Scandinavian Painters:

Nationalism and the Nordic Imagination Michelle Facos, 1998-04-10 Taking an interdisciplinary approach Michelle Facos links the social and cultural dynamics in turn of the century Sweden to the discourses of primitivism nationalism and symbolism In the process she sheds new light on a major area of study the manifestation of modernism in Sweden These painters among them Carl Larsson Anders Zorn Bruno Liljefors and Prince Eugen sought to produce a specifically national Swedish art They focused on indigenous history legends and folk tales as well as customs values geography and ethnography anything they perceived as uniquely or typically Swedish Politically progressive and culturally conservative the National Romantic artists protested against the dangers they perceived in capitalist industrialism and urban expansion and promoted an egalitarian ideology centered on the Swedish Nordic native culture Landscape and Nature in Scandinavian Art

MaryClaire Pappas, Tonje Haugland Sørensen, 2025-04-16 This edited volume foregrounds new and vital scholarship shaping Scandinavian art historical research on the representations of the natural world Contributors deconstruct the interlinking of people and land through critical readings of the Scandinavian representation of nature bringing to the fore how the traditional focus on the landscape as a manifestation of temperament has tended to obfuscate critical approaches to the representation of the landscape Making interdisciplinary connections this volume redresses the imbalance in scholarship on the region that often emphasizes teleological national narratives and instead situates encounters with nature and the landscape in relationship to more interdisciplinary perspectives Each chapter serves as a specific case study on topics ranging from circumpolar exploration and colonial practices deconstructing National Romanticism myths and contemporary artistic responses to the history of the politics of land The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual culture nature studies and environmental history Catalogue of the Exhibition of Works by Danish Painters Alfred
