Empowering students to respond to real-world ethical dilemmas by drawing upon philosophical principles, historical background, and the ethical guidelines of major professional organizations, this book is designed to stimulate class discussion through real-world examples, case studies, and discussion problems. Students will learn how to mediate between the best interests of their employers and their responsibilities toward other parties and to consider how economic, technological, and legal changes in their industries affect these ethical considerations. It can be used as a core textbook for undergraduate or graduate courses in communication or media ethics and provides an ideal supplement for specialist classes in public relations, professional communication, advertising, political communication, or journalism and broadcast media.

Music in the Western Kathryn Kalinak, 2012-05-22 Music in the Western Notes from the Frontier presents essays from both film studies scholars and musicologists on core issues in western film scores: their history, their generic conventions, their operation as part of a narrative system, their functioning within individual filmic texts, and their ideological import, especially in terms of the western's construction of gender, sexuality, race, and ethnicity. The Hollywood western is marked as uniquely American by its geographic setting, prototypical male protagonist, and core American values. Music in the Western examines these conventions and the scores that have shaped them. But the western also had a resounding international impact from Europe to Asia, and this volume distinguishes itself by its careful consideration of music in non-Hollywood westerns such as Ravenous and The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly, and in the easterns which influenced them such as Yojimbo. Other films discussed include Wagon Master, High Noon, Calamity Jane, The Big Country, The Unforgiven, Dead Man, Wild Bill, There Will Be Blood, and No Country for Old Men. Contributors: Ross Care, Corey K. Creekmur, Yuna de Lannoy, K. J. Donnelly, Caryl Flinn, Claudia Gorbman, Kathryn Kalinak, Charles Leinberger, Matthew McDonald, Peter Stanfield, Mariana Whitmer, Ben Winters. The Routledge Music and Screen Media Series offers edited collections of original essays on music in particular genres of cinema, television, video games, and new media. These edited essay collections are written for an interdisciplinary audience of students and scholars of music and film and media studies.

Love between Enemies Raffael Scheck, 2020-11-19 Love between Enemies explores the forbidden relationships which formed between foreign prisoners of war and German women during the Second World War. From the desire to have fun to deep love commitments, this study examines the range of motivations which lay behind these relationships, tapping into new documents and drawing on thousands of court cases to offer a transnational analysis of personal relations between enemies. Highlighting gender roles, the contradictory reactions of the communities surrounding the couples, and the diplomatic tensions resulting from the severe punishments, this is a history of everyday life which throws light on this subversive aspect of intimacy in wartime Nazi Germany. Comparing the transgressing couples to other groups persecuted for their cultural or private choices Scheck demonstrates how the relationships were silenced or justified in the post war memory of prisoners while the German women who had been publicly shamed continued to live with the stigma and even illegitimate children for the years that followed     Dating and Interpersonal Relationships Nicolae Sfetcu,2014-05-01 An introduction to interpersonal relationship methods advice and tips for friendship dating and online dating intimate relationship love and kiss flirting seduction romance marriage and wedding Interpersonal relationships are social associations connections or affiliations between two or more people They vary in differing levels of intimacy and sharing implying the discovery or establishment of common ground and may be centered around something s shared in common The study of relationships is of concern to sociology psychology and anthropology Dating is a form of courtship consisting of social activities done by two persons with the aim of each assessing the other s suitability as a partner in an intimate relationship or as a spouse
