Reasons And The Fear Of Death:

Reasons and the Fear of Death R. E. Ewin, 2002 Philosophers have argued back and forth about whether the fear of death can be justified by arguments of rationality Ewin philosophy U of Western Australia suggests that both sides have gotten the question wrong Fear of death he suggests is prerational underlying all of the concepts with which we reason Rather than reifying Reason we should see reasons as emerging from a complex of emotion cognition and other aspects of being human that emerged from our evolutionary history In approaching reason and death in this way we can shed new light on the moral judgements on euthanasia and related questions Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Arabic Psychological Tests and Their English Versions Ahmed M. Tessin,D. Phillips,2016-07-27 What can transcendence mean for us We live in a world in which there are many conceptions of transcendence Some philosophers say that they all point in their way to a transcendent realm without which death and life s sorrows have the last word while their opponents argue that since this realm is an illusion we must use our own resources to meet life s trials Others argue that moral and religious concepts of transcendence are obscured by philosophical notions of transcendence and must be rescued from them These conflicting views on a central issue in our culture are brought into sharp relief in the present collection
