Several Kinds Of Silence:

Several Kinds of Silence Marilyn Singer, 1988 Faced with her beloved grandmother's illness and her own attraction to a boy her parents would disapprove of Franny tries to shut off her feelings completely Spiritcarvers Antonella Sarti, 2022-06-08 In a land caught between the sea and cloud where the natural landscape still refuses civilization there are those the composers of words tellers of tales that help shape the minds of the people that live on its shores They are spiritcarvers New Zealand writing today is engaging in an intent struggle to subvert multiple shapes into voices These interviews as a record of biographical orature are shaped into presenting the figure of the storyteller through memory and language explorations of how we imagine and create ourselves with and into words Here we encounter the dichotomy of fiction and non fiction myth and consensual reality imagination and truth do we live within our own selected fictions Identity is shaped by the authors sense of displacement as well as of belonging meeting otherness with dispossession discovering connection through isolation Among the focal points of the interviews are the role of women's writing Maori writing interrelations among different cultures and the influence of literary and oral tradition within New Zealand Cultural Histories of Ageing Margery Vibe Skagen, 2021-05-12 Drawing on sixteenth to twenty first century American British French German Polish Norwegian and Russian literature and philosophy this collection teases out culturally specific conceptions of old age as well as subjective constructions of late life identity and selfhood The internationally known humanistic gerontologist Jan Baars the prominent historian of old age David Troyansky and the distinguished cultural historian and pioneer in the field of literature and science George Rousseau join a team of literary historians who trace out the interfaces between their chosen texts and the respective periods medical and gerontological knowledge The chapters in depth analyses of major and less known works demonstrate the rich potential of fiction poetry and autobiographical writing in the construction of a cultural history of senescence These literary examples not only bear witness to longue dure representations of old age and epochal transitions regarding cultural attitudes to the aged they also foreground the subjectivities that produced some of these representations and that continue to communicate with readers of other times and places By casting a net over a variety of authors genres periods and languages the collection gives a broad sense of how literature is among the richest and most engaging sources for historicizing the ageing self Five Pedagogies, a Thousand Possibilities Michalinos Zembylas, 2007-01-01 Five Pedagogies A Thousand Possibilities aims at providing the groundwork for articulating sites of enriching pedagogies so that critical hope and the possibility of transformation may stay alive The emotional experiences of unknowing silence passion desire forgiveness and reconciliation play an important political role in constituting critical resistance The implications of these ideas are discussed in the context of contemporary concerns about social justice conflict hope and despair These implications help us realize the potential of unknowing silence passion desire forgiveness and reconciliation as crucial pedagogical tasks and negotiate a hope that is truly critical As an alternative to pedagogies that negate the ethical and political implications of teachers and students emotional lives the present book demonstrates the need for pedagogies that enable the development of criticality without being overcome by despair The book will be of interest to academics researchers educators undergraduate and graduate students in the fields of social sciences and education and particularly in the subfields of philosophy of education curriculum theory teacher education and multicultural education

Sandplay in Three Voices Kay Bradway, Lucia Chambers, Maria Ellen Chiaia, 2005-02-01 Sandplay in Three Voices provides a unique and engaging understanding of sandplay a growing modality of psychotherapy Emerging out of informal conversations among three senior therapists it examines the essential aspects of sandplay therapy as well as the depth and breadth of the human psyche The book is organized into eight sections covering eight of the most important topics in sandplay Therapist Silence Child Mother Self Shadow Chaos and Numinous Each section begins with a triologue discussing theory history and practice of sandplay in that area The triologues allow the reader to witness three senior therapists addressing and attempting to understand the many layers of each topic and reflect their agreements and disagreements as they reveal their individual thoughts on and personal experiences of the themes they discuss Each triologue is followed by a set of solo presentations in which each author focuses on her contribution and on the role of each topic in sandplay Illustrated by original clinical examples this unique approach addresses issues of concern to analysts and other psychotherapists Its basic orientation makes it of particular value in the study practice and teaching of sandplay therapy

Therapeutic Expedition John C. Thomas, Lisa Sosin, 2011-04-01 Based on fifty years of clinical and classroom experience a comprehensive basic helping skills textbook for undergraduates as well as master s degree students in counseling psychology social work or pastoral counseling

The Spirit of Mourning Paul Connerton, 2011-09-29 How is the memory of traumatic events such as genocide and torture inscribed within human bodies In this book Paul Connerton discusses social and cultural memory by looking at the role of mourning in the production of histories and the reticence of silence across many different cultures In particular he looks at how memory is conveyed in gesture bodily posture speech and the senses and how bodily memory in turn becomes manifested in cultural objects such as tattoos letters buildings and public spaces It is argued that memory is more cultural and collective than it is individual This book will appeal to researchers and students in anthropology linguistic anthropology sociology social psychology and philosophy

The Analytic Situation Peter F. Drucker, 2017-07-05 Significant as has been the role of psychoanalysis and psychotherapy in contemporary culture and society its importance continues to grow at an accelerating rate as more specific focused and involving forms of therapy are devised The contributions of eminent practitioners that make up this volume deal with specific types of occurrences in the confrontation between patient and therapist such as silence crying sleeping touching use of first names gifts note taking termination etc The views expressed here demonstrate how the rigidity of early psychoanalytic theory has yielded to fundamental changes in the handling of the analytic situation numerous new schools of thought have arisen in attempts to give deeper fulfillment to the needs of patient analyst and society The persuasions of these new schools Gestaltist existentialist neo Freudian behaviorist ego psychologist rational emotive encounter and many others underlie the material presented here Impulsiveness and originality mark all of these departures from orthodoxy The therapist becoming more open and more manifestly responsive in his interaction with the patient is clearly shifting his role from that of an objective listener and interpreter to that of an overt participant in therapy These trends are further intensified by the fact that the practice of psychotherapy is now carried on by a vast number of clinical psychologists personality psychologists social psychologists and social workers who have taken up psychotherapy as a professional activity in urban mental health clinics and in a variety of settings outside the major American metropolitan areas The Analytic Situation provides informative revealing reading for everyone involved in the psychotherapeutic process It also offers provocative insights to students and therapists in training

The Philosophy of Clint Eastwood Richard T. McClelland, Brian B. Clayton, 2014-01-15 The Old Fashioned explores the history of the original cocktail through its ingredients and accessories a rocks glass rye whiskey or bourbon sugar bitters and orange zest to garnish and the many people and places that have contributed to the drink's legend Featuring a handpicked selection of recipes along with delicious details about the particularities that arose with each new variation this spirited guide is an entertaining read

The Talking Greeks John Heath, 2005-05-12 When considering the question of what makes us human the ancient Greeks provided numerous suggestions This book argues that the defining criterion in the Hellenic world however was the most obvious one speech It explores how it was the capacity for authoritative speech which was held to separate humans from other animals gods from humans men from women Greeks from non Greeks citizens from slaves and the mundane from the heroic John Heath illustrates how Homer's epics trace the development of immature young men into adults managing speech in entirely human ways and how in Aeschylus Oresteia only human speech can disentangle man beast and god Plato's Dialogues are shown to reveal the consequences of Socratically imposed silence With its examination of the Greek focus on speech animalization and status this book offers new readings of key texts and provides significant insights into the Greek approach to understanding our world
