Reception Of The New Testament In The Apostolic Fathers:

The Reception of the New Testament in the Apostolic Fathers Andrew Gregory, Christopher Tuckett, 2005-12-02
The two volume work The New Testament and the Apostolic Fathers offers a comparative study of two collections of early Christian texts the New Testament and the texts from immediately after the New Testament period which are conventionally referred to as the Apostolic Fathers The first volume The Reception of the New Testament in the Apostolic Fathers presents a comprehensive and rigorous discussion of the extent to which the writings later included in the New Testament were known to and used by each of the Apostolic Fathers Contemporary research on the textual traditions of both collections is used to address the questions of textual transmission and reception

The New Testament and the Apostolic Fathers Andrew Gregory, Christopher Tuckett, 2005-12-01 The two volume work The New Testament and the Apostolic Fathers offers a comparative study of two collections of early Christian texts the New Testament and the texts from immediately after the New Testament period which are conventionally referred to as the Apostolic Fathers The first volume The Reception of the New Testament in the Apostolic Fathers presents a comprehensive and rigorous discussion of the extent to which the writings later included in the New Testament were known to and used by each of the Apostolic Fathers Contemporary research on the textual traditions of both collections is used to address the questions of textual transmission and reception The second volume Trajectories through the New Testament and the Apostolic Fathers discusses broad theological literary and historical issues that arise in the comparative study of these texts and which are of importance to the study of early Christianity It deals with the most important current debates concerning both the Apostolic Fathers and the New Testament such as baptism Pauline theology the function of apocalyptic elements Church order and Jewish and Christian identity

The New Testament in the Apostolic Fathers Oxford Society of Historical Theology, 1905 The Apostolic Fathers and Paul Todd D. Still, David E. Wilhite, 2016-12-01 Building on the work of Tertullian and Paul this volume continues a series of specially commissioned studies by leading voices in New Testament Early Christianity and Patristics studies to consider how Paul was read interpreted and received by the Church Fathers In this volume the use of Paul's writings is examined within the work of the Apostolic Fathers Issue of influence reception theology and history are examined to show how Paul's work influenced the developing theology of the early Church The literary style of Paul's output is also examined The contributors to the volume represent leading lights in the study of the Apostolic Fathers as well as respected names from the field of New Testament studies

The Making of Paul Richard I. Pervo, The influence of the apostle Paul in early Christianity goes far beyond the reach of the seven genuine letters he wrote to early assemblies Paul was revered and fiercely opposed in an even larger number of letters penned in his name and in narratives told about him and against him that were included in our New Testament and far more often treasured and circulated outside it Richard Pervo provides an illuminating and comprehensive survey of the legacy of Paul and the various ways he was remembered honored and vilified in the early churches

The Oxford Handbook of Johannine Studies Judith M. Lieu, Martinus C. de Boer, 2018-07-19 The contribution of the Johannine literature to the development of Christian theology and particularly to Christology is uncontested although careful distinction between the implications of its language especially that of sonship in a first century Jewish context and in the subsequent theological controversies of the early Church has been particularly important if not always easily sustained Recent study has shaken off the weight of subsequent Christian appropriation of Johannine language which has sometimes made readers immune to the ambiguities and challenging tensions in its thought The Oxford Handbook of Johannine Studies begins with chapters concentrating on discussions of the background and context of the Johannine literature leading to the different ways of reading the text and thence to the primary theological themes within them before concluding with some discussion of the reception of the Johannine literature in the early church Inevitably given their different genres and levels of complexity some chapters pay most if not all attention to the Gospel whereas others are more able to give a more substantial place to the letters All the contributors have themselves made significant contributions to their topic They have sought to give a balanced introduction to the relevant scholarship and debate but they have also been able to present the issues from their own perspective The Handbook will help those less familiar with the Johannine literature to get a sense of the major areas of debate and why the field continues to be one of vibrant and exciting study and that those who are already part of the conversation will find new insights to enliven their own on going engagement with these writings

The Early Text of the

New Testament Charles E. Hill, Michael J. Kruger, 2012-06-14 The Early Text of the New Testament aims to examine and assess from our earliest extant sources the most primitive state of the New Testament text now known What sort of changes did scribes make to the text What is the quality of the text now at our disposal What can we learn about the nature of textual transmission in the earliest centuries In addition to exploring the textual and scribal culture of early Christianity this volume explores the textual evidence for all the sections of the New Testament It also examines the evidence from the earliest translations of New Testament writings and the citations or allusions to New Testament texts in other early Christian writers

Jesus Tradition in the Apostolic Fathers Stephen E. Young, 2011 This dissertation reevaluates the tradition of Jesus sayings in the Apostolic Fathers in light of the growing recognition of the impact of orality upon early Christianity and its writings At the beginning of the last century it was common to hold that the Apostolic Fathers made wide use of the canonical Gospels While a number of studies have since called this view into question many of them simply replace the theory of dependence upon canonical Gospels with one of dependence upon other written sources No full scale study of Jesus tradition in the Apostolic Fathers has been published which takes into account the last four decades of new research into oral tradition in the wake of the pioneering work of Milman Parry and Albert Lord Based on this new research the present dissertation advances the thesis that an oral traditional source best explains the form and content of the explicit appeals to Jesus tradition in the Apostolic Fathers that predate 2 Clement In the course of the discussion attention is drawn to the ways in which the Jesus tradition in the Apostolic Fathers informs our understanding of the use of oral tradition in Christian antiquity

The Departure of an Apostle Alexander N. Kirk, 2015-11-05 What was Paul's attitude toward his own death How did he act and what did he say and write in view of it What hopes did he hold for himself beyond death Alexander N Kirk explores these questions through a close reading of four Pauline letters that look ahead to Paul's death and other relevant texts in the first two generations after Paul's death AD 70-160 The author studies portraits of the departed Paul in Acts 1 Clement the letters of Ignatius Polycarp's letter To the Philippians and the Martyrdom of Paul He also examines portraits of the departing Paul in 1 and 2 Corinthians Philippians and 2 Timothy arguing that Paul's death did not primarily present an existential challenge but a pastoral one Although touching upon several areas of recent scholarly interest Alexander N Kirk sets forth a new research question and fresh interpretations of early Christian and Pauline texts

The New Testament in the Apostolic Fathers Oxford Society Of Historical Theology, 2013-06 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy

Polycarp's Epistle to the Philippians and the Martyrdom of Polycarp Policarpo (santo, vescovo di Smirne), 2013-07-25 This commentary on Polycarp's Epistle to the

Philippians and the Martyrdom of Polycarp includes extensive introductions the Greek or Latin texts facing English translations and substantial comments on each passage The preliminary material investigates Polycarpian traditions and reconstructs an outline of his life The introductory studies for both Philippians and the Martyrdom discuss text and manuscript traditions date and place of composition historical setting literary genre and style unity and integrity purpose and themes theology and post composition influence The volume also explores communal self definition moral formation and the transmission of traditions including the use of documents now found in the New Testament The commentary proceeds passage by passage but also includes lengthy discussions of critical issues and key interpretive questions The investigations survey the current status of relevant scholarship and contain balanced discussions of controversial topics and scholarly debates

Jesus Tried and True H. H. Drake Williams, 2013-01-11 Are the gospels found within the New Testament superior to others Has the church unfairly chosen Matthew Mark Luke and John while leaving out many others Are there truly lost Christianities that would enrich our understanding of Jesus Would modern day seekers as well as followers of Jesus be better served by including gospels outside of the New Testament in their understanding of Jesus Jesus Tried and True answers these questions by examining the date source and reception of the canonical gospels of Matthew Mark Luke and John and then comparing this data with the other gospels It assesses this information by looking within these gospels and also evaluating early church history examining the writings of early church writers such as Papias Ignatius of Antioch Justin Martyr Irenaeus and Eusebius It then compares these findings with the date source and reception of the non canonical gospels that have received the most attention lately such as the Gospel of Thomas Gospel of Mary Gospel of Judas Gospel of Philip and Gospel of Peter There is also a brief survey of thirteen of the most important non canonical gospels The survey provides an opinion on the dependence of these upon the gospels within the New Testament Jesus Tried and True affirms the superiority of the New Testament gospels It concludes by addressing whether non canonical gospels are lost Christianities and also whether the designation apocryphal is appropriate for other gospels

Rethinking the Dates of the New Testament Jonathan Bernier, 2022-05-03 This paradigm shifting study is the first book length investigation into the compositional dates of the New Testament to be published in over forty years It argues that with the notable exception of the undisputed Pauline Epistles most New Testament texts were composed twenty to thirty years earlier than is typically supposed by contemporary biblical scholars What emerges is a revised view of how quickly early Christians produced what became the seminal texts for their new movement

The Variety and Importance of the Scriptural Witnesses to the So-called 'Western' Text, 2023-06-19 The essays in this volume offered to Dr Jenny Read Heimerdinger on the occasion of her 70th birthday cover subjects in New Testament textual criticism that are central to her research In particular the volume contains text critical studies of the four Gospels the Acts of the Apostles the early testimony of New Testament Greek and Coptic manuscripts scribal tendencies in the first centuries and linguistic approaches to textual criticism

Revealed Wisdom John

Ashton, 2014-06-16 A collection of twenty one essays clustered around the theme of apocalyptic revelations of hitherto undisclosed divine mysteries to human seers either directly or through the mediation of an interpreting angel Preliminary essays on the Book of Job Messianism and apocalyptic ethics are followed by five studies centred upon Jewish apocalypses composed around the turn of the era two anonymous three pseudonymous and four essays on New Testament writers two on Paul one on Mark and one on John A reflection upon an early Islamic convert from Judaism emphasizing the Abrahamic lexicon common to all three religions of the book is succeeded by essays on two medieval Christian visionaries Joachim of Fiore and Francis of Assisi After a further essay on a little known Syriac apocalyptic text the volume concludes with studies of four different aspects of the Book of Revelation itself NEW TESTAMENT IN THE APOSTOLIC FATHERS COMMITTEE OF THE OXFORD SOCIETY OF HISTORICAL THEOLOGY, 2018

2 Clement Christopher Tuckett, 2012-10-11 This volume provides the first full scale edition and commentary in English of the text known as 2 Clement since Lightfoot's magisterial work at the end of the 19th century The volume contains a critical edition of the text in Greek including a full critical apparatus based on all the surviving manuscripts together with an English translation A full introduction deals with issues of manuscript and other attestation authorship date place etc as well as discussing issues concerning the genre of the text the identity of possible opponents citations as well as providing an overall summary of the theology of the text The work also provides a full scale detailed commentary on the Greek text providing analysis of all the main issues arising from the text

Christ the Center Tomas Bokedal, 2023-08-23 Scripture is a beautiful mosaic of Christ The earliest Christians expressed their faith with creativity through symbols and summaries In Christ the Center Tomas Bokedal explores the relationship of the rule of faith nomina sacra and numerical patterns with Scripture The nomina sacra scribal reverence for divine names within Scripture display remarkable intentionality and theological reflection The nomina sacra in turn directed the emerging rule of faith These scribal practices reveal early devotional and theological preoccupation and guided the text's shape and interpretation in the early centuries after Christ Christ the Center showcases early Christian reverence for Scripture and especially for the One of whom Scripture speaks
