between literature and film of the 1970s      Venice and the Cultural Imagination Michael O'Neill, Mark Sandy, Sarah Wootton, 2015-10-06 In the era of the Grand Tour Venice was the cultural jewel in the crown of Europe and the epitome of decadence This edited collection of eleven essays draws on a range of disciplines and approaches to ask how Venice's appeal has affected Western culture since 1800      Why Cities Look the Way They Do Richard J. Williams, 2019-08-08 We tend to think cities look the way they do because of the conscious work of architects planners and builders But what if the look of cities had less to do with design and more to do with social cultural financial and political processes and the way ordinary citizens interact with them What if the city is a process as much as a design Richard J Williams takes the moment construction is finished as a beginning tracing the myriad processes that produce the look of the contemporary global city This book is the story of dramatic but unforeseen urban sights how financial capital spawns empty towering skyscrapers and hollowed out ghettos how the zoning of once illicit sexual practices in marginal areas of the city results in the reinvention of culturally vibrant gay villages how abandoned factories have been repurposed as creative hubs in a precarious postindustrial economy It is also the story of how popular urban clichés and the fictional portrayal of cities powerfully shape the way we read and see the bricks concrete and glass that surround us Thought provoking and original Why Cities Look the Way They Do will appeal to anyone who wants to understand the contemporary city shedding new light on humanity's greatest collective invention      In Looking Back One Learns to See: Marcel Proust and Photography Mary Bergstein, 2014-03-01 Marcel Proust offered the twentieth century a new psychology of memory and seeing His novel In Search of Lost Time was written in the modern age of photography and art history In Looking Back One Learns to See: Marcel Proust and Photography is an intellectual adventure that brings to light Proust's visual imagination his visual metaphors and his photographic resources and imaginings The book features over 90 illustrations Mary Bergstein highlights various kinds of photography daguerreotypes stereoscopic cards cartes de visite postcards book illustrations and other photographic mediums Portraiture medical photography spirit photography architectural photography Orientalism ethnographic photography and fin de siècle studies of Botticelli Leonardo and Vermeer are considered in terms of Proust's life and work The net is cast wide and each image under discussion has been researched with subtle attention to art literature and cultural history This scholarly study in literature and visual culture will be a delight too for general readers who love photography or Proust Mary Bergstein is professor of History of Art and Visual Culture at the Rhode Island School of Design She won the 2012 Courage to Dream book prize from the American Psychoanalytic Association for Mirrors of Memory: Freud Photography and the History of Art Cornell 2010 She has published numerous books and articles on art and visual culture from Italian Renaissance sculpture to contemporary photography      Perceptions of Retailing in Early Modern England Nancy Cox, Karin Dannehl, 2017-05-15 Whilst there has been much recent scholarly work on retailing during the early modern period less is known about how people at the time perceived retailing both as onlookers artists and commentators and as participants Centred on the general theme of perceptions the authors address this gap in our knowledge by looking at a different aspect of consumption They focus on two ancillary themes the first is location and how contemporaries perceived the settlements in which there were shops the other is distance Pictures prints novels diaries and promotional literature of the tradespeople themselves provide much of the evidence Many of these sources are not new to historians but they have not been scrutinized and analysed with the questions in mind that are posed here The methodology to be employed has been developed by Nancy Cox over the last decade and is used successfully in her book The Complete Tradesman and in the compilation of the forthcoming Dictionary of Traded Goods and Commodities 1550 1800 This book will find a ready market with scholars concerned with British social and economic history in the early modern period Although it is first and foremost a book written by historians for historians it nevertheless borrows concepts and approaches from various disciplines concerned with theories of consumption material culture and representational art

The Atlantic Monthly, 1879      The Letters of the Late James Fawcus, M.D. James Fawcus, 1877      Proceedings of the Society for Psychical Research Society for Psychical Research (London, England), 1913      The North American Review Jared Sparks, James Russell Lowell, Edward Everett, Henry Cabot Lodge, 1922 Vols 277 230 no 2 include Stuff and nonsense v 5 6 no 8 Jan 1929 Aug 1930      Universal Geography Formed Into a New and Entire System John Payne, 1791      Urban Discourses of Crisis, Resilience, and Resistance Eric Prieto, Liam Lanigan, Anni Lappela, 2025-07-11 This volume seeks to address questions of urban crisis from an interdisciplinary perspective that foregrounds the particular roles that literature and the creative arts play in both conceptualizing and addressing the multiple challenges facing cities Noting that the successive crises of recent years from the 2008 recession to COVID 19 seem to have put an end to the triumphalist tone of much urban writing in the 1990s this book argues that the current historical moment calls for a different kind of urban discourse focused on reassessment and regrouping This edited collection features a variety of different approaches including close readings of literary works interviews essays in cultural and architectural history and sociological ethnographic and urban planning studies These chapters explore a range of challenges currently faced by cities and foreground the search for solutions

Now Hayes a boy she barely knows is hanging around and giving her stuff and Perry panics She doesn't want a boy to be crushing on her especially Hayes And social media makes everything more complicated Is it even possible for Perry to turn things around and make sixth grade awesome The drama of crushes frenemies and hovering parents is spot on Kirkus Reviews

The Environmental Imagination Dean Hawkes, 2019-11-07 The Environmental Imagination explores the relationship between tectonics and poetics in environmental design in architecture Working thematically and chronologically from the eighteenth century to the present day this book redefines the historiography of environmental design by looking beyond conventional histories to argue that the environments within buildings are a collaboration between poetic intentions and technical means In a sequence of essays the book traces a line through works by leading architects of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries that illustrate the impact of new technologies on the conception and realisation of environments in buildings In this a consideration of the qualitative dimension of environment is added to the primarily technological narratives of other accounts In this second edition the book has been substantially rewritten and restructured to include further research conducted in the decade since the first edition A number of important buildings have been revisited in order to extend the descriptions of their environments and studies have been made of a number of newly studied significant buildings A completely new essay offers an environmental interpretation of Luis Barragán's magical own house in Mexico City and the earlier studies of buildings by Peter Zumthor have been gathered into a single extended essay that includes a body of new research On the fiftieth anniversary of the publication of Reyner Banham's The Architecture of the Well tempered Environment the book concludes with a critical tribute to that seminal text The Environmental Imagination will appeal to academics and practitioners with interests in the history theory and technology of architecture
