How's Life? Measuring Well-being OECD,2011-10-12 This book paints a comprehensive picture of well being in OECD countries and other major economies by looking at people s material living conditions and quality of life across the population

Organisations, Careers and Caring Crompton, Rosemary,Dennett, Jane,Andrea Wigfield,2003-11-19 As the number of working mothers Increases many employers are promoting work life balance policies This report looks at the effects of these employment changes on the lives of both women and men Work Sharing during the Great Recession Jon Carleton Messenger,Naj Ghosheh,2013-01-01 Work sharing is a labour market instrument devised to distribute a reduced volume of work to the same or similar number of workers over a diminished period of working time in order to avoid redundancies This fascinating and timely study presents the concept and history of work sharing and explores the complexities and trade offs involved in its use as both a strategy for preserving jobs and a policy for increasing employment The expert contributors examine the resurgence in the use of work sharing as a job preservation strategy via country case studies of work sharing programmes implemented across the globe during the Great Recession of 20082009 These studies clearly illustrate that work sharing has been successful as a crisis response measure in a number of countries Lessons learned and their implications are presented alongside prescriptions on how to design permanent work sharing policies that would provide appropriate incentives to generate positive effects for employment and promote a sustainable and job rich economic recovery This enlightening book will prove invaluable to academics researchers students and policymakers in the fields of labour economics public sector economics and social policy Gender and Higher Education Barbara J. Bank,2011-03 Encyclopedic review about gender and its impact on American higher education across historical and cultural contexts The contributors describe the ways in which gender is embedded in the educational practices curriculum institutional structures and governance of colleges and universities Topics included are institutional diversity academic majors and programs extracurricular organizations such as sororities fraternities and women s centers affirmative action and other higher educational policies and theories that have been used to analyze and explain the ways in which gender in academe is constructed

Reconfigurations of Class and Gender Janeen Baxter,Mark Western,2001 This far reaching volume reasserts the significance of class and gender for understanding socioeconomic conditions The contributors urge a nuanced approach that focuses on the specific institutional contexts of class gender relations in various advanced industrial nations AQA Business for A Level 1 (Surridge & Gillespie) Malcolm Surridge, Andrew Gillespie, 2015-08-21 Exam Board AQA Level AS A level Subject Business First Teaching September 2015 First Exam June 2016 Surridge and Gillespie are back helping students of all abilities reach their goal develop students quantitative and analytical skills knowledge and ability to apply theoretical understanding through real life business examples and varied activities This textbook has been fully revised to reflect the 2015 AQA Business specification giving you up to date material that supports your teaching and student s learning Builds up quantitative skills with Maths moment features and assesses them in the end of chapter activities Ensures students have the knowledge of real life businesses so they can apply their theoretical understanding with the Business in focus feature Helps students get to grips with the content and tests key skills with activities at the end of every chapter

Towards an Accessible Academy Alexandra R.A. Lee, E.R.P. Champion, Hope Doherty-Harrison, 2025-07-21 Higher Education is a rich and diverse environment which allows so many different types of people and disciplines to flourish Medieval Studies is a particular confluence of this with the meeting of history literature history of art archaeology and more The contributors describe their lived experience of disability and how this intersects with the discipline of Medieval Studies embracing both the challenges and the joy this can bring They discuss teaching research and just existing within the university bringing in theoretical approaches as well as linking to medieval texts Towards an Accessible Academy provides a unique perspective on the state of accessibility within this field and in the university environment more broadly This volume sits between work which centers the experience of disabled academics and which provides guidance for supporting disabled students While providing real life testimonies of disability in the academy many chapters also include practical advice on best practice in supporting disabled scholars and students as well as how the authors feel connected to the medieval sources we study The book is also a call to action for all of its readers to actively practise allyship providing clear examples of how we might all implement the advice given by contributors to improve the accessibility of our academy Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on Labor and Public Welfare United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Labor and Public Welfare, 1965 Amendments to the Fair Labor Standards Act United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Labor and Public Welfare. Subcommittee on Labor, 1965 Amendments to the Fair Labor Standards Act United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Labor and Public Welfare, 1965 Considers S 1986 and 5 related bills to amend the Fair Labor Standards Act to increase minimum wage and revise working hours A Life in Balance? Catherine Krull, Justyna Sempruch, 2011-02-28 Magazine articles talk shows and commercials advise us that our happiness and well being rest on striking a balance between work and family It goes unsaid however that the advice is based on an outmoded and unrealistic ideal This volume reopens the work life balance debate Contributors argue that to truly resolve work family issues we must recognize work and family life as overlapping aspects of a single existence rather than separate and competing spheres A

Life in Balance transcends prevailing myths by revealing how paid work employment and unpaid work caregiving and housework continue to be set against each other particularly in support of neo liberal agendas A truly equitable national childcare policy must be informed by alternative approaches to integrating family and paid work such as stay at home fathers family policy in Quebec and work and care in Aboriginal communities Occupational Health and Safety Sharon Clarke,2016-05-23 Workplace accidents and errors cost organizations hundreds of billions of dollars each year and the injured workers and their families endure considerable financial and emotional suffering It s obvious that increasing employee health and safety pays The accumulating evidence shows that investing in occupational health and safety results in improved financial and social responsibility performance There are extensive country differences and wide occupational differences in the incidence of accidents and errors The International Labour Organization ILO estimates that every year there are 2 2 million fatal and 270 million non fatal accidents or occupational diseases worldwide Occupational Health and Safety looks at the research into what causes accidents and errors in the workplace In line with other titles in the series Occupational Health and Safety emphasizes the psychological and behavioral aspects of risk in organizations It highlights how organizations differ in their health and safety performance with case studies throughout and best practices Key elements focus on employee selection and training fostering employee understanding participation and engagement in health and safety matters developing a health and safety culture at organizational and group work unit levels communicating and reinforcing safe workplace practices and bench marking one s organization against the industry leaders The contributors to this volume come from various countries reflecting unique interest and knowledge in particular areas Oversight

Hearings--proposed Changes in Child Labor Regulations United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor. Subcommittee on Labor Standards,1983 Gender and Education Barbara J. Bank,2007-09-30 In this two volume set educators explore the intersection of gender and education Their entries deal with educational theories research curricula practices personnel and policies but also with variations in the gendering of education across historical and cultural contexts The various contributors discuss gender as a social construction The latest research on boys and masculinities as well as girls and feminism is included The entries in this work cover the breadth of topics related to gender and education They provide reference information on the history and condition of gender and education from elementary to high school Entries cover such topics as alternative schools historically black colleges and universities in the United States military colleges and academies private and public single sex and co educational schools literacy mathematics achievement women s centers teacher interactions with girls and boys affirmative action in U S higher education sororities and fraternities educator sexual misconduct expectations of teachers for boys and girls heterosexism and homophobia bullying harassment and violence among students salaries of male and female educators school choice and gender equity disabled students and gender equity Title IX and school sports black feminism womanism and queer theory Making Light Work David A.

Spencer, 2022-01-19 Is work a primordial curse Or a spiritual calling Or is it a tedious necessity that technology will abolish freeing us to indulge lives of leisure In this book David A Spencer argues that work is only an alienating burden because of the nature of work under capitalism He makes the case not for the abolition of work which can remain a source of meaning and dignity but for its lightening Engaging with thinkers ranging from Marx and William Morris to Keynes and Graeber he rejects the idea that high quality work can only be open to a few while the majority are condemned to menial tasks and sets out an agenda for shortening the working week while also making work a site of creativity usefulness and joy for all This erudite book sets out a compelling agenda for radical change It s essential reading for anyone interested in the future of their work
