Secret Societies In Singapore:

The Sociology of Secret Societies Lau-Fong Mak,1981 Secret Societies in Singapore Irene Lim,1999 Secret societies in Singapore ,1980 Chinese Secret Societies in Singapore Singapore. Police Force,1958 Secret Societies in Singapore Jin Hoe Ong,1972 Hidden Hands and Divided Landscapes Anoma Pieris,2009-02-28 During the nineteenth century the colonial Straits Settlements of Singapore Penang and Melaka were established as free ports of British trade in Southeast Asia and proved attractive to large numbers of regional migrants Following the abolishment of slavery in 1833 the Straits government transported convicts from the East India Company s Indian presidencies to the settlements as a source of inexpensive labor The prison became the primary experimental site for the colonial plural society and convicts were graduated by race and the labor needed for urban construction Hidden Hands and Divided Landscapes investigates how a political system aimed at managing ethnic communities in the larger material context of the colonial urban project was first imagined and tested through the physical segregation of the colonial prison It relates the story of a city Singapore and a contemporary city state whose plural society has its origins in these historical divisions A description of the evolution of the ideal plan for a plural city across the three settlements is followed by a detailed look at Singapore s colonial prison Chapters trace the prison s development and its dissolution across the urban landscape through the penal labor system The author demonstrates the way in which racial politics were inscribed spatially in the division of penal facilities and how the map of the city was reconfigured through convict labor Later chapters describe penal resistance first through intimate stories of penal life and then through a discussion of organized resistance in festival riots Eventually the plural city ideal collapsed into the hegemonic urban form of the citadel where a quite different military vision of the city became evident Hidden Hands and Divided Landscapes is a fascinating and thoroughly original study in urban history and the making of multiethnic society in Singapore It will compel readers to rethink the ways in which colonial urban history postcolonial urbanism and governance have been theorized by scholars and represented by governments Social Movement Malaysia Saliha Hassan,Meredith Weiss,2012-11-12 This book considers the proliferation in Malaysia over the past two decades of non governmental organizations NGOs associated with various social movements both to provide basic information about the NGOs and social movements and to discuss their role in the development of civil society generally in particular their contribution to the reform movement which has been gathering strength since 1998 The book discusses the nature and development of the movements and shows that those movements concerned with human rights and women s issues have made significant contributions to the reform movement and been irrevocably changed by their involvement in it Blood Brothers B. Lintner,2016-04-30 From pirates singing Ricky Martin to mob hits carried out with samurai swords Bertil Lintner offers a fascinating look at organized crime in the Asia Pacific Both Western and Asian pundits assert that shady deals are an Asian way of life Some argue that corruption and illicit business ventures gambling prostitution drug trafficking gun running oil smuggling are entrenched parts of the Asian value system Yet many Asian leaders maintain that their cities are safer than Sydney Amsterdam New York and Los Angeles Making use of expertise gained from twenty years of living in Asia Lintner exposes the role crime plays in the countries of the Far East In Blood Brothers he takes you inside the criminal fraternities of Asia examining these networks and their past histories in order to answer one question How are civil societies all over the world to be protected from the worst excesses of increasingly globalised mobsters Histories, Cultures, Identities Sharon A. Carstens, 2005 Histories Cultures Identities deals with two central questions relating to the Chinese community in Malaysia First how has being Chinese shaped the responses of this community to political economic and social developments in the country And second how have their experiences in Malaysia affected the way in which immigrants from China and their descendants identify themselves as Chinese The Impact of Chinese Secret Societies in Malaya Wilfred Blythe, 1969 Historical background and study of the extent of political leadership and influence of Chinese secret interest groups and societies in Malaysia and Singapore includes a survey of the place of such societies in the history of China and covers organisation and rituals of such societies social implications and economic implications of their influence psychological aspects of their maintenance of Chinese traditions relationships with political parties etc Bibliography Malaysia's State Formation Abdillah Noh, 2024-01-26 This book comes up with the Contested Leviathan Framework to describe the essence of Malaysia's political economy The framework is developed from tracing Malaysia's political economy over approximately 157 years 1800 1957 and tested against the many issues confronting post colonial Malaysia Using concepts of timing sequence path dependence and increasing returns the book explains that Malaysia's political economy is the result of deep institutional processes not a contrived act that was hatched at the point of independence The book explains that whilst British administration made short term rational choices it failed to take into consideration the path dependent nature of policy choices and their long term unintended consequences that preserved Malaysia's terms of reference and produced autonomous communities with mutually exclusive political economic and social institutions These institutional qualities made it imperative for actors at some point to embark on some form of power sharing arrangement Applying the Contested Leviathan Framework the book explains that recent events the first electoral turnover in 2018 and the formation of a unity government in 2022 have done little to dismantle the character of Malaysia's political economy a state that still sees political economic and social life along ethnic imperatives driven by mutually exclusive institutions and interests A valuable read for scholars of Malaysian history and politics as well as for scholars of postcolonial state formation and public policy more broadly The Manners and Customs of the Chinese of the Straits Settlements Jonas Daniel Vaughan, J. D. Vaughan, 1879

Translated from a book shortlisted for 2018 Singapore Literature Prize creative non fiction Chinese by the Singapore Book Council This book is dedicated to the Cantonese pioneers who voyaged to Nanyang and contributed to the contemporary Singapore The term guanghuizhao referring to Guangzhou Huizhou and Zhaoqing for Cantonese is not only a geographical concept but also a century old brand in Singapore Over generations Kwong Wai Siew Peck San Theng and Kwong Wai Shiu Hospital remain immovable in Singapore and the Yangzheng Foundation continues to serve the people breaking a stereotypical view of the community in which the first generation establishes the second generation preserves the third generation squanders and the fourth generation loses everything Nowadays interracial marriages are common in Singapore and marriages between different dialect groups are beyond count The younger generations have a vague awareness of their origins and many of them could barely communicate in their dialects One could only wonder what the future will bring for these Chinese associations that were set up by the forefathers of various dialect groups FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin
