Marxism in Asia Colin Mackerras, Nick Knight, 2015-04-17 Marxism is a theory which originated in the context of nineteenth century industrialised Europe Despite its European origins Marxism has actually found greatest significance as a doctrine for change in the context of the underdeveloped peasant societies of Asia This paradox has only been resolved through adaptation of Marxism to suit the specific features of particular Asian societies There has consequently been a differentiation of Marxism along national lines In this book first published in 1985 the theoretical and practical implications for this national differentiation of a universal European theory are explored followed by a more detailed analysis of the manner in which Marxism has developed during different historical periods in particular Asian contexts

North Korean Ideology Thomas Stock, 2025-06-30 Where lie the origins of North Korean ideology When why and to what extent did North Korean ideology begin to transform into the idiosyncratic ideology that it is today In this first comprehensive Cold War history of North Korean ideology Thomas Stock traces its development from Soviet Marxism Leninism to the distinct North Korean ideology of today Stock uncovers the Democratic People's Republic of Korea DPRK's historical investment in the Marxist Leninist tradition a global intellectual force whose internal debates and philosophy structured the evolution of North Korean ideology Marxism Leninism varied across space and time whirling in a constant process of mutation in relation to which North Korea's own ideology developed Using Eastern European archival materials North Korean party documents and other new sources this book provides an unprecedented and empirically grounded look into the exact evolutionary process of North Korea's state ideology from its Soviet origins all the way to the iconic Chinese ideology. This process was driven not so much by historical legacies such as Confucianism or Kim Il Sung's guerrilla experience than by worldwide Marxist-Leninist controversies, geopolitical shifts and the interests of party elites. Throughout the Cold War North Korea was anything but a spiritually isolated country. As a result North Korean ideology too constituted a thoroughly global product, not the hermetic construct it is often made out to be. Totalitarianism and Literary Discourse Irma Ratiani, 2011-10-18. The collection Totalitarianism and Literary Discourse represents selected proceedings from the conference Totalitarianism and Literary Discourse: 20th Century Experience held in Tbilisi, Georgia, in October 2009. The Tbilisi conference pioneered scholarly inquiry into post-Soviet space, which evaluated political and cultural realities, emphasizing the challenges facing literature and culture in totalitarian strangleholds, various kinds of ideological dictat, their possible forms and consequences. The Soviet type of totalitarianism was especially accentuated. Decades after the collapse of the Soviet Union, full comprehension of the process of Sovietization has become possible, and in the field of literary studies, scholars have worked on a number of issues, assessing conceptual and motivational models of Soviet period texts, demonstrating the reaction of literary discourse to intellectual terror and systematizing alternative models offered by anti-Soviet discourse, exhibiting the myths and stereotypes of the totalitarian epoch and classifying literary genres. The collection Soviet Totalitarianism and Literary Discourse has gathered papers by scholars from almost all of the post-Soviet states as well as of some other countries. It is a first attempt to solve the above-mentioned issues and offers a wide array of questions.

Biography of a Blunder Dileep Edara, 2016-02-29. Engaging with a critical analysis of the base and superstructure thesis regarding which a surprising number of reputed Marxist thinkers betray a perpetual ambivalence by frequently deploying it in a variety of contexts but simultaneously airing various reservations about it, this book proposes a radical departure from the presently predominant understanding of it. The popular view of the base as comprising economics and superstructure as encompassing almost all other spheres of social life is criticised as panoramic or panoptic or the extended version to which Marx's rigorously defined base of production relations and superstructure of politico-legal spheres is juxtaposed. Revisiting Marx's formulations in his famous 1859 Preface described here as his purloined letters, the study rehabilitates his restricted version and upholds its conceptual superiority over its extended avatar that is currently ubiquitous. The substitution of Marx's restricted version with the widely believed extended version of the thesis is characterised here as a blunder, and this book traces the biography of this blunder through the intricate and tortuous theoretical developments that traverse a transnational and multidisciplinary territory constituting the history of Marxism. The last chapter argues for a paradigm shift in favour of the mode of production thesis in order to redeem the holistic vision of Marx. This shift is necessitated by the extenuation of the status of the base and superstructure thesis that results from the restoration of Marx's restricted version. This chapter grapples with the issues involved in preparing the ground for that shift It also contends that although these theoretical shifts are never formulated in a conscious and conclusive manner as is done here the best practices in Marxist analyses are always inspired by the methodological implications of the mode of production thesis and for this reason the thesis is claimed to be the conceptual unconscious of Marxism

Deleuze at the End of the World Dorothea E. Olkowski,Julián Ferreyra,2020-07-15 The philosophy of Deleuze is as relevant to contemporary thought as it is obscure and complex Deleuze at the End of the World guides readers through this maze by exploring the raw material that Deleuze took from thinkers in various fields of knowledge to construct his own concepts some of them well known such as Hegel Kant Husserl Balibar and Blanchot and some widely unexplored Selme Guillaume Bakhtine and Dalcq At the same time readers will gain access to Latin American perspectives on contemporary philosophy Contextualized with an Introduction by one of the pioneers of the Deleuzian Studies at a global level Dorothea Olkowski this book provides both a unique tool for comprehending the philosophy of Deleuze but also insight into to the way it has been read in the periphery of the American and European scholarship where the end of the world means not only a geographical contingency but the encounter of thought with its own limits This collection is both a refreshing approach to Deleuzian philosophy as well as a continuous and innovative experience of thinking

An effort has been made to list only those articles in which Stalin figures prominently but in some instances articles have been included which do not center on Stalin but are worthy of listing for other reasons. The book is divided into fourteen main sections: General Studies and Overviews; Biographical Information and Psychological Assessments; The Revolutionary Movement; October Revolution and Civil War; Rise to Power; Politics; Economics; Society and Social Policy; Nationalism and Nationality Policy; Culture; Religion; Philosophy and Theory; Foreign Relations and International Communism; Military Affairs; and De Stalinization. Communism. Selections from Marx, Engels, Kropotkin, Lenin, Stalin, Trotsky Karl Marx, Friedrich Engels, Peter Kropotkin, Vladimir Lenin, Joseph Stalin, Leon Trotsky, 2025-03-26 Communism is a left wing to far left sociopolitical philosophical and economic ideology within the socialist movement whose goal is the establishment of a communist society, a socioeconomic order centered around common ownership of the means of production, distribution and exchange that allocates products to everyone in the society. Communist society also involves the absence of private property, social classes, money and the state. Communists often seek a voluntary state of self governance but disagree on the means to this end. This reflects a distinction between a more libertarian approach of communization, revolutionary spontaneity and workers self management and a more vanguardist or Communist party driven approach through the development of a constitutional socialist state followed by the withering away of the state. As one of the main ideologies on the political spectrum, communism is placed on the left wing alongside socialism and communist parties and movements have been described as radical left or far left.
