Schizophrenia And Parenting:

Schizophrenia and Parenting Michael Ferriter, 2019-06-04 First published in 1999 this volume examines the history of psychiatry and pathogenic parenting models over the past two centuries and contains the results of a study carried out by the author on the experiences of the parents of patients with Schizophrenia drawn from a sample of parents of patients in a forensic and a community setting Michael Ferriter draws out the themes of the rival claims of organic and non organic explanations of disorder therapeutic optimism and therapeutic pessimism and rivalry between the medical professions and the non medical for supremacy in the treatment of the mentally disordered Ferriter further explores the issues of blame and guilt the quality of interaction between mental health professionals and parents and the relevance of attribution theory as an explanation of why parents might still experience self blame even when they have nothing to blame themselves for

Growing Up with a Schizophrenic Mother Margaret J. Brown, Doris Parker Roberts, 2000-08-15 An estimated two to three million people in the United States today were raised by a schizophrenic parent Brown and Roberts offer a unique book based on interviews with over forty adult children of mothers diagnosed as schizophrenic Such topics as the isolation their family felt their chaotic home environments their present relationships with their mothers and the lost potential of mother and child are covered Their stories are fascinating and provide important information to both the mental health community and the lay public The offspring have been described as having higher rates of increased aggressivity and sibling conflict but often their circumstances strengthened these children and contributed to artistic and creative talents resiliency and high achievements The authors provide an overview of schizophrenia behaviors of the affected parent and the marital relationship of the patient and her non schizophrenic spouse As adults the respondents now share their grievances about the psychological community what they needed and did not get Brown and Roberts then present suggestions for treatment of affected children aimed at psychiatrists psychologists social workers counselors and health care providers
