Change and Development in Specialist Public Health Practice Sian Griffiths, Thorpe Allison, Jenny Wright, 2023-01-06 Based on the popular courses run by the Centre for Evidence Based Medicine in Oxford and written by leading figures working in the field of evidence based medicine this workbook provides papers appropriate for the study of Practising Public Health John Ashton, Liam J. Donaldson, 2020 Public health issues are rarely out of the news The 9 11 terrorist attacks the Grenfell Tower fire new designer drugs outbreaks of Ebola and links between social media and mental health occupy our thoughts and our screens However awareness of these events as public health issues is a recent phenomenon for many years after the Second World War the history of the field was eclipsed by advances in clinical science and patient care In Practising Public Health An Eyewitness Account John Ashton sets the record straight The former Regional Director of Public Health in the North West of England and co founder of the WHO Healthy Cities Project shares his adventures and experiences as a leader in public health at a time of unprecedented change and challenge He presents case studies from the frontline of public health and tells stories that are now part of modern history Fighting for a better public health at community national and international levels John shows us how public engagement and partnership goes hand in hand with political action The stories in this book illustrate the importance of using your imagination challenging the status quo and thinking on your feet when initiating change John also reveals the thinking behind his renowned hands on approach to public health and explains why he insists on bridging the gap between theory and practice Practising Public Health connects the work of nineteenth century public health giants to that of today s twenty first century pioneers taking time to reflect over dissect and highlight the events decisions and people involved in its development With case studies and story telling this book is ideal for undergraduate and postgraduate public health courses worldwide It is also of high value to other health professional groups such as nurses and health visitors social workers and community development activists as well as politicians and policy makers Health and the Modern Home Mark Jackson, 2008-02-07 Health and the Modern Home explores shifting and contentious debates about the impact of the domestic environment on health in the modern period Drawing on recent scholarship contributors expose the socio political context in which the physical and emotional environment of the modern home and family became implicated in the maintenance of health and in the aetiology and pathogenesis of diverse psychological and physical conditions In addition they critically analyze the manner in which the expression and articulation of medical concerns about the domestic environment served to legitimate particular political and Health and the Modern Home Mark Jackson, 2008-02-07 Health and the Modern Home explores ideological positions shifting and contentious debates about the impact of the domestic environment on health in the modern period Drawing on recent scholarship contributors expose the socio political context in which the physical and emotional environment of the modern home and family became implicated in the maintenance of health and in the aetiology and pathogenesis of diverse psychological and physical conditions In addition they critically analyze the manner in which the expression and articulation of medical concerns about the domestic environment served to legitimate particular political and ideological positions Mighty Capital under Threat Bill Luckin, Peter Thorsheim, 2020-03-03 Demographically nineteenth century London or what Victorians called the new Rome first equaled then superseded its ancient ancestor By the mid eighteenth century the British capital had already developed into a global city Sustained by its enormous empire between 1800 and the First World War London ballooned in population and land area Nothing so vast had previously existed anywhere A Mighty Capital under Threat investigates the environmental history of one of the world's global cities and the largest city in the United Kingdom Contributors cover the feeding of London waste management movement between the city's numerous districts and the making and shaping of the environmental sciences in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Adult Britain, 1841-1994: Reviews broad trends in mortality, life expectancy, use of health services, and changes in factors which have influenced health, 1997 Reviews broad trends in mortality life expectancy use of health services and changes in factors which have influenced health EBOOK: The Epidemiological Imagination John Ashton, 1994-09-16 Public health is once again in the spotlight after several decades of being eclipsed by high tech individually oriented medical science The reasons for this are not hard to find the ever escalating costs of medical care growing disillusionment with the return on investment particularly for the poorer sections of the community and a growing recognition of the importance of health promotion and preventative strategies which focus on the environmental and behavioural determinants of health and disease At the heart of the public health perspective is an emphasis on understanding whole populations through the application of epidemiological analysis This reader addresses the need to make available some of the classics of epidemiology to the new generations of students who are now trained in public health and to share with them the excitement of the epidemiological method There is a wealth of experience in our collective public health past and as we shape the new public health there is a danger of ignoring lessons from the old By drawing on the choices of leading contemporary epidemiologists in selecting published papers both old and new this volume aims to make the classics accessible to teachers and students alike Information Sources in the Medical Sciences Leslie Thomas Morton, S.
