human species Paden argues that although comparativism has been challenged as too culture bound too western or too gendered cross over categories and concepts between religious traditions cannot be avoided Arguing that there are recurrent patterns of human behavior common to our species and that thereby underlie all cultures he proposes that the missing link in the Religion Evolution debate is comparative religion a global cross cultural perspective on religious behaviours throughout time Each article is contextualized within this overall trajectory of thought within Paden s work and the history of the discipline as a whole
