Looking Back At Main Street Eastern Oreg:

Looking Back at Main Street Eastern Oregon Mark Highberger, 2005-05-01 The Unreal and the Real Ursula K. Le Guin, 2017-11-07 Includes a reading group guide and general questions for discussion The Bright Hours Phyllis Antonsen, 2010-07 From snippets of a nomadic childhood through thrilling alpine adventures two careers and fateful turns in her life to profound love in her later years the author chronicles the highlights of her life THE BRIGHT HOURS is a light hearted book that takes a look at the quirky side of events Ethel Marie Kelly Nicholson, 2025-07-15 In this book a long time academician recalls his life and the shaping influence of his mother a woman of plain origins who gave him insight by her example into the timeless wisdom of the world s great spiritual traditions This story in part is a memoir of Kelly Nicholson s youth and subsequent adventures Beneath its surface lies the enduring question of how we might decide amid all we see and hear what life means and where we are ultimately headed Its thesis is that we gain insight not merely from analytical scholarship but from our daily flesh and blood encounters with those around us Home Away From Home Jeronima Echeverria, 1999-11-01 In this meticulously researched study of Basque boardinghouses in the United States Jeronima Echeverria offers a compelling history of the institution that most deeply shaped Basque immigrant life and served as the center of Basque communities throughout the West She weaves into her narrative the stories of the boarding house owners and operators and the ways they made their establishments a home away from home for their fellow compatriots as well as the stories of the young Basques who left the security of their beloved homeland to find work in the United States

Congress,1964 The Best of Two Lives Doris R. Ayyoub,2016-09-12 The Best of Two Lives is a love story as well as family history It is shaped as a journey beginning with the cultural foundations of Jordan and the United States Weaving threads of family stories Doris introduces us to compelling characters and describes ways of life that might be forgotten if not for projects such as this Ibrahim s early years are detailed as he lived in a mixed Muslim Christian community in Jordan and Doris tells of growing up as a small town conservative Christian in Oregon One of the fundamental messages is that despite superficial differences at the root Arab lives and concerns in the Middle East are relatable just as those of Americans in the United States Doris never shrinks from showing negative attributes that she couldn t be blamed for wanting to hide and that differentiates her book from a purely family history There s something here to help us see our own families more clearly and honestly and to understand them with compassion The Railway Maintenance of Way Employes Journal ,1921

The Northwestern Miller ,1888 Circles Around the Sun Molly McCloskey,2012-10-25 An author attempts to uncover who her older brother was before schizophrenia took hold of him in this clear eyed and heartbreaking memoir Publishers Weekly Molly McClosky s brother Mike was fourteen when she was born So far apart in age she barely knew him before schizophrenia took hold of him at the age of twenty three Within a few years Mike s world began to fall apart By the time Molly was old enough to begin to know him Mike was heavily medicated and frequently delusional living in hospitals or care homes or on the road Years later through reading an astonishing archive of letters preserved by her mother and grandmother and interviewing old friends of Mike s Molly began to piece together a picture of her brother s life before and after the illness struck the story of how a gifted and well liked student and athlete was overtaken by a terrible illness that rendered him unrecognizable Now she tells that story which is also the story of her own demons and of the ways in which a seemingly perfect family can slowly fall apart and in the end regroup Up-to-the-times Magazine ,1919 Music Trades ,1921 New York Magazine ,1981-07-06 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Woman Citizen ,1920 The Farmers' Advocate and Home Magazine ,1911 Nine Flying Objects Gregory Long,2022-11-08 For decades controversy has raged over the existence of Unidentified Flying Objects UFOs seen by thousands of witnesses across the globe In June 2021 the Pentagon submitted a report to the US Congress admitting that jet pilots had been reporting UFOs for decades and that whatever their reality the objects appeared to be an unknown advanced technology June 24 2022 marks the seventy fifth anniversary of the birth of UFOs On the same month and day in 1947 a thirty two year old skilled mountain pilot named Kenneth Arnold saw nine silver disk shaped objects flying at incredible speed near Mount Rainier in Washington state Fearing he had seen possible Russian missiles he performed his patriotic duty and reported them to a small newspaper in Oregon He described their motion as if you took a saucer and skipped it across the water Hence the term flying saucer was born Arnold a well known businessman with a reputation for honesty and integrity was plunged into fame overnight Nine Flying Objects tells the story of an innocent man who struggled the rest of his life with the consequences of his report Set in the early days of the Cold War when the newly named US Air Force was emerging from the ashes of World War II and fear of the atomic bomb gripped the hearts of millions Arnold poured his own resources into his one man crusade to discover what he had seen and to fight those who doubted and ridiculed him Based on interviews of Arnold and extensive historical documents Nine Flying Objects captures the tenor of a time when UFOs were born and a single witness stood up for the truth against a government seeking to hide the reality of the single most enduring mystery of our time

Men, Masculinities and Disaster Elaine Enarson, Bob Pease, 2016-06-17 In the examination of gender as a driving force in disasters too little attention has been paid to how women's or men's disaster experiences relate to the wider context of gender inequality or how gender just practice can help prevent disasters or address climate change at a structural level With a foreword from Kenneth Hewitt an afterword from Raewyn Connell and contributions from renowned international experts this book helps address the gap It explores disasters in diverse environmental hazard political and cultural contexts through original research and theoretical reflection building on the under utilized orientation of critical men's studies This body of thought not previously applied in disaster contexts explores how men gain maintain and use power to assert control over women Contributing authors examine the gender terrain of disasters through men's eyes considering how diverse forms of masculinities shape men's efforts to respond to and recover from disasters and other climate challenges The book highlights both the high costs paid by many men in disasters and the consequences of dominant masculinity practices for women and marginalized men It concludes by examining how disaster risk can be reduced through men's diverse efforts to challenge hierarchies around gender sexuality disability age and culture
