Perspectives On Communication In Social Conflict:

Perspectives on Communication in Social Conflict Gerald R. Miller, Herbert W. Simons, 1974 The Role of Conflict on the Individual and Society Theresa MacNeil-Kelly, 2020-07-08 The Role of Conflict on Society and the Individual uses a variety of interdisciplinary approaches to explore how humans both observe and confront our differences with one another and with the world around us Contributors examine conflict in various contexts including conflict within families interracial relationships sports society and ourselves to determine how conflict manifests itself in our everyday lives

Personal Conflict Management Amy Janan Johnson, Ioana A. Cionea, Suzanne McCorkle, Melanie J. Reese, 2024-07-03 This third edition bridges the theory behind why conflict occurs with specific skills and tools to transform difficult interpersonal encounters into beneficial constructive exchanges Providing an understanding of the common causes of conflict this edition continues its discussions of causes of conflict what affects how conflict occurs and unfolds and strategies to manage conflict Separate chapters are dedicated to examining conflict in common everyday contexts such as families friendships the workplace or on social media This edition also features updated information and examples further connections between conflict and communication a revised chapter on conflict in close relationships as well as a new chapter on intercultural conflict The book is ideal for introductory conflict and communication courses at the undergraduate or graduate level An instructor manual significantly updated as well is also available online including summaries of the chapters activities a test bank and sample syllabi and assignments Please visit www.routledge.com 9781032412412 Creative Strategies for Conflict Management & Community Building Christian Ndubueze Anyanwu, 2009-11 This book in applying the asset mapping theory of Kretzmann and McKnight 1993 developed a positive communication strategy for minimizing conflicts and building a more Collaborative Communities in Organizations and Churches with much emphasis on inclusivity consensus and commitment to common vision and ideals While critically reviewing the traditional conflict theories in their approaches to conflict management the book uses the new lens provided by the asset mapping theory to recommend for a paradigm shift in the way people look at organizations and conflicts A new emphasis therefore is on the positive elements in organizations the assets that lie within individuals and groups as the key to minimizing conflict in organizations Besides unlike the traditional conflict theories which sees conflict as a problem this new lens sees conflict within organizations as functional and opportunities for growth The book equally identifies some of the significant factors that cause ethnic conflicts within organizations such as Prejudices among Ethnic Groups Differences of Ethnic Groups Power Struggle among Ethnic Groups Discrimination and Injustice against Groups Lack of Participatory Communication and Lack of Participatory Leadership Finally in reviewing the relevant literatures on Community Building the book underlines the various variables that make Community Building possible Such variables include Discovering and Mobilizing the Assets of Individuals and Groups within Organizations Building Relationships among Individuals and Groups within Organizations Building a more Participatory

Leadership within Organizations Building a more Participatory Communication within Organizations Creating more Awareness on the necessity of Collaborative Initiatives as well as Promoting the Common Cultural Values and Ideals that holds Individuals and Groups together within Organization

Cross-linguistic and Cross-cultural Perspectives on Academic Discourse Eija Suomela-Salmi, Fred Dervin, 2009 The goal of this volume is to examine academic discourse AD from cross linguistic and cross cultural perspectives The adjective Cross cultural in the volume title is not just limited to national contexts but also includes a cross disciplinary perspective Twelve scientific fields are under scrutiny in the articles One of the unique aspects of the volume is the inclusion of a variety of foreign languages English as a lingua franca Spanish French Swedish Russian German Italian and Norwegian Besides in several articles dealing with oral AD comparisons and parallels are also established with written AD The research methodologies used in the studies are varied and they offer an overview of the diversity and richness of approaches to AD All in all it is hoped that the volume appeals not only to young researchers but also to confirmed scholars interested in cross linguistic and cross cultural aspects of AD It will also be of interest to language teachers or teachers who are involved with e g international students and academic mobility

Cultures and Politics of Global Communication: Volume 34, Review of International Studies Costas M. Constantinou, Oliver P. Richmond, Alison Watson, 2008-06-12 This special issue of Review of International Studies focuses on how International Relations IR communicates with the world and vice versa It opens up the discussion of the politics of communication within the discipline and beyond With a variety of different mediums ranging from media film memory music culture and emotions this book seeks to accentuate their importance for IR both as a source of knowledge and as an ideational exchange which shapes IR It examines the diverse ways that multidisciplinary thinkers try to understand and explain global routes mobilities cultures commodifications singularities discourses and aestheticisations This special issue specifically addresses three interrelated themes How international and global studies approach the question of communication how to conceptualise and respond to the globalisation of communication and how global problems get communicated within and across the institutional settings of the epistemic disciplines in general and the IR discipline in particular
