Nationalism and Indian Political Thought Alexei Pimenov,2020-01-22 This book examines the influence of Indian socio political thought ideas and culture on German Romantic nationalism It suggests that contrary to the traditional view that the concepts of nationalism have moved exclusively from the West to the rest of the world in the crucial case of German nationalism the essential intellectual underpinnings of the nationalist discourse came to the West not from the West The book demonstrates how the German Romantic fascination with India resulted in the adoption of Indian models of identity and otherness and ultimately shaped German Romantic nationalism The author illustrates how Indian influence renovated the scholarly design of German nationalism and at the same time became central to pre modern and pre nationalist models of identity which later shaped the Aryan myth Focusing on the scholarship of Friedrich Schlegel Otmar Frank Joseph Goerres and Arthur Schopenhauer the book shows how in explaining the fact of the diversity of languages peoples and cultures the German Romantics reproduced the Indian narrative of the degradation of some Indo Aryan clans which led to their separation from the Aryan civilization An important resource for the nexus between Indology and Orientalism German Indian writers in late Ottoman and British Mandate Palestine used Arabo Islamic culture to advance the goals of Zionism In the decades before the establishment of a Jewish state in 1948 native and immigrant Jews in Palestine mediated between Jewish and Arab cultures while navigating their evolving identities as settler colonists Hebrew Orientalism challenges the conventional view that Hebrew thinkers were dismissive of Arabo Islamic culture revealing how they both adopted and adapted elements of it that enhanced Zionist aims Drawing on a wealth of sources ranging from Arabic medieval chronicles travel narratives and poetry to modern Hebrew geography and botany texts Mostafa Hussein provides a nuanced understanding of Hebrew orientalism by focusing on the practical activities of Hebrew writers such as recuperating the Jewish past in the East constructing Jewish indigeneity consolidating Jewish ties to Palestine s landscape enhancing understanding of the Hebrew Bible reviving Hebrew language and undertaking translation projects Through the lens of a diverse group of Jewish intellectuals ranging from Palestine born Sephardi Oriental and Ashkenazi Jews to Eastern European immigrants he unveils the complex realities of cultural exchange and knowledge production highlighting the dual role of these intellectuals in connecting with the East and promoting Zionist aspirations Hussein offers fresh insights into the role of scholarly practices in advancing new perspectives on the region and its peoples and forging a modern Zionist Hebrew identity Illuminating the intricate and often contradictory engagement of Hebrew scholars with Arabo Islamic culture Hebrew Orientalism informs contemporary discussions of postcolonialism and settler colonialism and enriches our understanding of the historical dynamics between Jews and Arabs in Palestine The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints ,1968 Derrida and Antiquity Miriam Leonard,2010-07-22 The essays in this volume chart Derrida s dialogue with the ancient world in the context of the central concerns of his work Introduction p 12 Subject-index to the author-catalogue. 1908-10. 2 v National Library (India),1929 Subject-index to the author-catalogue. 1908-10. 2 v Imperial Library, Calcutta,1929
