Marks of Achievement David B. Warren, Katherine S. Howe, Michael Kevin Brown, 1987-01-01 Marks of Achievement: Four Centuries of American Presentation Silver, 19?? Early American Silver in The Metropolitan Museum of Art Wees, Beth Carver, Harvey, Medill Higgins, 2013 Nothing provided Marks of Achievement David B. Warren, Katherine S. Howe, Michael Kevin Brown, Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, 1987 Intertwined: Transpacific, Transcultural Philippines Florina H. Capistrano-Baker, 2022-12-08 This book is published in conjunction with Intertwined Transpacific Transcultural Philippines Ayala Museum's inaugural exhibition for its newly renovated space opened in 2021. It is authored by the exhibition curator Florina H. Capistrano Baker Ph.D. and features essays by contributing scholars and field experts Sandra Castro Michael F. Manalo M. Arch Maria Cristina Martinez Juan Ph.D. and Iván Valdez Bubnov Ph.D. Intertwined provides important scholarship on Filipino heritage and transpacific studies. The publication also serves as the catalogue of the exhibition. The exhibition and its joint publication open up visual and verbal conversations on the complexities and contradictions of Filipino art and identity. By illuminating the Filipino's transcultural heritage resulting from pre and post colonial maritime exchanges with diverse cultures in Asia, America, and Europe, Filipinos can gain a better understanding of our culture and take pride in the excellence we've shown throughout history in the arts, diplomacy, entrepreneurship, and the global economy. Underwriters of the United States Hannah Farber, 2021-10-28 Unassuming but formidable American maritime insurers used their position at the pinnacle of global trade to shape the new nation. The international information they gathered and the capital they generated enabled them to play central roles in state building and economic development. During the Revolution, they helped the U.S. negotiate foreign loans, sell state debts, and establish a single national bank. Afterward, they increased their influence by lending money to the federal government and to its citizens. Even as federal and state governments began to encroach on their domain, maritime insurers adapted, preserving their autonomy and authority through extensive involvement in the formation of commercial law. Leveraging their claims to unmatched expertise, they operated free from government interference while simultaneously embedding themselves into the nation's institutional fabric. By the early nineteenth century, insurers were no longer just risk assessors. They were nation builders and market makers. Deeply and imaginatively researched, Underwriters of the United States uses marine insurers to reveal a startlingly original story of risk, money, and power in the founding era. Silver at Williamsburg John A. Hyman, 1994 Colonial Williamsburg's extensive collection of silver drinking vessels is the legacy of three distinct sensibilities and reflects different philosophies of collecting over six decades. American Rococo, 1750-1775 Morrison H. Heckscher, Leslie Greene Bowman, 1992 Published in conjunction with an exhibition organized by and held at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, and the Los Angeles County Museum of Art, this volume examines the American and British colonial manifestations of the European rococo style. Following an introductory chapter, separate chapters are devoted
