Looking Good Ann D. Clark,1990 Whitaker's Book List ,1991 Women's Writing, Englishness and National and Cultural Identity M. Joannou,2012-07-17 An original mapping of women s writing in the 1940s and 1950s this book looks at Englishness and national identity in women s writing and includes writing from Scotland Wales Ireland the Indian subcontinent and Africa The authors discussed include Virginia Woolf Daphne Du Maurier Doris Lessing and Muriel Spark , The New-York Mirror, and Ladies' Literary Gazette ,1829 The Fortnightly Review ,1908 The Fortnightly ,1908 A History of Women in Medicine Sinéad Spearing,2019-05-30 A study of the female healers of centuries past and how they went from respected to reviled Witch is a powerful word with humble origins Once used to describe an ancient British tribe known for its unique class of female physicians and priestesses it grew into something grotesque diabolical and dangerous A History of Women in Medicine reveals the untold story of forgotten female physicians their lives practices and subsequent denomination as witches Originally held in high esteem in their communities these women used herbs and ancient psychological processes to relieve the suffering of their patients often traveling long distances moving from village to village Their medical and spiritual knowledge blended the boundaries between physician and priest These ancient healers were the antithesis of the witch figure of today instead they were knowledgeable therapists commanding respect gratitude and high social status In this pioneering work Sin ad Spearing draws on current archeological evidence literature folklore case studies and original religious documentation to bring to life these forgotten healers By doing so she also exposes the Church s efforts to demonize them in the eyes of the world leading female healers to be labeled witches and persecuted in the ensuing hysteria known today as the European witch craze The Visual in Performance Practice ,2020-04-14 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2011 Papers from the first global conference of Performance Visual Aspects of Performance Practice 2010 evoke the multi role collaborative sense of a jointly crafted production of new discoveries from theory concept and design to realization reflection and audience reception British Poetry from the 1950s to the 1990s Gary Day,Brian Docherty,1997-07-13 This collection looks at the developments in British poetry from the Movement until the present The introduction not only provides a context for these changes but also argues that poetry criticism has been debilitated by the quest for political respectability a trend which can only be reversed by reconsidering the idea of tradition The essays themselves focus on general themes or individual authors Written in a clear and informed manner they provoke the reader into a fresh awareness of the nature of poetry and its relation to society Cinema and the Political Imagination Robin Truth Goodman,2024-12-04 Highlighting the importance of Third Cinema on twenty first century political filmmaking this book examines films that have adopted Third Cinema s experimental film techniques for the purpose of political intervention The text explores the legacy of Third Cinema on more traditional cinema and Robin Truth Goodman examines how Third Cinema s cinematic reinvention of the image as a political springboard is still being utilized by contemporary filmmakers In exploring the relationship between political subjectivity and cinematic practice through a variety of contemporary case studies Goodman also looks at topics not previously examined by Third Cinema The book focuses on the multiple internationalisms of borders and cities and treats gender as a vector through which different directions in a political field can be imagined Finally while linking a mid twentieth century tradition of filmmaking to contemporary problems of the political the book considers the politics of representation through the representation of politics reflecting on what makes an image political and what inspires us to identify with it A compelling read for students and scholars interested in Third Cinema Cinema and Politics and Cinema and Subversion and anyone interested in exploring the connections between Third Cinema and contemporary political filmmaking

New Objectivity Sergiusz Michalski, 2003 Drawing on new research from local archives as well as reinterpretations of published literature Power and the People describes how England remained governable between 1525 and 1640 despite the wars famine epidemics and dynastic and religious crises of the period The book surveys the mechanisms of authority at various levels from the street and alehouse to the manor and the royal court Maintaining order was a difficult challenge given that England had no standing army or professional police and Alison Wall investigates everything from the roles of village constables to the social cohesiveness that came from civic celebrations and participatory politics Her book provides students with a rich perspective on the social world and political culture of early modern England
