Scenes Of Poland:

Hollywood's War with Poland, 1939-1945 M.B.B. Biskupski, 2010-01-08 This passionate carefully researched richly detailed well written study reveals the political motives behind WWII Hollywood's portrayal of Poles Choice During World War II Hollywood studios supported the war effort by making patriotic movies designed to raise the nation's morale Often the characterizations were as black and white as the movies themselves Americans and their allies were heroes while everyone else was a villain The peoples of Norway France Czechoslovakia and England were all good because they had been invaded or victimized by Nazi Germany Yet Poland the first country to be invaded by the Third Reich was repeatedly represented in a negative light In this prize winning study Polish historian M B B Biskupski explores why Biskupski presents a close critical study of prewar and wartime films such as To Be or Not to Be In Our Time and None Shall Escape Through memoirs letters diaries and memoranda written by screenwriters directors studio heads and actors Biskupski examines how the political climate and especially pro Soviet sentiment influenced Hollywood films of the time Winner of the Oscar Halecki Prize A Choice Outstanding Academic Title

Polish Film Charles Ford, Robert Hammond, 2015-05-07 When the Lumiere brothers introduced the motion picture in 1895 Poland was a divided and suffering nation yet Polish artists found their way into the new world of cinema Boleslaw Matuszewski created his first documentary films in 1896 and Poland's first movie house was established in 1908 Despite war and repression Polish cinema continued to grow and to reach for artistic heights The twentieth century closed with new challenges but a new generation of Polish filmmakers stood ready to meet them Here is a complete history of the Polish cinema through the end of the twentieth century with special attention to political and economic contexts

The Encyclopedia of Film Composers Thomas S. Hischak, 2015-04-16 For more than a century original music has been composed for the cinema From the early days when live music accompanied silent films to the present in which a composer can draw upon a full orchestra or a lone synthesizer to embody a composition music has been an integral element of most films By the late 1930s movie studios had established music departments and some of the greatest names in film music emerged during Hollywood's Golden Age including Alfred Newman Max Steiner Dimitri Tiomkin and Bernard Herrmann Over the decades other creators of screen music offered additional memorable scores and some composers such as Henry Mancini Randy Newman and John Williams have become household names The Encyclopedia of Film Composers features entries on more than 250 movie composers from around the world It not only provides facts about these artists but also explains what makes each composer notable and discusses his or her music in detail Each entry includes Biographical material Important dates Career highlights Analysis of the composer's musical style Complete list of movie credits This book brings recognition to the many men and women who have written music for movies over the past one hundred years In addition to composers from the United States and Great Britain artists from dozens of other countries are also represented A rich resource of movie music history The Encyclopedia of Film Composers will be of interest to fans of cinema in general as well as those who want to learn more about the many talented individuals who have created memorable scores

Literature and Film from East Europe's Forgotten "Second World" Gordana P. Crnkovic, 2021-05-06 Czechoslovakia Yugoslavia no longer on the map East Europe of the socialist period may seem like a historical oddity apparently so different from everything before and after Yet the masterpieces of literature and cinema from this largely forgotten Second World as well as by the authors formed in it and working in its aftermath surprise and delight with their contemporary resonance This book introduces and illuminates a number of these works It explores how their aesthetic ingenuity discovers ways of engaging existential and universal predicaments such as how one may survive in the world of victimizations or imagine a good city or broach the human boundaries to live as a plant Like true classics of world art these novels stories and films to rephrase Bohumil Hrabal keep telling us things about ourselves we don't know In lively and jargon free prose Gordana P Crnkovic builds on her rich teaching experience to create paths to these works and reveal how they changed lives
