Scenes For Student Actors 4:

Scene-speare! : Shakespearean Scenes for Student Actors William Shakespeare, Lindsay Price, Theatrefolk, 2004

Making a Scene Bill Gelber, 2024-11-07 Based on the author's decades of teaching pedagogical and theatrical research and his professional experience as actor and director Making a Scene Creating a Scene Study Class for Actors offers a pedagogical approach to rehearsal scenes as a primary tool for diagnosis and actor improvement This volume carefully lays out the case for thinking deeply and critically about the nature of every facet of an acting class the environment of the classroom the choice of material for performing diagnostic tools for responding to scene sessions and means for engaging all students This study includes suggestions for a teacher's philosophy towards the work a justification for implementing games improvisations and etudes suggestions for resources for exercises both basic and complex and a brief discussion on approaches to period styles material and connecting it to contemporary student life and issues Addressed to both the beginning theatre teacher and the seasoned educator this will be an essential book for anyone seeking to update their work with performers in private studios high school settings or in higher education Acting Rodney B. Whatley, 2022-07-13

Many books on acting for beginners approach the subject in an abstract theoretical way Rodney Whatley designed Acting Year One around the environment in which many acting students learn the craft the college classroom Skills and concepts are laid out in 31 lessons mirroring the structure of a 15 week course Whatley's down to earth accessible writing engages students meeting them where they are in their acting journey The exercises accompanying the text make it easy for instructors to apply what their students read directly in class Sample grading sheets are included throughout the book benefiting instructors as well as students who can learn what criteria they'll be graded on The Folger Guide to
