

Arriving in Dayton, Ohio, Scatman went to a policeman and asked to be directed to the nearest radio station. The officer obliged, and sent him to station WSMK, which later became WING.

"So I get off the elevator and I tell the receptionist I would like to see the program director. I'm thinking that a man is going to walk out, but out walks this beautiful lady, Barbara Runyon. I say, 'I'm Sherman Crothers, and I'd like to take an audition.' So they set it up. I was playing, and I could see them in the booth enjoying it. After about ten or fifteen minutes, they came in there and said, 'Great, we'll give you five days a week, Monday through Friday, fifteen minutes a day. But what are we going to call you?' And out of the clear blue sky, I said, 'Call me Scat Man,' and they laughed. They asked, 'Why?' I said, 'Because I do quite a bit of scatting, what I call flirting with the melody,' and I launched into a number—do, shabadebadebo, shabadebadebo, dobededede bam!"
