Popular Music and Australian Culture Bruce Johnson, 2022-11-29 This volume explores aspects of popular music and culture from the twentieth century to the present day It brings together contributions challenging or reassessing assumptions about how individual subjective experience comes to terms with modernity While the emphasis is on Australian case studies the essays here raise larger questions ranging from our disempowerment as consumers demanding instant gratification to our ambiguous status as observers of and participants in historical change They examine the complex relationship between sound and visual media in the formation of various communities and how this relates to daily lived experience

The Sydney Art Patronage System, 1890-1940 Heather Johnson, 1997 John Perceval Traudi Allen, John Perceval, 1992-01-01 Attractively illustrated book which explores the life and career of this renowned Australian artist from the 1920s to the present Contains a catalogue raisonné list of principal exhibitions summary of biographical details and an extensive bibliography are included The hardback is a limited edition Library Catalog of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, Second Edition, Revised and Enlarged Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.). Library, 1985 Western Australian Art and Artists, 1900-1950 Janda Gooding, Art Gallery of Western Australia, 1987 A Companion to Australian Art Christopher Allen, 2021-04-27 A Companion to Australian Art is a thorough introduction to the art produced in Australia from the arrival of the First Fleet in 1788 to the early 21st century Beginning with the colonial art made by Australia's first European settlers this volume presents a collection of clear and accessible essays by established art historians and emerging scholars alike Engaging clearly written chapters provide fresh insights into the principal Australian art movements considered from a variety of chronological regional and thematic perspectives The text seeks to provide a balanced account of historical events to help readers discover the art of Australia on their own terms and draw their own conclusions The book begins by surveying the historiography of Australian art and exploring the history of art museums in Australia The following chapters discuss art forms such as photography sculpture portraiture and landscape painting examining the practice of art in the separate colonies before Federation and in the Commonwealth from the early 20th century to the present day This authoritative volume covers the last 250 years of art in Australia including the Early Colonial High Colonial and Federation periods as well as the successive Modernist styles of the 20th century and considers how traditional Aboriginal art has adapted and changed over the last fifty years The Companion to Australian Art is a valuable resource for both undergraduate and graduate students of the history of Australian artforms from colonization to postmodernism and for general readers with an interest in the nation's colonial art history

Sidney Nolan Nancy Underhill, 2015-06-01 Digging through the myths around Australia's most famous artist many of which he created himself as a masterful self promoter this book is the biography that Sidney Nolan deserves In an authoritative insightful and often irreverent biography that fully charts Nolan's life and work Nancy Underhill peels back the layers from a complicated expedient and manipulative artistic genius She carries the story from Nolan's birth in 1917 to his death in 1992 tracing his early life his experience as a commercial artist his involvement in the Angry Penguins magazine his painting and set design his difficult marriages and friendships with some of the twentieth century's most famous figures Patrick White Albert Tucker Benjamin Britten Robert Lowell Stephen Spender and Kenneth Clark

Eye for Eternity Mark McKenna, 2020-11-03

Manning Clark was a complex demanding and brilliant man Mark McKenna's compelling biography of this giant of Australia's cultural landscape is informed by his reading of Clark's extensive private letters journals and diaries many that have never been read before An Eye for Eternity paints a sweeping portrait of the man who gave Australians the signature account of their own history It tells of his friendships with Patrick White and Sidney Nolan It details an urgent and dynamic marriage ripped apart at times by Clark's constant need for extramarital romantic love A son who wrote letters to his dead parents A historian who placed narrative ahead of facts A doubter who flirted with Catholicism A controversial public figure who marked slights and criticisms with deeply held grudges To understand Clark's life is to understand twentieth century Australia And it raises fundamental questions about the craft of biography When are letters too personal comments too hurtful and insights too private to publish Clark incessantly documented his life leaving notes to the biographers he knew would pursue his story He had a deep need to be remembered and this book means he will now be understood in an unforgettable way

From Russia with Love Roger Leong, 1998 Francis Lymburner Hendrik Kolenberg, Francis Lymburner, Barry Pearce, 1992 Battle Lines Scott Bevan, 2004 What is it like to be an artist in war How does the experience of war change artists and how in turn has their work changed Australians view of themselves their country and their involvement in conflict Award winning journalist Scott Bevan put these questions to Australian artists who have recorded been affected by and responded to theatres of war including Sir William Dargie Nora Heysen Ray Parkin Bruce Fletcher Ray Beattie Wendy Sharpe and Peter Churcher Their stories are fascinating painting a vivid picture of the artists experience of depicting conflict the hope and tragedy inspiration and frustration humanity and beauty that can be found amid the death and destruction of war Staining the paper with their own sweat and drawing with whatever materials they had to hand in hostile and dangerous environments the artists in BATTLE LINES AUSTRALIAN ARTISTS AT WAR risked their lives to create their art They were compelled to record what they were seeing from Alan Moore's bleak sketches of the horror of the Bergen Belsen concentration camp to Ray Parkin's drawings of the tropical beauty that lay just beyond the barbed wire of the Japanese prisoner of war camp he was interned in to Rick Amor's imposing and thought provoking oil paintings of the destruction in East Timor in 1999 These artists have shaped how we see war immortalising soldiers and battles From World War II to Vietnam and the war against terrorism the war artist has opened our eyes and perceptions to historic events that might otherwise have been censored distorted or forgotten In the process they have created some extraordinary art u
