Cooper, 2003 This is a cross cultural study of the political economy of war in South Asia Randolph G S Cooper combines an overview of Maratha military culture with a battle by battle analysis of the 1803 Anglo Maratha Campaigns Building on that foundation he challenges ethnocentric assumptions about British superiority in discipline drill and technology He argues that these campaigns in which Arthur Wellesley served with distinction represent the military high water mark of the Marathas who posed the last serious opposition to the formation of the British Raj Dr Cooper asserts that the real contest for India was never a single decisive battle for the subcontinent Rather it turned on a complex social and political struggle for control of the South Asian military economy The author shows that victory in 1803 hinged as much on finance diplomacy politics and intelligence as it did on battlefield manoeuvre and war itself Deccan in Transition, 1600 to 1800 Umesh Ashok Kadam, 2023-03-31 This book presents the socio cultural and historical trajectories of the Deccan plateau as well as the coastal areas of the current states of Andhra Pradesh Maharashtra Karnataka and Goa It studies the art of diplomacy by discussing the diplomatic relations between the Marathas and various European companies as well as the indigenous regional states The author also probes into the Maratha naval policy the evolution of a composite Deccani culture and the cultural flux that was taking place within the Maratha country Through an interdisciplinary lens the volume examines how caste and gender relations operated how the idea of dissent was generated as well as the socio political impact of various linguistic ethnic and religious groups Through a study of monuments sculpture and paintings prevalent in the region the book also discusses the developments in art and architecture in the Deccan Rich in archival sources this book is a must read for scholars and researchers of Indian history colonial history South Asian history Maratha history and history in general Maratha Policy Towards Northern India Poonam Sagar, 1993 History of Modern World (1919-1945) (MJC-8) History of India (1707-1857) (MJC-9) B.A. 5th Sem According to NEP Dr. A.
