Dempsey,2025-10-14 In today s death denying success driven society older women s countercultural voices call for our attention Recounting emotionally charged conversations from across the world A View from Life s Edge reflects on women s comfort with impending death gratitude forged by catastrophe and humility that makes way for wonder Speaking with nearly one hundred women over the age of eighty in four locations northern Iceland south India a retirement community in California and a convent in upstate New York Corinne G Dempsey finds that as we near life s end we gain clarity about what really matters in life Women s stories and reflections in which sorrow and loss are central to a life well lived help to expand our sense of what it means to be human Drawing on the paradoxical wisdom of world religions and mystical traditions to frame late life tendencies across cultures

Dempsey portrays these accounts as a corrective to mainstream values that defeat and diminish us Dempsey encourages us to turn away from ageist fears rather than denying life's inevitable end Learning from older women's perspectives we might move their edge of life views closer to the center
