Otto,2013-10-25 5 minutes the time it takes to brush your teeth fry an egg or pay the electric bill In any given twenty four hour period we all have 288 chances to take five minutes and just stop to think to feel allow ourselves time to breathe grab hold of a thought or a word or a feeling and capture a moment 288 Chances is a collection of writings each with a foundation that began in five short minutes Open honest thoughtful words written from the heart words that will hopefully engage the mind and the spirit as they relate to the simple everyday feelings and emotions that we all experience over a lifetime Love Loss Trust Expectation Just a few of the hopes and fears joys and disappointments that might otherwise go unspoken unshared until we take the time to write them down Could you set aside five minutes a day to challenge yourself Challenge yourself to take one random word and write for five quick minutes without thought to grammar or punctuation first connecting the bare bones and then going back and adding some flesh and muscle so your words might inspire entertain encourage or comfort someone who might need to hear them today Everyday life is full of ordinary moments that should inspire us all to be extraordinary Sharing these moments with others connects us Take five And write it down For more on this book and the author please visit 288chances.blogspot.com Art Therapy and Creative Coping Techniques for Older Adults Susan Buchalter,2011-08-15 Art and the therapeutic uses of art provide older people with valuable ways in which to express their feelings needs and fears and with a resource for coping with life's major changes This practical book is filled with step by step activities for art therapists and professionals to use in work with older people either individually or in groups Present Imperfect Andrew van der Vlies,2017-05-19 Present Imperfect asks how South African writers have responded to the end of apartheid to the hopes that attended the birth of the new nation in 1994 and to the inevitable disappointments that have followed The first full length study of affect in South Africa's literature it understands disappointment both as a description of bad feeling and as naming a missed appointment with all that was promised by the anti colonial and anti apartheid Struggle a disappointment Attending to contemporary writers treatment of temporality genre and form it considers a range of negative feelings that are also experiences of temporal disjuncture including stasis impasse boredom disaffection and nostalgia Present Imperfect offers close readings of work by a range of writers some known to international Anglophone readers including J M Coetzee Nadine Gordimer Ivan Vladislavic and Zo Wicomb some slightly less well known including Afrikaans language novelists Marlene van Niekerk and Ingrid Winterbach and others from a new generation including Songeziwe Mahlangu and Masande Ntshanga It addresses key questions in South African studies about the evolving character of the historical period in which the country now finds itself It is also alert to wider critical and theoretical conversations looking outward to make a case for the place of South African writing in global conversations and mobilizing readings of writing marked in various ways as South African in order to complicate the contours of World Literature as category discipline and pedagogy It is thus also a book about the discontents of neoliberalism the political energies of reading and the fates of literature in our troubled present The Magic Labyrinth Philip Jose individuals who discover themselves as they mature from the shared childhood of three of them in San Antonio Texas and as the fourth joins during their university days in Washington DC These two men and two women who come from different social and racial backgrounds find their lives to become forever linked until the present day Two other young individuals mould into the story as it progresses to Calcutta in the last phase There are overtures even to Latin America There is sexual discovery and experimentation as well as unrequited love Descriptions of a Catholic school in Texas are poignant and reminiscent of possibilities Georgetown in Washington DC which serves as the backdrop as the students mature to young adults is described with intimacy and familiarity The passages about Calcutta where the story moves rapidly towards finality are extremely well written and convey the flavor of that city and its people and the times This is a highly recommended read for lovers of romance in exotic venues Laurent Oliver reviewer Washington DC Treasury, Postal Service, and General Government Appropriations for Fiscal Year 1994 United States.
