James Ellroy and Voyeur Fiction Nathan Ashman, 2018-10-15 James Ellroy is an acclaimed yet controversial popular novelist Since the publication of his first novel Brown s Requiem in 1981 Ellroy s eccentric Demon Dog persona and his highly stylized often pornographically violent crime novels have continued to polarize both public and academic opinion This book addresses the voyeuristic dimensions of Ellroy s fiction one of the most significant yet underexplored issues in his work Focusing exclusively on Ellroy s two collections of epic noir fiction The L A Quartet and The Underworld U S A Trilogy it critically reflects on a vivid preoccupation with eyes visual culture and visual technologies that spans across both these bodies of work Using a combination of psychoanalysis and postmodern and cultural theory Nathan Ashman argues that Ellroy s fiction traces the development of the voyeur from a deviant and perverse peeping tom into a recognizable contemporary social type a paranoid and obsessive viewer who is a product of the decentered and hallucinatory cinematic world that he inhabits In particular James Ellroy and Voyeur Fiction illuminates a convergence between voyeurism and recurring patterns of ocularcentric crisis in Ellroy s texts as characters become continually unable to understand or interpret through vision Alongside a thematic analysis of obsessive watching Ashman also argues that Ellroy s works particularly his later novels are themselves voyeuristic implicating the reader in these broader narrative patterns of both visual and epistemophilic obsession
