Royal Commission on Conditions of Foreign Service, 1981 Report of the Canada Royal Commission on Conditions of Foreign Service - Possible Responses Canada. Royal Commission on Conditions of Foreign Service, The Politics of Canadian Foreign Policy, Fourth Edition Kim Richard Nossal, Stéphane Roussel, Stéphane Paquin, 2015-12-07 The fourth edition of this widely used text includes updates about the many changes that have occurred in Canadian foreign policy under Stephen Harper and the Conservatives between 2006 and 2015 Subjects discussed include the fading emphasis on internationalism the rise of a new foreign policy agenda that is increasingly shaped by domestic political imperatives and the changing organization of Canada's foreign policy bureaucracy As in previous editions this volume analyzes the deeply political context of how foreign policy is made in Canada Taking a broad historical perspective Kim Nossal Stéphane Roussel and Stéphane Paquin provide readers with the key foundations for the study of Canadian foreign policy They argue that foreign policy is forged in the nexus of politics at three levels the global the domestic and the governmental and that to understand how and why Canadian foreign policy looks the way it does one must look at the interplay of all three Diplomatic Departures Kim R. Nossal, Nelson Michaud, 2007-10-01 During the nine years that the Conservatives under Brian Mulroney held power in Ottawa Canadian foreign policy underwent a series of important departures from established policy Some of these changes mirrored the major transformations in global politics that occurred during this period as the Berlin Wall was breached the Cold War came to an end and a globalized economy emerged But some of the changes were the results of initiatives taken by the Conservative government The first major scholarly examination of the foreign policy of this period this collection explores and analyzes the many departures from traditional Canadian statecraft that took place during the Mulroney Conservative era free trade with the U S a continentalized energy policy initiatives over the environment and the Arctic the withdrawal of Canadian forces from Europe and the transformation of peacekeeping into peacemaking Diplomatic Missions Queen's University

(Kingston, Ont.). School of Policy Studies, Canadian Centre for Foreign Policy Development, 1998 Heads of missions represent Canada to the world Canada has 140 missions and offices abroad but the foreign policy literature in Canada has little to say about the role of ambassadors Even official reports do not articulate an explicit Canadian doctrine on the practice of diplomacy In Diplomatic Missions recent Canadian ambassadors and scholars of foreign policy examine the role of Canada's ambassadors in the context of a changing foreign ministry a changing state a new world order and rapidly evolving technologies of transportation and communications

Relocating Middle Powers Andrew F. Cooper, Richard A. Higgott, Kim R. Nossal, 2007-10-01 The fall of the Berlin Wall and the disintegration of the Soviet Union were only two of the many events that profoundly altered the international political system in the late 1980s and early 1990s In a world no longer dominated by Cold War tensions nation states have had to rethink their international roles and focus on economic rather than military concerns This book examines how two middle powers Australia and Canada are grappling with the difficult process of relocating themselves in the rapidly changing international economy The authors argue that the concept of middle power has continuing relevance in contemporary international relations theory and they present a number of case studies to illustrate the changing nature of middle power behaviour In particular they examine the trend towards the amalgamation of the foreign and trade ministries in both Canada and Australia and the growing importance of regional trading blocs particularly
