Translation Title List and Cross Reference Guide U.S. Atomic Energy Commission, 1964      SIPRE Report ,      The Politics of Contested Narratives Ilse Lazaroms, Emily Gioielli, 2016-03-17 The twentieth century in Europe was characterized by great moments of rupture such as two world wars ideological conflict and political polarization In these processes as well as in the historical writing that followed in its wake the individual as an historical entity often appeared crushed In line with contemporary theories about the precariousness of historical writing and the self this volume seeks to understand the important developments in modern Europe from the perspective of the single sometimes isolated but always original viewpoint of individuals inhabiting the space at the other side of the traditional grand narratives Including theoretical chapters as well as detailed case studies this volume takes a biographical approach to dystopian events the Holocaust Fascism Communism and collectivization by starting with the voices of unknown historical actors and relating their experiences to larger processes in modern European history such as the emergence of the national collective memory and state formation as well as changes in the understanding of modern identities and the re formulation of the self This book was originally published as a special issue of the European Review of History      Half a Century of Soviet Serials, 1917-1968, a Bibliography and Union List of Serials Published on the USSR. Library of Congress, 1968      When Art Makes News Katia Dianina, 2012-11-15 From the time the word kul tura entered the Russian language in the early nineteenth century Russian arts and letters have thrived on controversy At any given time several versions of culture have coexisted in the Russian public sphere The question of what makes something or someone distinctly Russian was at the core of cultural debates in nineteenth century Russia and continues to preoccupy Russian society to the present day When Art Makes News examines the development of a public discourse on national self representation in nineteenth century Russia as it was styled by the visual arts and popular journalism Katia Dianina tells the story of the missing link between high art and public culture revealing that art became the talk of the nation in the second half of the nineteenth century in the pages of mass circulation press At the heart of Dianina s study is a paradox how did culture become the national idea in a country where few were educated enough to appreciate it Dianina questions the traditional assumptions that culture in tsarist Russia was built primarily from the top down and classical literature alone was responsible for imagining the national community When Art Makes News will appeal to all those interested in Russian culture as well as scholars and students in museum and exhibition studies      The Image of Peter the Great in Russian History and Thought Nicholas Valentine Riasanovsky, 1992 The image of Peter the Great Tsar of Russia from 1689 to 1725 has been a central theme of Russian history art and literature This study draws on Russian historical accounts folklore and the arts to demonstrate how the image of Peter has reflected the changing cultural values of Russian people      Book Catalog of the Library and Information Services Division: Shelf List catalog Environmental Science Information Center. Bibliography of Social Science Periodicals and Monograph Series United States. Bureau of the Census,1965      Tolstoy and the Genesis of "War and Peace" Kathryn B. Feuer,2018-10-18 Kathryn B Feuer offers remarkable insights into Leo Tolstoy's creative process while he wrote War and Peace She follows the novel through countless drafts and notes illuminating its connection to earlier unpublished novels and to crucial new sources both European and Russian A novelist herself Feuer explores the problems of character development narrative voice genre and structure that Tolstoy ultimately resolved so brilliantly      WB/T. United States. Environmental Data Service,1965      Union List of Serials in Libraries of the United States and Canada Winifred Gregory Gerould,1927      USAEC Translation List U.S. Atomic Energy Commission,1963

Technical Translations ,1964      Revolutionary Acts Lynn Mally,2000 During the Russian Revolution and Civil War amateur theater groups sprang up in cities across the country Workers peasants students soldiers and sailors provided entertainment ranging from improvisations to gymnastics and from propaganda sketches to the plays of Chekhov In Revolutionary Acts Lynn Mally reconstructs the history of the amateur stage in Soviet Russia from 1917 to the height of the Stalinist purges Her book illustrates in fascinating detail how Soviet culture was transformed during the new regime's first two decades in power Of all the arts theater had a special appeal for mass audiences in Russia and with the coming of the revolution it took on an important role in the dissemination of the new socialist culture Mally's analysis of amateur theater as a space where performers their audiences and the political authorities came into contact enables her to explore whether this culture emerged spontaneously from below or was imposed by the revolutionary elite She shows that by the late 1920s Soviet leaders had come to distrust the initiatives of the lower classes and the amateur theaters fell increasingly under the guidance of artistic professionals Within a few years state agencies intervened to homogenize repertoire and performance style and with the institutionalization of Socialist Realist principles only those works in a unified Soviet canon were presented

Index-catalogue of the Library of the Surgeon General's Office, United States ,1891      Uprooting Otherness Charles E. Clark,2000 This book demonstrates how the State attempted to impose literacy on illiterate portions of its population and how various segments of the population reacted to the subsequent campaign BOOK JACKET      The 'Change of Signposts' in the Ukrainian Emigration Christopher Gilley,2009-09-25 The failure of the attempts to create a Ukrainian state during the 1917-21 revolution created a large Ukrainian migr community in Central Europe which due to its experience of fighting the Bolsheviks developed a decidedly anti Communist ideology of integral nationalism However during the 1920s some in the Ukrainian emigration rejected this doctrine and began to advocate reconciliation with their former enemies and return to Soviet Ukraine This included some of the most prominent figures in the Ukrainian governments set up after 1917 for example Mykhailo Hrushevskyi Volodymyr Vynnychenko and Yevhen Petrushevych On the basis of published and unpublished writings of the Sovietophile migrants Christopher Gilley reconstructs and analyzes the arguments used to justify cooperation with the Bolsheviks. In particular, he contrasts those who supported the Soviet regime because they saw the Bolsheviks as leaders of the international revolution with those who stressed the apparent national achievements of the Soviet Ukrainian republic. In addition, Gilley examines Soviet policy towards pro-Soviet migrants and the relationship between the migrants and the Bolsheviks using documents from historical archives in Kyiv. The Ukrainian movement is compared to a similar phenomenon in the Russian emigration, Smena vekh (Change of Signposts). The book contributes to the study of the era of the New Economic Policy and Ukrainianization in the Soviet Union as well as to the histories of the Ukrainian emigration in the 1920s and of Ukrainian political thought.

Archives in Russia: A Directory and Bibliographic Guide to Holdings in Moscow and St. Petersburg Patricia Kennedy Grimsted, Patricia Kennedy Grimstead, 2016-04-01. This is a comprehensive directory and bibliographic guide to Russian archives and manuscript repositories in the capital cities of Moscow and St. Petersburg. It is an essential resource for any researcher interested in Russian sources for topics in diplomatic, military, and church history, art, dance, film, literature, science, ethnography, and geography. The first part lists general bibliographies of relevant reference literature, directories, bibliographic works, and specialized subject-related sources. In the following sections of the directory, archival listings are grouped in institutional categories. Coverage includes federal ministerial agency, presidential, local, university, Academy of Sciences, organizational, library, and museum holdings. Individual entries include the name of the repository in Russian and English, basic information on location, staffing, institutional history, holdings, access, and finding aids. More comprehensive and up-to-date than the 1997 Russian Version, this edition includes Web site information, dozens of additional repositories, several hundred more bibliographical entries, coverage of reorganization issues, four indexes, and a glossary.
