Film Noir Ian Brookes,2017-03-09 Film noir may seem a familiar term to many with its use of a complex narrative structure flashbacks and voiceover narration and with such archetypal characterisations as the femme fatale and private eye But this introduction is not so much an account of what film noir is but more an interrogation of the ways in which the term came to be applied to a particular group of American films of the 1940s and 1950s Ian Brookes asks What is film noir With this sharply focused question active throughout the book students will benefit from an introductory text designed to provide a sophisticated treatment of the problems inherent in the category This will be the first critical introduction to film noir which takes into account the complexity of the term and the difficulties of straightforward definition and classification

Brown Gumshoes Ralph E. Rodriguez,2009-03-06 Winner Modern Language Association Prize in United States Latina and Latino and Chicana and Chicano Literary and Cultural Studies 2006 Popular fiction with its capacity for diversion can mask important cultural observations within a framework that is often overlooked in the academic world Works thought to be merely escapist can often be more seriously mined for revelations regarding the worlds they portray especially those of the disenfranchised As detective fiction has slowly earned critical respect more authors from minority groups have chosen it as their medium Chicana o authors previously reluctant to write in an underestimated genre that might further marginalize them have only entered the world of detective fiction in the past two decades In this book the first comprehensive study of Chicana a detective fiction Ralph E Rodriguez examines the recent contributions to the genre by writers such as Rudolfo Anaya Lucha

Corpi Rolando Hinojosa Michael Nava and Manuel Ramos Their works reveal the struggles of Chicanas/os with feminism homosexuality familia masculinity mysticism the nationalist subject and U S Mexico border relations He maintains that their novels register crucial new discourses of identity politics and cultural citizenship that cannot be understood apart from the historical instability following the demise of the nationalist politics of the Chicano movement of the 1960s and 1970s In contrast to that time when Chicanas/os sought a unified Chicano identity in order to effect social change the 1980s 1990s and 2000s have seen a disengagement from these nationalist politics and a new trend toward a heterogeneous sense of self The detective novel and its traditional focus on questions of knowledge and identity turned out to be the perfect medium in which to examine this new self
