This book gives the reader the ability to make new inroads to understanding how faith belief and religion not only differ but also how they can contribute to comparative theology These three topics broadly covered herein can heighten the understanding of the Sacred by those who study them As to a few preliminaries what is faith Further what is belief Which one comes first in a person's journey toward the Sacred Moreover does religion factor into these two terms and if so where and how Does Augustine's well worn line faith seeking understanding mean anything today If it does would it mean belief comes prior to faith and or religion One can argue both sides of this debate and still be considered orthodox seemingly Perhaps it is the case that belief precedes faith most of the time but not all of the time Perhaps it is the other way around What exactly is the demarcation between belief and faith Many a person believes a thing to be true in their very bones such a stance borders on what is commonly referred to as faith Is religion the combination of belief and faith together into a coherent system of thought or is it emergent from the two existing as a separate mental or spiritual entity Explore these questions and more The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books 1976 to 1982 British Library, 1983

Pentecostal Theology for the Twenty-First Century May Ling Tan-Chow, 2016-05-13 In our post 9/11 world where there is a growing religious fundamentalism and when both exclusion and easy tolerance are inadequate options this book offers a creative alternative arguing that Pentecostalism has the potential to be a peaceful harbinger of plurality The potential lies in its spirituality a lively pneumatology and eschatology The eschatological Spirit is seen as orientated towards the other crossing boundaries in redemptive embrace transcending exclusion and easy tolerance This book's non-Western perspective and the empirical contextual study of Singapore's multicultural and multi-faith context are unique contributions to religion and society This is a book for students pastors teachers and theologians concerned for an approach to mission that is sensitive to their context who want to learn from a creative theological voice from what has been perhaps the largest religious movement in history and who see the immense potential in lively theology by Christians of the Chinese diaspora who can speak to the many millions of ethnic Chinese Christians This book will also appeal to those outside Christianity who are interested in its attempts to engage with a complex multi-ethnic and multi-religious situation such as that in Singapore
