Scars On The Heart Two Centuries Of New Zealand At War:

Scars on the Heart Christopher Pugsley, Laurie Barber, 1996 This work contains the complete story of the impact of war on New Zealand from 1840 to the present day Based on the Auckland Museum s exhibition of the same name through the use of photographs paintings letters diaries and objects of war it covers New Zealand s war history Of Love and War Angela Wanhalla, 2023 Of Love and War details the intimate relationships forged during wartime between women and U S servicemen stationed in the South Pacific traces the fate of wartime marriages and addresses consequences for the women and children left behind The New Zealand Expeditionary Force in World War II Wayne Stack, Barry O'Sullivan, 2013-03-20 In 1939 more than 140 000 New Zealanders enlisted to fight overseas during World War II Of these 104 000 served in the Second New Zealand Expeditionary Force Initially thrown into the doomed campaign to halt the German blitzkrieg on Greece and Crete 1941 the division was rebuilt under the leadership of MajGen Sir Bernard Freyberg and became the elite corps within Montgomery s Eighth Army in the desert After playing a vital role in the victory at El Alamein 1942 the Kiwis were the vanguard of the pursuit to Tunisia In 1943 45 the division was heavily engaged in the Italian mountains especially at Cassino 1944 it ended the war in Trieste Meanwhile a smaller NZ force supported US forces against the Japanese in the Solomons and New Guinea 1942 44 Fully illustrated with specially commissioned colour plates this is the story of the Second New Zealand Expeditionary Force s vital contribution to Allied victory in World War II The New Zealand Expeditionary Force in World War I Wayne Stack, 2011-10-20 The New Zealand Expeditionary Force earned an elite reputation on the Western Front In World War I and the New Zealanders war effort was a defining moment in their national history The statistics are astonishing of the total population of New Zealand of 1 million no fewer than 100 000 men enlisted and of those 18 000 were killed and 58 000 wounded In other words 15 percent of the male population of New Zealand became casualties Famously the NZEF was first committed at Gallipoli in 1915 but NZ cavalry regiments also helped defend Egypt and fought in Palestine with Allenby s famous Desert Mounted Corps On the Western Front the Kiwis were called the Silent Division for their fieldcraft and their uncomplaining professionalism This book is both a tribute and a history of the contribution made by a small nation Echoes of Gallipoli Lieutenant-Colonel Terry Kinloch MNZM, 2015-07-27 The battles on Gallipoli in 1915 were crucial in making New Zealand the nation it is today The huge sacrifice of life has affected the country for generations and our annual formal remembrances on Anzac Day have become increasingly important It is twenty years since the full story of Gallipoli was last told in book form Now a new book will add significantly to our understanding of the events of 1915 on the Gallipoli peninsula Terry Kinloch tells the story with the help of members of the New Zealand Mounted Rifles Brigade who emerged from Gallipoli battered and depleted but with reputations enhanced He has thoroughly researched their letters and diaries and cleverly interspersed their eyewitness comments into his text The result is a book that reads with the immediacy of actually being there It is a fresh way of telling history and one that is sure to find a response among New Zealanders today The full story is here the call up the sea journey camp in Egypt the eventual arrival in Gallipoli all the battles and skirmishes that were fought there and finally the remarkable evacuation several months later

The Great War and the British Empire Michael Walsh, Andrekos Varnava, 2016-11-25 In 1914 almost one quarter of the earth's surface was British When the empire and its allies went to war in 1914 against the Central Powers history's first global conflict was inevitable It is the social and cultural reactions to that war and within those distant often overlooked societies which is the focus of this volume From Singapore to Australia Cyprus to Ireland India to Iraq and around the rest of the British imperial world further complexities and interlocking themes are addressed offering new perspectives on imperial and colonial history and theory as well as art music photography propaganda education pacifism gender class race and diplomacy at the end of the pax Britannica

Women and the First World War Susan Grayzel, 2024-01-17 In this revised version of a ground breaking global history of women and the First World War Susan Grayzel shows the multiple ways in which women faced the enormous challenges the war presented both the losses as well as the opportunities that the war provided The First World War was a total war requiring the mobilisation of millions of both civilians and combatants It decisively shaped the modern world A century after the signing of the last peace treaty to end this conflict its experiences and legacies for women continue to inspire debate and interest With new evidence from the tremendous outpouring of scholarship on women in all participant states including those in occupied territories Europe and its overseas empires Asia the Middle East Africa and the United States over the last twenty years this edition greatly expands the coverage of the war geographically while continuing to showcase diverse women's voices Topical in its approach it allows for a thorough exploration of the intersectional experiences of women Including new documents highlighting the ways in which women wrote their wars and that detail the impact of this conflict on women of different statuses and geographies this book opens the door to further inquiry on the women of the First World War With documents providing first hand accounts a chronology and a glossary the book is an ideal text for students studying the First World War or the history of women

The Great War, 1914-1945 :: The peoples' experience Peter Liddle, 2001

Politics of Forgetting Martyn Brown, 2019-04-24 Greece was a poor country in turmoil and pain during the 1940s A military dictatorship was followed by invasion and terrifying occupation by Germany and its allies starvation civil war political unrest and mutiny in its free military armed forces New Zealand entered this arena and found a bond with a people that it still celebrates to this day Absent from the New Zealand national storytelling is the complex divisive and sometimes violent and surreal relationship between the two countries and the inescapable influence of Britain The New Zealand Greek story stretches from the mountains and open country of Greece and Crete to Middle East deserts autumn swept plains of Italy and the blood splattered streets of post liberated Athens New Zealand official state memory emphasizes some things and ignores the unpalatable It also conceals its assertiveness with Britain over the latter's Greek policies

At the Eleventh Hour Hugh Cecil, Peter H. Liddle, 1998-08-12 Following on from the highly acclaimed Facing Armageddon and Passchendaele in Perspective At the Eleventh Hour recognises that a world was ending in November 1918 and by international collaboration on the 80th Anniversary we learn through this book what it was like to experience the transition from war to peace Distinguished historians brilliantly convey a sense of immediacy as the Armistice is recreated and analysed

The reader will not just acquire new areas of information he will have some of the existing knowledge which he thought was soundly held strikingly challenged in the pages of this superbly illustrated book Passchendaele in Perspective Peter H. Liddle, 2017-01-30 Passchendaele In Perspective explores the context and real nature of the participants experience evaluates British and German High Command the aerial and maritime dimensions of the battle the politicians and manpower debates on the home front and it looks at the tactics employed the weapons and equipment used the experience of the British German and indeed French soldiers It looks thoroughly into the Commonwealth soldiers contribution and makes an unparalleled attempt to examine together in one volume specialist facets of the battle the weather field survey and cartography discipline and morale and the cultural and social legacy of the battle in art literature and commemoration Each one of its thirty chapters presents a thought provoking angle on the subject They add up to a unique analysis of the battle from Commonwealth American German French Belgian and United Kingdom historians This book will undoubtedly become a valued work of reference for all those with an interest in World War One The New Zealand Journal of History ,2007

The Great World War, 1914-45 Peter Liddle, J. M. Bourne, Ian R. Whitehead, 2000 The emphasis of this book is on the human experience that binds together the history of the two World Wars v 2 The peoples experience The cultural experience The moral experience Reflections Fodor's See it New Zealand Sheila Hawkins, 2009 Full color photography and a host of practical information highlight this user friendly travel guide which also includes descriptions of local sites restaurants hostels shops and nightspots ratings of sites for value historic interest family friendly appeal and other criteria local itineraries and shopping suggestions travel suggestions transportation options and colorful maps The Great World War, 1914-45: The peoples' experience Peter Liddle, J. M. Bourne, Ian R. Whitehead, 2000 New Zealand Defence Quarterly ,1997 The ANZAC Experience Christopher Pugsley, 2004 The Anzac Experience strips away the myth of the Anzacs being natural soldiers who only had to pick up a rifle to be superb fighters in battle It tells the gripping story of New Zealanders Australians and Canadians at war from the Boer war in South Africa to the Empire's involvement in the cataclysmic struggle of 1914-1918 This is the story of citizen armies becoming professional as they learned the lessons of the Gallipoli landings and applied these to the battles of the Western Front in France and Flanders By trial and error these colonial forces became expert in the business of war so that by 1918 they were the fighting elite in the British armies in France P 4 of cover
