Longing For Change:

Long Change Don Gillmor, 2016-09-06 Long Change examines the high stakes world of oil through the life and loves of one man Fleeing his violent Pentecostal father as well as a crime of his own fifteen year old Ritt Devlin leaves Texas in the early 1950s heads north and soon finds work on an oil rig on the outskirts of Medicine Hat By his early twenties he s the head of his own oil company Spanning almost seventy years Long Change examines the high stakes world of oil through the life and loves of one man following the geology and politics of the industry from Texas to the Canadian oil patch to Africa Asia and the Arctic from idealism and avarice to violence and delusion Already one of Canada s most accomplished journalists author Don Gillmor brings us an intimate unforgettable story of industry and humanity Culture Change in Long-Term Care Audrey S. Weiner, Judah L Ronch, 2003-12-29 Change in the culture of long term care and the care of our elders is urgently needed This insightful book lights the way This book will inform you about the theoretical and practical applications of culture change within the institutional long term care setting It examines existing models of positive cultures emphasizing Implementing Culture Change in Long-Term Care Elaine Jurkowski, 2013-05-28 As one who is involved in the culture change movement and is trying to review the huge volume of available resources I find it refreshing to have a book that draws it all together I highly recommend this book to administrators who are overwhelmed at the thought of implementing change in their environment The author has done an excellent job of making it seem quite possible to make culture change a reality Doody s Medical Reviews The publication of Implementing Culture Change in Long Term Care marks the beginning of a new era in the aging services profession This book is the Rosetta Stone of the culture change movement Dr Jurkowski s skillful blend of theory research and practice addresses the movement s most urgent needs and makes the work of culture change advocates accessible to a broader and more influential audience This book is the future in paper and ink From the Foreword by Bill Thomas MD Founder of the Eden Alternative and the Green House Project This text offers a strategic approach for promoting an active culture of change in long term care facilities for older adults and people with disabilities It discusses the philosophical framework for the delivery of care in these settings and addresses the changing landscape of our long term care population With the aim of transforming these facilities from institutional settings to person centered homelike environments the book offers administrators and practitioners numerous strategies and benchmarks for culture change and addresses tools and resources to support the culture change process The text describes how these benchmarks have been met and provides ways to address not just knowledge but also attitudes and behavior important components of a culture change strategy The book compares and contrasts current long term care paradigms the medical model the rehabilitation paradigm the independence and dignity model and strength based approaches in order to see how they facilitate or impede culture change It provides best practice examples of benchmarks to be attained along with strategies to promote this process These benchmarks and strategies are based upon the Artifacts for Culture Change Assessment Tool developed by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid The text describes ways to build a blueprint and strategic processes for integrating these benchmarks into a long term care setting addressing the entire process from assessment through evaluation It also provides tools enabling readers to learn from their own process via a feedback loop and includes strategies to facilitate partnerships with family staff and community Key Features Elucidates benchmarks that can be implemented in long term care settings using the Centers for Medicare Medicaid s Long Term Care Artifacts assessment tool as an intervention Focuses on care practices the environment the inclusion and integration of family and community leadership benchmarks and workplace practices Includes robust examples of best practices within each of the main artifact arenas Incorporates tools and strategies for assessing the philosophical paradigm of a long term facility that can help or hinder the culture change process Provides discussion and reflection questions and websites for additional resources Fragments of Mind The Gap Dr Karen Gurney,2020-03-05 This book taught me so much about female desire A must read Cherry Healey Did you know that there is an orgasm gap of around 30% between heterosexual couples when they have sex In Mind The Gap Dr Karen Gurney a clinical psychologist and certified psychosexologist explores not just this gap but the gaps in our knowledge of so much of the most important new science around sex and desire In this book you will learn that nearly everything that you ve been led to believe about female sexuality isn t actually true And that despite what you might think it is possible to simultaneously feel little to no spontaneous desire and have a happy and mutually satisfying sex life long term Exploring the mismatch between ideas about sex in our society and what the science tells us Mind The Gap also explains how this disconnect lies at the root of many of our sexual problems Combining science with case studies practical exercises and tips this is a book for anyone who wants to better understand the mechanics of desire and futureproof their sex life for life

Analysis and Modeling of Relationships Between Accidents and the Geometric and Traffic Characteristics of the Interstate System Julie Anna Fee,Stephen K. Dietz,Richard L. Beatty,1969 Principal findings of this study were that geometrics alone account for only a small portion of the variance in accidents and that no relationship could be established between fatalities and the geometrics studied The geometrics studied include several types of interchanges paved shoulders sight distance delineators surface types and other variables Mathematical models were developed which can provide estimates of the average number of accidents on a particular type of highway or interchange using the appropriate variables
