Storytelling on the Northern Irish Border Ray

Cashman,2011-09-23 A folklorist explores the storytelling traditions of a small Irish town where local character anecdotes build community across sectarian divides More than quaint local color folklore is a crucial part of life in Aghyaran a mixed Catholic Protestant border community in Northern Ireland Neighbors socialize during wakes and ceilis informal nighttime gatherings without regard to religious ethnic or political affiliation The witty sometimes raucous stories swapped on these occasions offer a window into Aghyaran residents views of self and other in the wake of decades of violent conflict Through anecdotes about local characters participants explore the nature of community and identity in ways that transcend Catholic or Protestant sectarian histories Ray Cashman analyzes local character anecdotes in detail and argues that while politicians may take credit for the peace process in Northern Ireland no political progress would be possible without ordinary people using shared resources of storytelling and socializing to imagine and maintain community

War in Your Heart Ruth

Paxson,1952-01-01 The purpose of this book the last to come from Ruth Paxson is to show the biblical pathway of victory through union with Christ by way of the cross and the throne The heart hungry Christian will receive with joy this clear exposition of God s provision for victorious living Those who are experiencing the joy of living completely for God will find this book a delight to recommend and give One of the arresting statements made by Paxson is I was terrified to see in a recent Bible study the relation between personal sin and collective defeat But she goes on to encourage us I was thrilled beyond expression to see also the relation between personal and collective victory The author presents victory not as an experience which might be regarded as optional but as the essence of the Christian life and therefore obligatory The publishing of this book is to the end that many souls still in bondage to sin and self may experience victory in Christ
