Scattering Seeds Stephen Chapin Garner, 2010-01-27 In Scattering Seeds Cultivating Church Vitality Stephen Chapin Garner and Jerry Thornell share the story of their home congregation the United Church of Christ in Norwell MA This average congregation has approached congregational life in a not so average way Each congregant is seen as a minister bringing the good news of Christ to the community the church has moved away from boards and committees instead utilizing the people to form ministry teams and they have revitalized the way they approach and practice worship and education Garner and Thornell don t claim to have the secret to church growth and vitality but in sharing the story of their simple church in New England they give hope and innovative ideas to congregations in regions all over the country Arab Voices

in Diaspora Layla Al Maleh, Layla Maleh, 2009 Arab Voices in Diaspora offers a wide ranging overview and an insightful study of the field of anglophone Arab literature produced across the world The first of its kind it chronicles the development of this literature from its inception at the turn of the past century until the post 9 11 era The book sheds light not only on the historical but also on the cultural and aesthetic value of this literary production which has so far received little scholarly attention It also seeks to place anglophone Arab literary works within the larger nomenclature of postcolonial emerging and ethnic literature as it finds that the authors are haunted by the same hybrid exilic and diasporic questions that have dogged their fellow postcolonialists Issues of belonging loyalty and affinity are recognized and dealt with in the various essays as are the various concerns involved in cultural and relational identification The contributors to this volume come from different national backgrounds and share in examining the nuances of this emerging literature Authors discussed include Elmaz Abinader Diana Abu Jaber Leila Aboulela Leila Ahmed Rabih Alameddine Edward Atiyah Shaw Dallal Ibrahim Fawal Fadia Faqir Khalil Gibran Suheir Hammad Loubna Haikal Nada Awar Jarrar Jad El Hage Lawrence Joseph Mohja Kahf Jamal Mahjoub Hisham Matar Dunya Mikhail Samia Serageldine Naomi Shihab Nye Ameen Rihani Mona Simpson Ahdaf Soueif and Cecile Yazbak Contributors Victoria M Abboud Diya M Abdo Samaa Abdurraqib Marta Cariello Carol Fadda Conrey Cristina Garrig s Lamia Hammad Yasmeen Hanoosh Wa l S Hassan Richard E Hishmeh Syrine Hout Layla Al Maleh Brinda J Mehta Dawn Mirapuri Geoffrey P Nash Boulus Sarrou Fadia Fayezy Suyoufie Similes Dictionary Elyse Sommer, 2013-05-01

Jorgensen, 2016-09-26 This reception history of the Gospel of Matthew utilizes theoretical frameworks and literary sources from two typically distinct disciplines patristic studies and Valentinian a k a Gnostic studies The author shows how in the second and third centuries the Valentinians were important contributors to a shared culture of early Christian exegesis By examining the use of the same Matthean pericopes by both Valentinian and patristic exegetes the author demonstrates that certain Valentinian exegetical innovations were influential upon and ultimately adopted by patristic authors Chief among Valentinian contributions include the allegorical interpretation of texts that would become part of the New Testament a sophisticated theory of the historical and theological relationship between Christians and Jews and indeed the very conceptualization of the Gospel of Matthew as sacred scripture This study demonstrates that what would eventually emerge from this period as the ecclesiological and theological center cannot be adequately understood without attending to some groups and individuals that have often been depicted both by subsequent ecclesiastical leaders and modern scholars as marginal and heretical Writing after War John Limon, 1994-07-07 In Writing After War John Limon develops a theory of the relationship of war in general to literature in general in order to make sense of American literary history in particular Applying the work of war theorists Carl von Clausewitz and Elaine Scarry John Limon argues that The Iliad inaugurates Western literature on the failure of war to be duel like to have a beautiful form War s failure is literature s justification

American literary history is demarcated by wars as if literary epochs like the history of literature itself required bloodshed to commence. But in chapters on periods of literary history from realism generally taken to be a product of the Civil War through modernism usually assumed to be a prediction or result of the Great War up to postmodernism which followed World War II and spanned Vietnam, Limon argues that despite the looming presence of war in American history the techniques that define these periods are essentially ways of not writing war. From James and Twain through Fitzgerald, Faulkner and even Hemingway to Pynchon, our national literary history is not hopelessly masculinist. Limon argues. Instead, it arrives naturally at Bobbie Ann Mason and Maxine Hong Kingston. Kingston brings the discussion full circle. The Woman Warrior like The Iliad appears to condemn the fall from duel to war that is literature's endless opening. Turning the Kaleidoscope Sandra Lustig, Ian Leveson, 2008-03-01. Far from being a blank space on the Jewish map or a void in the Jewish cultural world post Shoah, Europe is a place where Jewry has continued to develop even though it is facing different challenges and opportunities than elsewhere. Living on a continent characterized by highly diverse patterns of culture, language, history, and relations to Jews, European Jewry mirrors that kaleidoscopic diversity. This volume explores such key questions as the new roles for Jews in Europe, models of Jewish community organization in Europe, concepts of diaspora and galut, a European Jewish way of life in the era of globalization, and European Jews' relationship to Israel and to non-Jews. Some contributions highlight experiences of Jews in Britain, Sweden, Norway, Hungary, Austria, Germany, and the Netherlands. Helping us to understand the special and common characteristics of European Jewry, this collection offers a valuable contribution to the continued rebuilding of Jewish life in the postwar era. Reviving Mission Linson Daniel, Jon Hietbrink, Eric Rafferty, 2024-12-17. God is leading us into a new season of renewal and revival. Apostolic mission leaders Linson Daniel, Jon Hietbrink, and Eric Rafferty invite us into everyday mission in the way of Jesus with this integrative model that brings together spirituality, calling, and formation to equip the whole community to encounter God's movement in fresh ways. Gabriel's Palace, 1993. Over 150 tales from the Talmud, the Zohar, Jewish folktales, and Hasidic lore. Stories with Intent Klyne R. Snodgrass, 2018-02-16. Winner of the 2009 Christianity Today Award for Biblical Studies, Stories with Intent offers pastors and students a comprehensive and accessible guide to Jesus' parables. Klyne Snodgrass explores in vivid detail the historical context in which these stories were told, the part they played in Jesus' overall message, and the ways in which they have been interpreted in the church and the academy. Snodgrass begins by surveying the primary issues in parables interpretation and providing an overview of other parables often neglected in the discussion from the Old Testament, Jewish writings, and the Greco-Roman world. He then groups the more important parables of Jesus thematically and offers a comprehensive treatment of each, exploring both background and significance for today. This tenth anniversary edition includes a substantial new chapter that surveys developments in the interpretation of parables since the book's original 2008 publication. The Dakota Sioux Experience at Flandreau and Pipestone Indian Schools Cynthia Landrum, 2019-01-01. The Dakota Sioux Experience at Flandreau and

Pipestone Indian Schools illuminates the relationship between the Dakota Sioux community and the schools and surrounding region as well as the community's long term effort to maintain its role as caretaker of the sacred citadel of its people Cynthia Leanne Landrum explores how Dakota Sioux students at Flandreau Indian School in South Dakota and at Pipestone Indian School in Minnesota generally accepted the idea that they should attend these particular boarding institutions because they saw them as a means to an end and ultimately as community schools This construct operated within the same philosophical framework in which some Eastern Woodland nations approached a non Indian education that was simultaneously tied to long term international alliances between Europeans and First Peoples beginning in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Landrum provides a new perspective from which to consider the Dakota people's overt acceptance of this non Native education system and a window into their ongoing evolutionary relationships with all of the historic overtures and tensions that began the moment alliances were first brokered between the Algonquian Confederations and the European powers

 Hartvigsen, 2012-10-30 This study analyzes an oral performance of the entire Gospel of Mark with emphasis on involvement with characters and events the emotional effects of such involvement and how these processes maintain or shape the identity of those who hear the Gospel Insights from cognitive poetics and psychonarratology are employed to illuminate the complex cognitive processes that take place when audience members experience an oral performance of the Gospel Consequently this study expands previous research on the Gospel of Mark which was conducted on the basis of narrative criticism orality criticism and performance criticism by including cognitive aspects Cognitive poetics and psychonarratology have to my knowledge not been extensively employed to illuminate an oral performance of the Gospel of Mark previously This investigation provides 1 An original coherent theoretical and methodological framework 2 An analysis of mechanisms which promote involvement with characters and events in the Markan narrative 3 An examination of the prospective emotional effects of such involvement 4 Reflections on the potential of these mechanisms with regard to identity maintenance or formation through cultural memory 5 A cognitive poetic commentary on the entire Gospel of Mark A Myth of Innocence
