Masterpieces of Primitive Art Douglas Newton, 1978 The Nelson A. Rockefeller Vision: Arts of Africa, Oceania, and the Americas Alisa LaGamma, Joanne Pillsbury, Eric Kjellgren, Yaelle Biro, 2014-08-01 This Bulletin and the exhibition it accompanies The Nelson A Rockefeller Vision In Pursuit of the Best in Arts of Africa Oceania and the Americas reflect on an extraordinary act of philanthropy that was also a catalyst for momentous change in the art world In establishing the Museum of Primitive Art MPA in 1956 the precursor to what is today the Department of the Arts of Africa Oceania and the Americas AAOA at the Metropolitan Museum Nelson Rockefeller was a true pioneer assembling what remains the greatest collection of fine art from these disparate fields Perhaps even more important than this singular achievement however was Rockefeller's long campaign to place his collection at the Metropolitan Museum as a gift to the city and to the world which he finally achieved in 1969 after nearly forty years of effort Rockefeller's gift carried the unequivocal message that artists from Africa Oceania and the Americas are equal in every respect to those of their peers across the globe and throughout history Yet until that time there was famously skepticism in the Western art world on this point as well as resistance from earlier generations of Metropolitan directors in viewing non Western art as part of the institution's mission Relying on his formidable powers of persuasion Rockefeller eventually brokered an agreement to transfer the collections staff and library of the of the MPA to the Metropolitan an astounding triumph that fundamentally changed the character of the museum making the collections truly encyclopedic A Companion to Modern Art Pam Meecham, 2018-02-13 A Companion to Modern Art presents a series of original essays by international and interdisciplinary authors who offer a comprehensive overview of the origins and evolution of artistic works movements approaches influences and legacies of Modern Art Presents a contemporary debate and dialogue rather than a seamless consensus on Modern Art Aims for reader accessibility by highlighting a plurality of approaches and voices in the field Presents Modern Art's foundational philosophic ideas and practices as well as the complexities of key artists such as Cezanne and Picasso and those who straddled the modern and contemporary Looks at the historical reception of Modern Art in addition to the latest insights of art historians curators and critics to artists educators and more previously undisclosed connections to a culture and a psychoanalytic tradition not often associated with him This book bears detailed testimony to Freud s relationship to a country he never set foot in but inhabited imaginatively on many levels In the Mexico of the 1920s and 1930s Freud made an impact not only among psychiatrists but also in literary artistic and political circles Gallo writes about a motley crew of Freud s readers who devised some of the most original elaborate and influential applications of psychoanalytic theory anywhere in the world After describing Mexico s Freud Gallo offers an imaginative reconstruction of Freud s Mexico Freud owned a treatise on criminal law by a Mexican judge who put defendants including Trotsky s assassin on the psychoanalyst s couch he acquired Mexican pieces as part of his celebrated collection of antiquities he recorded dreams of a Mexico that was fraught with danger and he belonged to a secret society that conducted its affairs in Spanish

Art Without Borders Ben-Ami Scharfstein, 2009-08-01 People all over the world make art and take pleasure in it and they have done so for millennia But acknowledging that art is a universal part of human experience leads us to some big questions Why does it exist Why do we enjoy it And how do the world s different art traditions relate to art and to each other Art Without Borders is an extraordinary exploration of those questions a profound and personal meditation on the human hunger for art and a dazzling synthesis of the whole range of inquiry into its significance Esteemed thinker Ben Ami Scharfstein s encyclopedic erudition is here brought to bear on the full breadth of the world of art He draws on neuroscience and psychology to understand the way we both perceive and conceive of art including its resistance to verbal exposition Through examples of work by Indian Chinese European African and Australian artists Art Without Borders probes the distinction between accepting a tradition and defying it through innovation which leads to a consideration of the notion of artistic genius Continuing in this comparative vein Scharfstein examines the mutual influence of European and non European artists Then through a comprehensive evaluation of the world s major art cultures he shows how all of these individual traditions are gradually but haltingly conjoining into a single current of universal art Finally he concludes by looking at the ways empathy and intuition can allow members of one culture to appreciate the art of another Lucid learned and incomparably rich in thought and detail Art Without Borders is a monumental accomplishment on par with the artistic achievements Scharfstein writes about so lovingly in its pages

Hunting the Collectors Susan Cochrane, Max Quanchi, 2014-11-10 This volume investigates Pacific collections held in Australian museums art galleries and archives and the diverse group of 19th and 20th century collectors responsible for their acquisition The nineteen essays reveal varied personal and institutional motivations that eventually led to the conservation preservation and exhibition in Australia of a remarkable archive of Pacific Island material objects art and crafts photographs and documents Hunting the Collectors benchmarks the importance of Pacific Collections in Australia and is a timely contribution to the worldwide renaissance of interest in Oceanic arts and cultures The essays suggest that the custodial role is not fixed and immutable but fluctuates with the perceived importance of the collection which in turn fluctuates with the level of national interest in the Pacific neighbourhood This cyclical rise and fall of Australian interest in the Pacific Islands means many of the valuable early collections in state and later national repositories and institutions have been rarely exhibited or published But as the authors note enthusiastic museum anthropologists curators collection managers and university based scholars across Australia and worldwide have persisted with research on material collected in the Pacific This volume is a very important one for anyone studying the art and material culture of the Pacific It focuses on collections now in Australia Even those well versed in museum collections from the Pacific will learn about many important but little known collectors as well as better known figures like the anthropologists F E Williams and Thomas Farrell the husband of Queen Emma This will be a treat for students and specialist alike Professor Robert L Welsch University of Dartmouth Jean-Michel Frank Pierre-Emmanuel Martin-Vivier,2008 Lavishly illustrated this book provides a comprehensive exploration of the work of Jean Michel Frank an important French modernist designer The Healing Flow: Artistic Expression in Therapy Martina Schnetz,2004-10-15 Drawing on her extensive experience as a creative arts therapist Martina Schnetz puts forward a new approach to the process of art in healing She explores the dialogue between the internal world external images and words shaping a new vocabulary for creative arts therapists The Healing Flow Artistic Expression in Therapy is a theoretical and experiential account of the author s work with survivors of childhood trauma and post traumatic stress Case studies are presented in this model Through providing deeper insight into the creative processes participants recover meaningful patterns in their lives and restore connectedness between themselves and the world
