flat a moment longer With only three days to Christmas he doesn't want to be alone He wants a place to belong wants people around him who won't look down on him He might not find all that at his mother's place but at least it's better than being alone in the city If he can make it there that is Tristan is looking forward to a quiet night in front of the TV but instead he has to save an idiot in designer clothes from freezing to death in his forest Tristan tries not to notice the man's good looks just like he has tried not to notice any man's good looks for the last seven years He knows where relationships go and is far better off living alone with his dog in his cabin Aiden is driving Tristan mad with his bratty comments and irresponsible ways and Aiden is going crazy from Tristan's judgmental attitude Luckily in a few days the weather will clear up and the two men won't have to be together any longer But will a few steamy nights with the grumpy lumberjack change Aiden's mind about wanting to leave And will Tristan still want to go back to his peaceful predictable life without fear of getting his heart broken Content warning this story includes scenes of explicit intimacy between consenting male adults Stranded in the Snow Noelle Adams, 2018-10-18 An unexpected snowstorm The man she hates the most One very hot night Olivia Holiday does not expect to spend the weekend stranded in a romantic cottage during a snowstorm with the one man she resents the most Scott Matheson is a player and holds a grudge against her family and she really shouldn't find him so hot They share a deep history as well as an attraction and it all comes out as they're trapped together for one hot night
