Recent Work In Womens History East And West:

Recent Work in Women's History Esther Katz, 1986 This enlightening volume reveals the range and depth of the scholarship in women's history that has emerged in the past decade Experts examine women's past within distinct and variable cultures including India China and the Middle East as well as the United States France and England Crucial issues are debated resulting in a remarkable level of consensus among historians in the evaluations of women's roles and activities This exciting and important volume clearly demonstrates that women's history continues to raise new and valuable questions for historians And historians continue to demonstrate that women's history is not only relevant but intrinsic to understanding fully the process of historical development Writing Women's History Karen M. Offen, Ruth Roach Pierson, Jane Rendall, 1991-08-23 Five essays address such themes as the relationship between feminist history and women's history the use of the concept of experience the development of the history of gender demographic history and women's history and the importance of post structuralism to women's history For Our Daughters Olivia Cox-Fill, 1996-03-25 This unique social history spans the last half century when developments in birth control and the education of women have increased opportunities for women to have successful careers This book investigates how the first generation of modern women faced the challenge of combining marriage and family with professional responsibilities Olivia Cox Fill an Irish journalist and professional filmmaker interviewed hundreds of prominent women from 10 different countries on three continents before presenting this group portrait of 30 interviews of women leaders diplomats award winning scientists government ministers doctors and industrialists to name a few of the professions represented The interviews are set against the backdrop of the social history of women in each country Their achievements especially in light of the tenor of their times and their desire and ability to have rewarding and fulfilling family lives make them inspiring models for later generations of women who may consider it necessary to choose between home and career The author's international connections with high ranking diplomats and politicians allow us valuable glimpses into the real world of outstanding women A Social History of Late Ottoman Women Duygu Köksal, Anastasia Falierou, 2013-10-10 In A Social History of the Late Ottoman Women New Perspectives Duygu Köksal and Anastasia Falierou bring together new research on women of different geographies and communities of the late Ottoman Empire Making use of archives literary works diaries newspapers almanacs art works or cartoons the contributors focus particularly on the ways in which women gained power and exercised agency in late Ottoman Empire and early Republican Turkey The articles convincingly show that women's agency cannot be unearthed without narrating how women were involved in shaping their own and others lives even in the most unexpected areas of their existence The women's activities described here do not simply reflect modernizing trends or westernizing attitudes or their defensive denial They provide an array of local responses where the local can never be found and should never be conceptualized in its initial unchanged or authentic state Women's Emancipation Movements in the Nineteenth Century Sylvia

Paletschek,2005-11-14 The nineteenth century a time of far reaching cultural political and socio economic transformation in Europe brought about fundamental changes in the role of women Women achieved this by fighting for their rights in the legal economic and political spheres In the various parts of Europe this process went forward at a different pace and followed different patterns Most historical research up to now has ignored this diversity preferring to focus on women s emancipation movements in major western European countries such as Britain and France The present volume provides a broader context to the movement by including countries both large and small from all regions of Europe Fourteen historians all of them specialists in women s history examine the origins and development of women s emancipation movements in their respective areas of expertise By exploring the cultural and political diversity of nineteenth century Europe and at the same time pointing out connections to questions explored by conventional scholarship the essays shed new light on common developments and problems

Women's History in Global Perspective Bonnie G. Smith,2004 The American Historical Association s Committee on Women Historians commissioned some of the pioneering figures in women s history to prepare essays in their respective areas of expertise These volumes the second and third in a series of three complete their collected efforts The first volume of the series dealt with the broad themes necessary to understanding women s history around the world As a counterpoint volume 2 is concerned with issues that have shaped the history of women in particular places and during particular eras It examines women in ancient civilizations including women in China Japan and Korea women and gender in South and South East Asia Medieval women women and gender in Colonial Latin America and the history of women in the US to 1865 Authors included are Sarah Hughes and Brady Hughes Susan Mann Barbara N Ramusack Judith M Bennett Ann Twinam and Kathleen Brown As with volume 2 volume 3 also discusses current trends in gender and women s history from a regional perspective It includes essays on sub Saharan Africa the Middle East early and modern Europe Russian and the Soviet Union Latin American and North America after 1865 Asuncion Lavrin Ellen Dubois and Judith P Zinsser writing with Bonnie S Anderson Incorporating essays from top scholars ranging over an abundance of regions dates and methodologies the three volumes of Women s History in Global Perspective constitute an invaluable resource for anyone interested in a comprehensive overview on the latest in feminist scholarship Bonnie G Smith is the Board of Governors Professor of History and director of the Institute for Research on Women at Rutgers University She is the author of Confessions of a Concierge Madame Lucie s History of Twentieth Century France and many other books
