Gothic for Girls Julia Round, 2019-10-29 Winner of the 2019 Broken Frontier Award for Best Book on Comics Today fans still remember and love the British girls comic Misty for its bold visuals and narrative complexities Yet its unique history has drawn little critical attention Bridging this scholarly gap Julia Round presents a comprehensive cultural history and detailed discussion of the comic preserving both the inception and development of this important publication as well as its stories Misty ran for 101 issues as a stand alone publication between 1978 and 1980 and then four more years as part of Tammy It was a hugely successful anthology comic containing one shot and serialized stories of supernatural horror and fantasy aimed at girls and young women and featuring work by writers and artists who dominated British comics such as Pat Mills Malcolm Shaw and John Armstrong as well as celebrated European artists To this day Misty remains notable for its daring and sophisticated stories strong female characters innovative page layouts and big visuals In the first book on this topic Round closely analyzes Misty's content including its creation and production its cultural and historical context key influences and the comic itself Largely based on Round's own archival research the study also draws on interviews with many of the key creators involved in this comic including Pat Mills Wilf Prigmore and its art editorial team Jack Cunningham and Ted Andrews who have never previously spoken about their work Richly illustrated with previously unpublished photos scripts and letters this book uses Misty as a lens to explore the use of Gothic themes and symbols in girls comics and other media It surveys existing work on childhood and Gothic and offers a working definition of Gothic for Girls a subgenre which challenges and instructs readers in a number of ways Once Upon a Time in a Dark and Scary Book K. The Eyes of Grace Theresa W. Firster,2021-12-14 I knew I shouldn't have left him alone He didn't answer my calls I told him to keep the phone close by and felt something was wrong when he didn't answer My heart started beating so fast and my hand was shaking as I fumbled with my house keys I opened the front door and panicked when I saw him in his recliner foaming at the mouth He was the love of my life and I had waited for him for 25 years I couldn't understand why God would take him away from me now My heart was racing and my head was spinning with the thought of losing him With tears running down my face I started praying all the way to the hospital begging God not to take him from me The river was so tempting I was fearless At five or six I took a rowboat out into the channel blissfully rowing along by myself when I saw my mother yelling at me from the stone wall There could have been a huge gray hulk of a ship bearing down on me for all I knew but I arrived at port safely where my mother promptly took the oars away from me never to be seen again The oars that is not my mother Little did I know Those were the fearless years When Chuck returned from Vietnam he was assigned to Fort Bragg NC It was while there that our third child Stacy was diagnosed with Acute Lymphatic Leukemia Ever since her birth Stacy had unexplained fevers The doctors never found a cause and eventually the fever passed One day while we all were swimming at the post pool Stacy said her chest hurt and pointed to her sternum She didn't want to swim anymore She was only six years old at the time and had been complaining of chest pains When the doctor gave us the diagnosis I felt like I was falling falling down a deep well screaming at the top of my lungs I thought my heart would stop The hardest thing I ever had to do was to go into her room and pretend everything was fine The Coppolas Vincent LoBrutto, Harriet R.
