Scandal Of A Crucified World Perspectives On The Cross And Suffering:

The Scandal of a Crucified World Yacob Tesfai, 1994 What is the meaning of the cross today for the suffering millions victims of hunger war and racism and for Christians who seek to understand their faith For the last four years members of the Institute for Ecumenical Research in Strasbourg have explored the theology of the cross working with theologians from various countries and confessional backgrounds Their study was ecumenical and included traditional Western interpretations as well as those from so called third world countries and traditionally underrepresented groups In The Scandal of a Crucified World editor Yacob Tesfai Eritrea first provides an overview of how theology comes to terms with the cross of Jesus throughout the world Jean Marc Ela Cameroon reflects on Christ's life and passion while Simon Maimela outlines Martin Luther's theology of the cross and its relevance for present day struggles in South Africa James H Cone reflects passionately on the suffering that characterizes African American life in the United States From Asia Andreas A Yewangoe Indonesia provides an overview on attitudes toward suffering in the variety of Asian religions C S Song Taiwan reviews the role of the cross in the history of Christian missions struggling with the image of the cross as means of conquest From Latin America Walter Altmann Brazil highlights the images of Jesus Christ that accompanied the domination of indigenous peoples Winston D Persaud Guyana explores the place of the cross in the lives of individual Christians as well as in the life of the church From Europe Elisabeth Moltmann Wendel Germany lifts up feminist images of the cross as solidarity in suffering and as struggle against structural sin Theo Sundermeier Germany uses Martin Luther's theology of the cross to explore non Western thought on the meaning of the cross For All People Else Marie Pedersen, Holger Lam, Peter Lodberg, 2002 Mortensen a Christian leader and teacher who has always tried to be a theologian for all people consciously open to the particularity and challenges of the times Thus in attempting to build bridges between different cultures in being open to the realities of the world and responsible in relation to the victims of the day's order and in keeping alive the idea of and working for a united humanity this volume not only represents a fitting tribute to Mortensen a highly respected friend and theologian but also suggests new ways of shaping a world for all people Book jacket Cruciformity Michael J. Gorman, 2021-07-27 When it was first published in 2001 Cruciformity broke new ground with a vision of Pauline spirituality that illuminated what it meant to be a person or community in Christ Beginning with Paul's express desire to know nothing but Christ crucified Gorman showed how true spirituality is telling the story in both life and words of God's self revelation in Jesus so that we might practice cruciformity the impossible possibility of conformity to the crucified Christ Two decades later Gorman's seminal work is still a powerful model for combining biblical studies and theological reflection to make Paul's letters more immediately relevant to contemporary Christian life This twentieth anniversary edition includes a new foreword by Nijay Gupta a next generation Pauline scholar heavily influenced by Gorman as well as an afterword by the author in which he reflects on the legacy of Cruciformity in the church and the academy including his own subsequent work in Pauline theology Meeting God on the Cross Arnfríður Guðmundsdóttir, 2010 The cross of Christ has proven to be no less of a stumbling block for Christians living in the end of the twentieth century and the beginning of the twenty first than it was in the first century when the newly established community of friends and followers of Jesus Christ sought to define the foundation of their faith over against the critiques of their Jewish and Greek contemporaries This book presents a theological reception of the contemporary feminist challenge to classical christology by means of an explicit feminist retrieval and reconstruction of a theology of the cross Gudmundsdottir argues that a feminist theology of the cross serves a dual purpose in feminist christology it discloses the patriarchal distortion of traditional christology and can also reveal lost dimensions in the understanding of the person and work of Jesus Christ Although Gudmundsdottir argues that feminist critique is an indispensable element of contemporary christology she also claims that there is a redemptive message in the cross of Christ that is retrievable for women today Despite its potential for abuse and indeed its well documented history of misuse against women in the past a theology of the cross proclaims Jesus as a divine co sufferer who brings good news to the poor and oppressed and as such can be a source of healing and empowerment for suffering women The constructive task of this book is to show that a theology of the cross can indeed become a theology of hope today offering women meaning and strength from a God who takes human form and enters redemptively into their situations of suffering

Thornton,2022-11-17 Sharon Thornton gives pastoral theology new ears that hear the true depth and breadth of suffering She dares to look beyond the accepted perspectives of pastoral theology to discern a new vision of hope made possible by the cross Thornton brings pastoral theology into conversation with public theology reading them from the perspective of the cross When interpreted from its political standpoint the cross offers new and challenging pastoral perspectives on the complex experiences of modern life The cross of Christ names suffering for what it is giving us a means of radically critiquing all attempts to camouflage minimize or distort the truth of pain Sharing her experiences of ministering to those anguished by poverty and oppression Thornton brings to light the external forces that contribute both directly and indirectly to human brokenness And through these same stories and the work of a faith community modeling alternative practices in pastoral care she shows us that there is hope for healing Women and the Value of Suffering Kristine M. Rankka,1998 Kristine Rankka has produced a masterpiece an insightful analysis of modern feminist interpretations of radical or tragic suffering Here is a mature work comprehensive in its breadth compelling in its argument moving in its palpable sensitivity poetic and graceful in its articulation By invoking the category of the tragic Rankka proposes a mystical political spirituality to move reflection on suffering from the private to the communal interdependent realm Rankka s Women and the Value of Suffering is a creative retrieval of a conversation among women long in progress about the meaning of life s suffering It is eminently readable and thoroughly enriching George E Griener S J Academic dean Jesuit School of Theology at Berkeley Interrupting White Privilege Laurie M. Africans to Christianity require a break with their African cultural heritage Who is an African ancestor Is syncretism a good thing for an African Christian What contribution can the African church make to the universal church The author argues that rather than being antithetical to formal Christianity an African Christian theology of ancestors is an example of how an indigenous African tradition can best express Christianity as well as make considerable impact on world Christianity The Scandalous God Vitor Westhelle,2006-10-18 A rich and detailed examination of the historical and theological dimensions of the Cross Compelling Knowledge Mary M. Solberg,1997-01-01 Asks what sorts and sources of knowing we should consider compelling as we seek to live morally responsible lives

Contentends that Martin Luther s theology of the cross provides a solid theological and ethical basis for a surprisingly congenial conversation with feminist thought and scholarship on these issues All Things Reconciled Christopher D. Marshall,2018-06-12 The modern restorative justice movement perhaps one of the most important social movements of our time was born in a Christian home to Christian parents specifically to Christian peace workers striving to put their faith into action in the public arena The first major book on the subject was written primarily for a church audience and drew deeply on biblical themes and values But as restorative justice has moved into the mainstream of criminological thought and policy the significance of its originating spiritual impulse has been minimized or denied and subsequent theological scholarship has done little to probe the relevance of restorative perspectives for doctrine and discipleship In this collection of essays Christopher D Marshall a biblical scholar and restorative practitioner who has devoted his career to exploring the relationship between the two fields considers how peacemaking Christians can honor the witness and authority of Scripture including its apparently violence endorsing strands as they strive to join in God s great work in Christ of reconciling to himself all things whether on earth or in heaven by making peace through the blood of his cross Col 1 20 A Vexing Gadfly Eliseo Perez-Alvarez,2011-10-27 This essay on Soren Kierkegaard and economic matters from a theological perspective is well grounded in the Dane s journals In these writings the late nineteenth century thinker shows his solidarity with rural residents 90 percent of the population and urbanite menial workers Topics include the option for the poor the ideology of impotence the denouncing of a competitive society the correlation of wealth and poverty media church university and theatre as social institutions shaping reality Christendom and the retribution doctrine

Critique Scandinave de la Théologie Féministe Anglo-américaine Hanna Stenström,2007 Scandinavian Critique of Anglo American Feminist Theology is a collection of articles by scholars in various theological disciplines from five Scandinavian or Nordic countries The articles cover a wide range of topics including feminist sexual ethics ecofeminist theology gender perspectives on European welfare systems Birgitta of Sweden and a search for Mary beyond stereotypes As the title implies a critical dialogue with US feminist theology is a recurrent theme throughout the book but the essays also include constructive work from different theological perspectives The journal also includes a bibliography that shows the diversity of Scandinavian and Nordic feminist theological research Fostering Interreligious Encounters in Pluralist

Societies SimonMary Asese A. Ahiokhai,2019-05-03 This book calls attention to ways of fostering dialogue among members of different religious traditions in an era of cultural and religious pluralism To achieve this the author analyzes the results of an ethnographic study of Ihievbe a town in Midwestern Nigeria that is religiously pluralistic Emphasis is given to hospitality and friendship two key relational cultural philosophical and theological virtues as tools for constructing healthy interreligious dialogue that is relevant for our times A critical study is done on the importance of these two dialogical virtues in the religious expressions of Roman Catholicism Islam and Ihievbe Traditional Religion Preference for ethnographic studies is based on stressing the relevance of context in articulating useful practices of interreligious dialogue Finally the book articulates ways the fruits of interreligious dialogue can be celebrated in the liturgical rituals of each religion especially the three religions that are addressed here

Akan Christology Charles Sarpong Aye-Addo,2013-07-12 As Christianity expands and grows in Africa there is deep new interest in African theology in general and the way in which some African theologians are interpreting the significance of Christ within African culture in particular This volume explores the Christology of two of the foremost African thinkers against the background of the West African Akan culture The result is a rare and fascinating look at some of the key cultural symbols of African culture the struggle to reinterpret the white blond blue eyed Christ presented by pioneering missionaries to Africa and the pitfalls and promises that attend the exercise The selected theologians John Samuel Pobee and Kwame Bediako are put into a critical conversation with Karl Barth in order to initiate a dialogue between Western theology and African theology that brings to the fore some of the pertinent issues about the particularity and universality of Christ The volume while seeking to make Christ relevant for Africa moves away from romanticizing African culture and insists on being faithful to the biblical witness to Christ The result is an attempt to present an engaging piece of work that makes a significant contribution to contemporary debates on Christology and indigenous theology
