Scandalous Penton A Biography Of Brian Penton:

The Scandalous Penton Patrick Buckridge,1994-01-01 An intriguing biography which tackles many of the enigmas surrounding Brian Penton's life and writing career A novelist journalist and newspaper editor Penton was a significant public figure from the 1920s to his untimely death in 1951 The Holocaust and Australian Journalism Fay

Anderson,2024-03-18 This book explores the Australian press reporting of the persecution and genocide of European Jews and the extent to which the news of the Holocaust was known and believed revealed and hidden and acknowledged and minimised Spanning the coverage of Hitler's political ascent in the 1920s through to the Nazis extermination campaign it culminates in the accounts of the trials of Nazi war criminals and the post war transnational migration to Australia of Holocaust survivors to a country far from universally welcoming in its reception of them The book also tells the story of the journalists who reported on these tragic events and the editors who published them along with the political social and cultural context in which they worked in an environment influenced by exclusionary ideas about race and nationality that did not necessarily inspire sympathy for Jews and their trauma This book sheds light on the ethics of reporting human suffering violence and genocide and centrally on the role of the press in shaping Australia's collective memory of the Holocaust It encourages readers to think critically about media power public apathy advocacy and the importance of truth Disturbing evidence of increasing antisemitism in Australia as elsewhere along with continuing Holocaust denial provide an additional urgency to this study By the Book Patrick Buckridge,Belinda McKay,2007-09 Queensland a place of barren land and wild politics with subtropical weather beaches and natural wonders is the subject of this rich literary history Chronicling a wide range of literature from the first days of European settlement to the present day this collection touches upon thematic topics such as travel stories writing for children and indigenous writings The role of institutions such as schools public libraries the press and publishers as well as how they have contributed to the shaping of Queensland's literary development is also included Donald Horne Ryan Cropp,2023-08-01 The fascinating biography of a brilliant man who captured the nation's imagination and boldly showed Australians who we were and how we could change In the 1960s Donald Horne offered Australians a compelling reinterpretation of the Menzies years as a period of social and political inertia and mediocrity His book The Lucky Country was profoundly influential and without doubt one of the most significant shots ever fired in Australia's endless culture war Ryan Cropp's landmark biography positions Horne as an antipodean Orwell a lively independent and distinct literary voice searching for the temper of the people accepting it and moving on from there Through the eyes and unforgettable words of this preternaturally observant and articulate man we see a recognisable modern Australia emerge Shortlisted for the 2024 National Biography Award A compulsive read about a writer who shaped the way we Australians think about ourselves Judith Brett Unmissable for anybody interested in the intellectual life of this country Sean Kelly Ryan Cropp's thoughtful life of Donald Horne charted the restless and provocative habits of his subject with care and elegance and animated decades of faded news and current affairs with colour and poise Patrick Mullins Australian Book Review Books of the Year 2023 In his accomplished and insightful biography Cropp has captured a full life well lived that was a tribute to the importance of paying attention and making a difference Julianne Schultz The Conversation Her Brilliant Career Jill Roe, 2009 Stella Miles Franklin became an international publishing sensation in 1901 with My Brilliant Career a portrayal of an ambitious and independent woman defying social expectations that still captivates readers In a magisterial biography Roe details Miles extraordinary life Australia's Boldest Experiment Stuart Macintyre, 2015-06-01 In this landmark book Stuart Macintyre explains how a country traumatised by World War I hammered by the Depression and overstretched by World War II became a prosperous successful and growing society by the 1950s An extraordinary group of individuals notably John Curtin Ben Chifley Nugget Coombs John Dedman and Robert Menzies re made the country planning its reconstruction against a background of wartime sacrifice and austerity The other part of this triumphant story shows Australia on the world stage seeking to fashion a new world order that would bring peace and prosperity This book shows the 1940s to be a pivotal decade in Australia At the height of his powers Macintyre reminds us that key components of the society we take for granted work welfare health education immigration housing are not the result of military endeavour but policy planning politics and popular resolve The Cambridge Companion to Australian Literature Elizabeth Webby, 2000-08-21 An indispensable reference for the study of Australian literature 'A world-proof life' Marivic Wyndham, 2007-01-01 Eleanor Dark 1901 1985 is one of Australia s most celebrated writers of the inter war years Born with the twentieth century a Federation baby she published ten novels amongst them one of the best loved Australian stories of all time The Timeless Land Her life spanned successive global crises two world wars the economic depression of the 1930s the Cold War each issuing its own challenges to the artist and the people s writer she thought herself to be By far the most privileged writer of her generation her ultimate challenge was a personal one to unlock the gates of her world proof life to a society and a world in crisis The first cross cultural biography of this famous Australian writer Marivic Wyndham s rich and controversial portrait of Eleanor Dark is based on extensive research of the author s public and private lives Henry Handel Richardson Vol 3 Edited By Clive Probyn and Bruce Steele, 2013-07-15 The publication of Henry Handel Richardson s correspondence is a major event in Australian scholarly publishing There are approximately fifteen hundred unpublished manuscript letters to and from HHR of which almost a thousand are in her own hand They form a correspondence between Australia England Germany Italy and the USA over a seventy year period 1874 to 1946 The letters shed new light on Henry Handel Richardson s biography her artistic methods her personal life her friendships and antagonisms her response to Australian readers and to expatriation and her rigorous efforts to maintain a literary life apart from her personal life The collection begins with HHR s earliest letter then traces her student days in Leipzig the publication of Maurice Guest The Getting of Wisdom The Fortunes of Richard Mahony The Young Cosima and The End of a Childhood and her struggle late in life with the stringencies of wartime England In this volume the widowed HHR moves to the Sussex village where she lived until her death The letters cover the publication of The End of a Childhood and Other Stories the ill fated The Young Cosima and her incomplete memoir Myself When Young War dominated the closing years of her life and she reported her experiences graphically to Mary Kernot She refused to leave her house even while the Battle of Britain was being fought in the skies above her The strain and deprivations of war weakened her When unable to write her companion and secretary Olga Roncoroni wrote for her and these letters are included Her last letter is a little pencilled note to Mary Kernot

Australian Books and Authors in the American Marketplace 1840s-1940s David Carter, Roger Osborne, 2018-07-02 Australian Books and Authors in the American Marketplace 1840s 1940s explores how Australian writers and their works were present in the United States before the mid twentieth century to a much greater degree than previously acknowledged Drawing on fresh archival research and combining the approaches of literary criticism print culture studies and book history David Carter and Roger Osborne demonstrate that Australian writing was transnational long before the contemporary period In mapping Australian literature's connections to British and US markets their research challenges established understandings of national imperial and world literatures Carter and Osborne examine how Australian authors editors and publishers engaged productively with their American counterparts and how American readers and reviewers responded to Australian works They consider the role played by British publishers and agents in taking Australian writing to America and how the international circulation of new literary genres created new opportunities for novelists to move between markets Some of these writers such as Christina Stead and Patrick White remain household names others who once enjoyed international fame such as Dale Collins and Alice Grant Rosman have been largely forgotten The story of their books in America reveals how culture commerce and copyright law interacted to create both opportunities and obstacles for Australian writers

Writing the Lives of Writers Warwick Gould, T. Staley, 1998-07-15 Writing the Lives of Writers ponders that strange ventriloquized dialogue between biographers and their subjects a dialogue all the stranger when the subject is a writer It contains 22 essays by internationally distinguished scholars and biographers including Martin C Battestin Isobel Grundy John Haffenden Hermione Lee Lawrence Lipking Ray Monk Hazel Rowley Max Saunders Martin Stannard and John Worthen They tackle the lives of Chaucer Tyndale More Fielding and Lady Mary Wortley Montagu Wordsworth Henry James Ford Madox Ford Yeats Lawrence Dorothy Richardson Virginia Woolf Malcolm Lowry F R Leavis Richard Wright and Brian Penton

Norman Haire and the Study of Sex Diana Wyndham, 2012 A star debater at school Norman Haire had always wanted to be an actor Forced to study medicine he followed his other passion saving the world from sexual misery When he arrived in London in 1919 he was a poor Jewish outsider from Australia By 1930 he had a flourishing gynaecology practice in Harley Street a chauffeur driven Rolls Royce and a country house His parties were attended by the medical intellectual and cultural elite As a prominent sexologist and a campaigner for birth control Haire took a leading role in the world s first international conference on birth control in 1922 and organised with Dora Russell the World League for Sexual Reform s highly successful 1929 Congress in London He lectured in America Germany France and Spain and wrote and edited many accessible books on sex education In 1940 Haire returned to Australia where he attracted a loyal following but was also hounded by the security service The ABC Board was censured in parliament for choosing him as the key speaker in a population debate and his weekly advice column in the magazine Woman was strongly opposed by the Catholic Church Peter Coleman called Haire one of Australia s most famous freethinkers and sex reformers This biography pays a tribute to this tenacious humane witty innovative and brave man s contribution to birth control sexology and human rights history
