Long Time Coming Volume One:

Long Time Coming Ed Folino, 2005-09-19 PLEASE READ MY BOOK I sure would like you to read my book Don't put it down it's worth another look It's full of poems some funny some sad It has everything in it from a homely cowboy to a boy and his dad Most are fiction but some are true My main objective was to entertain you This little book took a lot of time I really racked my brain coming up with all the rhymes But it all paid off and I hope that you'll agree There are some great ones here just between you and me So tell your friends about me I'd like to be a star And if I sell enough of them I can buy a brand new car

A Long Time Coming Evan Thomas, 2010-10-08 An adroitly distilled chronicle of the 2008 presidential campaign and the election of Barack Obama This easily devoured crisply anecdotal account spiked with revealing side of the mouth comments charts the most cautious and reckless of political maneuverings and provides in action portraits of the major players both obvious and behind the scenes Thomas writes that Obama an avid reader and gifted writer sees himself as a figure out of literature and indeed real life stories don't get more compelling than this

A Social History of Sheffield Boxing, Volume I Matthew Bell, Gary Armstrong, 2021-02-20 A Social History of Sheffield Boxing combines urban ethnography and anthropology sociological theory and place and life histories to explore the global phenomenon of boxing Raising many issues pertinent to the social sciences such as contestations around state regulation of violence commerce and broadcasting pedagogy and elite sport and how sport is delivered and narrated to the masses the book studies the history of boxing in Sheffield and the sport's impact on the cultural political and economic development of the city since the 18th century Interweaving urban anthropology with sports studies and historical research the text expertly examines a variety of published sources ranging from academic papers to biographies and from newspaper reports to case studies and contemporary interviews In Volume I Bell and Armstrong construct a vivid history of boxing and probe its cultural acceptance in the late 1800s examining how its rise was inextricably intertwined with the industrial and social development of Sheffield Although Sheffield was not a national player in prize fighting's early days throughout the mid 1800s many parochial scores and wagers were settled by the use of fists By the end of the century boxing with gloves had become the norm and Sheffield had a valid claim to be the chief provincial focus of this new passion largely due to the exploits of George Corfield Sheffield's first boxer of national repute Corfield's deeds were later surpassed by three British champions Gus Platts Johnny Cuthbert and Henry Hall Concluding with the dual themes of the decline of boxing in Sheffield and the city's changing social profile from the 1950s onwards the volume ends with a meditation on the arrival of new migrants to the city and the processes that aided or frustrated their integration into UK life and sport
