demonstrates how Breton's quest for a new myth for the postwar world led him to widen his enquiry into hermeticism myth and the occult This ground breaking study establishes Breton s profound intellectual debt to 19th century Romanticism its literature and thought revealing how it defined his understanding of hermeticism and the occult and examining the differences between the two It shows how having abandoned political action on leaving the Communist Party in 1935 Breton nonetheless held firmly to political thought moving in his quest for a better world via Hermes Trismegistus across the utopian ideas of Charles Fourier and the magical practices of the Hopi Indians The author finally reveals Breton s misreading of the situation in postwar Paris on his return in 1946 and his failure to communicate the span of his ideas for creating a better society while at the same time maintaining a close connection between art and life The Lost Steps Andr  Breton,1996-01-01

The Lost Steps Les Pas perdus is Andr  Breton s first collection of critical and polemical essays Composed between 1917 and 1923 these pieces trace his evolution during the years when he was emerging as a central figure in French and European intellectual life They chronicle his tumultuous passage through the Dada movement proclaim his explosive views on Modernism and its heroes and herald the emergence of Surrealism itself Along the way we are given Breton s serious commentaries on his Modernist predecessors Guillaume Apollinaire and Alfred Jarry followed by his not so serious Dada manifestoes Also included are portraits of Marcel Duchamp Francis Picabia and Breton s mysterious friend Jacques Vach  as well as a crisis by crisis account of his dealing with Dada s leader Tristan Tzara Finally Breton offers a first glimpse of Surrealism the movement that was forever after identified with his name and that stands as a defining force in twentieth century aesthetics Mark Polizzotti editorial director of David R Godine Publisher is the author of Revolution of the Mind The Life of Andr  Breton He is also the translator of Jean Echenoz s Double Jeopardy Nebraska 1994 and Cherokee Nebraska 1994 and of Andr  Breton s Conversations The Autobiography of Surrealism Mary Ann Caws is Distinguished Professor of French at Hunter College and at the City University of New York Her most recent work is Robert Motherwell What Art Holds She is the translator of Andr  Breton s Mad Love Nebraska 1987 and Communicating Vessels Nebraska 1990

The Ghosts of the Avant-Garde(s) James M. Harding,2015-10-22 Pronouncements such as the avant garde is dead argues James M Harding have suggested a unified history or theory of the avant garde His book examines the diversity and plurality of avant garde gestures and expressions to suggest avant garde pluralities and how an appreciation of these pluralities enables a more dynamic and increasingly global understanding of vanguardism in the performing arts In pursuing this goal the book not only surveys a wide variety of canonical and noncanonical examples of avant garde performance but also develops a range of theoretical paradigms that defend the haunting cultural and political significance of avant garde expressions beyond what critics have presumed to be the death of the avant garde The Ghosts of the Avant Garde s offers a strikingly new perspective not only on key controversies and debates within avant garde studies but also on contemporary forms of avant garde expression within a global political economy The Facts on File Companion to the French Novel Karen L. Taylor,2006 French novels such as Madame Bovary and The Stranger are staples of high school and college literature courses This work provides coverage of the French novel since its origins in the 16th century with an emphasis on novels most commonly studied in high school and college courses in world literature and in French culture and civilization

Writing the Mind Simon Kemp, 2017-09-25 My thought is me that is why I cannot stop I exist because I think and I can't stop myself from thinking Jean Paul Sartre Nausea Writing the Mind Representing Consciousness from Proust to Darrieussecq explores the works of seven ground breaking thinkers and novelists of recent history to compare and contrast the varying representations of the conscious and the unconscious mind Grounding his study in the writings of philosophers like Jean Paul Sartre and Marcel Proust Simon Kemp explores the non literary influences of science faith and philosophy as presented in their works demonstrates how writers learn from and sometimes deviate from preceding generations and how they agree or disagree with their peers Kemp's elegant study also charts the rise and wane of Freudian influence on literature through the twentieth century and the emergence of cognitive and neo Darwinian ideas at the dawn of the twenty first In the work of these seven writers we discover radically different understandings of how consciousness and the unconscious mind are constituted which are the most salient characteristics of mental life and even what it is that defines a mind at all

In Montparnasse Sue Roe, 2019 A noted art historian and biographer now tells the story of the Surrealists in Montparnasse beginning on the eve of World War I and ending with the 1936 unveiling of Dalí's Lobster Telephone ne
