Sayles On Sayles:

Sayles on Sayles John Sayles, Gavin Smith, 1998 Interviews with John Sayles who worked on such widely varied projects as The return of the Secaucus seven Baby it s you Brother from another planet Matewan Passion fish Piranha Alligator The howling Apollo 13 City of hope Lone star Shannon s deal John Sayles John Sayles, 1999 Part of the Conversations with Filmmakers series these interviews span Sayles s 20 year career as a writer director and sometimes actor Photos

Filmography Sayles Talk Diane Carson, 2005-12-19 His name is synonymous with independent film and for more than twenty five years filmmaker John Sayles has tackled issues ranging from race and sexuality to the abuses of capitalism and American culture aspiring to a type of realism that Hollywood can rarely portray This collection offers unprecedented coverage of Sayles s craft and content as it deploys a rich variety of critical methods to explore the full scope of his work Together the essays afford a deeper understanding not only of the individual films including his 1980 The Return of the Secaucus Seven named to the National Registry and the recent Limbo and Men with Guns but also of Sayles s unusual place in American cinema and his influence worldwide The focus of Sayles s films is frequently on peoples lives not on stories with tidy endings and often a main goal is to alert viewers of their complicity in the problems at hand One might assume his style to be content driven but closer inspection reveals a mix of styles from documentary to postmodern In this anthology a set of international scholars addresses these and many other aspects of Sayles s filmmaking as they explore individual works Their methodological approaches include historical and industry analysis as well as psychoanalysis and postcolonial theory to name a few Sayles Talk is both an in depth and wide ranging tribute to the father of independent film In one volume readers can find discussions of most of Sayles s films together with a comprehensive introduction to his film practice an annotated list of existing literature on Sayles and information on resources for further inquiry into his fiction film and television work Film students as well as seasoned critics will turn to this book time and again to enrich their understanding of one of America s great cinematic innovators and his legacy John Sayles, Filmmaker Jack Ryan, 1998-01-01 In 1980 art house audience word of mouth about an unusual new movie Return of the Secaucus Seven launched the career of director John Sayles and with him the era of the independent filmmaker Sayles has remained a maverick writing directing editing and even acting in his own films He has directed such diverse films as The Brother from Another Planet Matewan Eight Men Out Passion Fish and Lone Star and received two Academy Award nominations Here is the chronicle of Sayles career including the story of his inauspicious beginning as a second string actor and his work in fiction theatre music videos and television The author argues that the importance of Sayles signature plain visual style has been overlooked A chapter is devoted to each of Sayles feature films offering background material on production funding a plot sketch an analysis of important characters and a look at the language setting and politics Each chapter also traces Sayles technical development his camera work editing musical arrangement and mise en scene The book includes a complete filmography and a bibliography John Sayles, Filmmaker

To Save the Man John Sayles,2025-01-21 In the vein of Never Let Me Go and Killers of the Flower Moon one of America s greatest storytellers sheds light on an American tragedy the Wounded Knee Massacre and the cultural genocide experienced by the Native American children at the Carlisle Indian Industrial School In September of 1890 the academic year begins at the Carlisle School a military style boarding school for Indians in Pennsylvania founded and run by Captain Richard Henry Pratt Pratt considers himself a champion of Native Americans His motto To save the man we must kill the Indian is severely enforced in both classroom and dormitory Speak only English forget your own language and customs learn to be white As the young students navigate surviving the school they begin to hear rumors of a ghost dance amongst the tribes of the west a ceremonial dance aimed at restoring the Native People to power and running the invaders off their land As the hope and promise of the ghost dance sweeps across the Great Plains cynical newspapers seize upon the story to whip up panic among local whites The US government responds by deploying troops onto lands that had been granted to the Indians It is an act that seems certain to end in slaughter As news of these developments reaches Carlisle each student no matter what their tribe must make a choice to follow the white man s path or be true to their own way of life
